

THE TEACHER'S JOE MILLER

Mechanics Prof.: "Name a great time saver."

Soph: "Love at first sight."

A Morningside parent recently had occasion to punish his six-year-old son. That night he overheard the youngster saying his prayers.

"Lord, make me a good boy," pleaded the child. "I asked yesterday, but I suppose you overlooked it."

Sunday School Teacher: "Why in your prayers do you only ask for your daily bread instead of asking enough for a week?"

Boy: "So we can get it fresh every day."

Student: "Can I get anything to eat in this dump?"

Negro Waiter: "Yas, sah, you kin."

Student: "Such as what?"

Waiter: "Such as it is, sah."

AND THEN SOME!

Instructor: "Give a definition of trigonometry."

Pupil: "When a man gets married three times, that's trigonometry."

Teacher (to Grade II pupil): "Name four kinds of people."

Pupil: "Four kinds of people are, dead, alive, married, and single."

Junior: "I owe all I have to one woman."

Sophomore: "Your mother?"

Junior: "No, my landlady."

Grade One was having a lesson on birds. After some discussion the fact was established that birds eat fruit. One little girl, however, was unconvinced.

"But, teacher?" she asked, raising her hand, "how can birds open the cans?"

HE SPOKE FROM EXPERIENCE

Jake and his friend were walking across the campus discussing important problems.

"Jake," said the friend, "I am beginning to think that girls keep one young."

"How so?"

"Well, I was a freshman three years ago, and I am still a freshman today."

STINGER QUESTION

Tommy was listening to some of his sailor uncle's adventures:

"You see, sonny, I always believe in fighting the enemy with his own weapons," said the uncle.

"Really?" gasped Tommy. "How long does it take you to sting a wasp?"

"Can you type?"

"Well, I use the Columbus system."

"What's that?"

"I discover a key, then land on it."

THE DIFFICULT PART

First college student: "Why are you taking so much time over that letter to your folks? You've been at it for two hours. Are you asking for money?"

Second student: "No, I'm trying to write a letter without asking for money."

From a Mexican pupil's composition: I had an ample teacher last term. He taught us to do three things. First, how to write briefs and then to exaggerate them; second, how to extract substances from novels; and last, how to interrupt poetry.

NOT SO BAD

Teacher: "Now, children, since we have described what trees, flowers and plants are, who can tell me in his own words what grass is?"

Small Boy: "I can, teacher. Grass is whiskers on the earth."
