ALUMNAE NOTES

Indications are that there will be many alumnae back on March 17 and 18 for the 1939 Home-Coming. Registration of alumnae will be in Alumnae Hall. Badge, program, and tickets are given each alumna when she registers.

The main feature on March 17 is the presentation by the Stratford Dramatic Club, under the direction of Dr. Tresidder, of Noel Coward's play "I'll Leave It to You." The college orchestra under the leadership of Mr. Marshall will furnish the music.

The program on March 18 will be similar to that of last year. In the morning, at eleven o'clock, the local chapter will have an "Open House" in Alumnae Hall to which all alumnae and faculty are invited. This is one of the most enjoyable features of the week-end, as it gives opportunity to greet former classmates and faculty members.

Instead of a banquet this year, there will be a luncheon in Bluestone Dining Hall at one o'clock. Mary Brown Allgood, president of the association, will preside, and Dr. Duke will be the main speaker. The business meeting in the auditorium of Wilson Hall will follow the luncheon. The election of officers will constitute one piece of business. Because Mary Brown Allgood has accepted a position in Ohio and will be unable to keep in close contact with the organization, she is asking that another person be elected president to complete the second year of office. The officers whose terms expire this year are the vice-president, Pam Parkins Thomas, of Toledo, Ohio, and the treasurer, Mary McNeil Willis, of Culpeper.

This is the year for the reunion of the classes of '14, '19, '24, '29 and '34; members of these classes are planning special meetings in the interval between the business meeting and the dance.

At eight-thirty a movie will be shown in the auditorium of Wilson Hall and the dance in Reed gymnasium will begin. The dance will be restricted to alumnae and members of the senior class. The music for the dance will be provided by the Virginians, who played for the dance last year.
