

part in making this country better. We promise to spend more time with our children and strive to make our homes approach the ideal.

THE LEGISLATOR: The people have to abide by the laws we make. Therefore I, the lawmaker, promise to make only clean, strong, and just laws.

THE DOCTOR: I, the doctor, speak for my profession. We will try to prevent disease. Prevention is better than cure. We will urge the building of hospitals and sanitariums, asylums and homes for the cure and care of the afflicted.

THE VOTER: I represent the voters of America. That America may grow into a greater nation, her people must vote for principle and not for party. I pledge myself to follow this law of voting.

THE TEACHER: I, the teacher, will endeavor to teach the children that education does not mean books only; but to make America what it should be, we must train the head, the heart, the hand.

A SPEAKER FOR CHILDHOOD: I stand for the childhood of America. I pledge to do everything in my power to help Columbia and the Spirits to make our country better and to bring it up to a higher standard.

(Toasts given by Citizens:)

Here's to America of To-Morrow!

To America: May she live for justice, freedom and peace for all. May she be Light and Liberty for the World!

Here's to a better, cleaner, purer, stronger, healthier America!

A toast from the children! America, we're behind you ten million strong!

Here's to the America of to-morrow! May she be all that great country should be!

COLUMBIA: Is there a toast we all can give?

(All in unison, standing at attention—)

Here's to America of To-Morrow!

(All sing "America" as curtain slowly falls.)

VOICES IN DREAMLAND

[Youth is a rich dreamland, and song makes life happier and sweeter—perhaps younger too—for normal people of all ages. For years past the Normal School Glee Club has annually added much to the brightness and sweetness of life at Blue-Stone Hill. One of the admiring friends of the said Glee Club is Dr. Wayland. He recently tried to express some of the appreciation that the whole community feels toward our sweet singers by writing a song and a melody and dedicating them to the Glee Club. Miss Shaeffer and Miss Hoffman supplied the necessary harmony, and the Club has sung the new song already on two public occasions. Here are the words. In time, it may be, the music will be published also.]

A whisper in dreamland—it wakes me at dawn—

Its message is "Sing! O sing!"

And morning tunes voices on hilltop and lawn,

Their chorus is "Sing! O sing!"

And so in my heart this sweet message of joy Keeps ringing the whole day long.

My soul would give answer without alloy—
My soul giveth answer in song.

I sing of the warblers among the trees,

I sing of the red caroon;

I sing of the flowers that scent the breeze,

I sing of the witching moon.

I sing of the mountains where shepherd bells ring,

I sing of the billowing sea;

But ever and ever, whenever I sing,

I sing, O my love, of thee!

The mountains give echoes of horn and of bell,

The winds play a wild harmony,

And distant old ocean, in unceasing swell,

Joins full in the symphony.

My voice in the chorus may never be heard,

My best song no honor may bring,

But e'er I'll keep singing, my heart's in my word,

I love you, and therefore I sing.
