ALUMNAE NOTES

HOME COMING, MARCH 18 AND 19

The observance of Home Coming will begin the night of March 18 with a play, "The Torch-Bearers," by George Kelly, produced by the Stratford players under the direction of Dr. Argus Tresidder.

On March 19 a general social gathering of alumnae and faculty will take place in the reception room of Alumnae Hall from 10:30 to 12:30; this will replace the special meetings formerly scheduled at this time. In place of the evening banquet, a luncheon at 1 o'clock in Bluestone Dining Hall will be given for the alumnae, seniors, and faculty. After the luncheon the business meeting will take place. Miss Mary B. Allgood, president of the association, will preside at the luncheon and at the business meeting. President S. P. Duke will be the main speaker at the luncheon. After the business meeting there will be opportunity for any special meetings desired by alumnae.

A dance will be held in the Reed gymnasium, beginning at 8:30; Ray Frye and his Virginians will furnish the music. A movie will be given at 8:30 in Wilson auditorium for those who are not interested in attending the dance.

Two alumnae are now connected with the Children's Hospital, Washington, D. C.: Lucille Smiley, '35, and Mandane Anderson, '34. The latter is technician in the hospital laboratory.

Laviana Slocum, '35, is therapeutic dieti-tian at the Tampa Community Hospital, Tampa, Florida. She recently finished a year's course in the training of dietitians at the Medical College of Virginia at Richmond.

Betty Thrasher, '37, is now dietitian at the Blue Ridge Sanatorium at Charlottesville.

The Augusta County local chapter of the Alumnae Association under the presidency of Helen Carter, '24, of Staunton, is planning to have four meetings a year instead of more frequent meetings. The county is so large and the members are so scattered it is hard for them to meet oftener.
