Administrative Regulations

Registration of Students

Freshmen report first to the office of the Dean of Freshmen for assignment of rooms. Information will be given about the activities provided for “Freshman Orientation Week” which will begin on Monday at 8:00 a.m. and continue throughout the week. New upperclass students report to the Dean of Women for room assignments and receive instructions about matriculation for classes.

All students must have their program of classes approved by some member of the Schedule Committee. No changes may then be made except by permission of the Dean of the College, or some designated committee.

Grading System

Details may be found on pages 42-43 in the College Catalog.

Attendance and Absences

Students are expected to be present at their classes and other scheduled appointments. Absence from class is obviously detrimental to the student’s progress in academic work.

All students, except waitresses and student teachers whose teaching conflicts with assemblies, are required to attend assemblies. (See also page 12 regarding Assemblies.)

Absences for professional purposes, field trips, conventions, athletic and music groups, etc., are handled by the Dean of the College.

The college physician takes care of excuses for absences due to illness of a student, or in case of illness in the family, providing a doctor’s statement is presented.

In order to be valid, excuses must be presented to the instructor within one week after the student returns to school.

Students are expected to use class leaves sparingly and to save them for emergencies. The Committee on Attendance reserves the right to deny additional absences to students who have used their class cuts. For every occasion that a student takes a cut beyond the number allowed, he shall be reported by his instructor to the Attendance Committee. He will lose his cuts for the following semester and if excessive cuts continue, the student may be recommended for probation or suspension.

Cuts may be taken as follows:

Students whose scholastic indices in the previous semester are 3.25, or better, may take as many class cuts as in their judgment it is wise to take.

First semester freshmen will have no cuts.

All other students may have as many cuts per course per semester as class meetings per week, except that in no case will more than three cuts be allowed in any course.

Cuts on the first or last meeting of a class in a given semester or for a class period immediately before or after a holiday are considered double cuts. (See also page 34, No. 7 in Catalog for details).

Teachers are not responsible for giving make-up tests to absentees when these tests have been announced. No shifting of students from section to section in order to extend a class cut is allowed.

All students missing classes or failing to report to residence halls on time immediately before or immediately after any college vacation except those taking double cuts previously approved, for deaths and funerals in the immediate family, or when excuses have been approved by the college physician must appear in person before the Administrative Council of the Faculty and furnish reasons for their absences.

The class leave plan is not applicable to the summer term.

Attendance Regulations for Wednesday Assemblies

1. Assemblies will be held on Wednesday of every week at twelve o'clock noon.
2. Men and women will be seated together by classes.
3. All students are allowed two cuts (i.e. absences for which excuses are not presented) for each semester from attendance at Wednesday assemblies, but cuts are not allowed at convocations.

4. The Attendance Committee may allow unlimited cuts to students (men or women) who hold part-time jobs of such a nature that attendance at Wednesday assemblies conflicts with the performance of their other duties.

5. Penalties for students who take more than the two allowed cuts each semester are:
   a. Resident Students: For the first offense, one week's strict campus to be administered by the Student Government Association; for the second offense, three weeks' strict campus, to be administered by the Student Government Association; for the third offense, two months' strict campus, to be administered by the Student Government Association; for the fourth offense, the student must come before the Administrative Council and may be placed on probation, suspended for a definite period, or given indefinite suspension.
   b. Day Students: For the first offense, a written warning given by the Attendance Committee; for the second offense, called before Attendance Committee and may be placed on strict probation; for the third offense, called before the Administrative Council and may be suspended for a definite period of time; for the fourth offense, indefinite suspension may be given by the Administrative Council.

6. The monitors who check attendance at assemblies shall report to the Vice-President of the Student Government Association who in turn shall report violations by boarding students to the Student Council and by day students to the Attendance Committee.
Regarding Monday Assemblies:

The same plan as above will be followed except

a. A student is allowed as many as 3 cuts.

b. In case of a fourth offense, the student must come before the Student Council.

c. The men students are required to attend their own meetings.

Withdrawal from College

The President of the college must be notified in writing of a student’s intention to withdraw. In the case of a minor, the parents of the student must submit such notification to the President.

Further Regulations

Students in registering must use their proper, legal names, and students who are married while in college must immediately register under their married names.

A change of legal name or home address is to be made known promptly to the Registrar, the Dean of Freshmen or Dean of Women, the Business Manager, and the Post Office.

The College is not authorized to extend credit to students. Each student must therefore pay all fees for the preceding term before registering for a subsequent term. (For other regulations governing collection of fees see the current college catalog.)

The college does not permit hazing in any form.

Solicitations (See p. 35, No. 14, College Catalog).

Students are not allowed to sell commodities of any kind in the dormitories or on campus. No outside agent is allowed to sell any form of merchandise without permission from the President.
Every student who matriculates at Madison becomes a member of a community which enjoys a considerable degree of self-government. Truth and honesty are the basis of such community life. Only where there is a deep sense of personal integrity can there be the mutual trust and self-respect upon which any system of self-government must rest.

Every member of the student association shares its obligations as well as its privileges. She must be willing to place the standards of the community above her own. She must accept responsibility not only for herself, but for her fellow-citizens as well. It is presumed that every student who enrolls at Madison is a person of honor and that she will act honorably in all of her relations.

The Honor System is established for the purpose of fostering and preserving these cherished ideals. Lying, cheating, stealing and failure to report one of these breaches of honor are considered violations of the Honor System, whose effective operation is entirely dependent upon each individual student. Each student is equally responsible and should conduct herself so as to be free of reproach or suspicion, and should also be prompt to prosecute dishonorable acts of others. Failure to subscribe to these practices injures the integrity of the group and reflects upon the entire college body.

(b) All scholastic work, whether in the classroom or out, shall be the student's own, and shall be done in accordance with the requirements of the professor. Students may work together if the professor permits it. Otherwise, all papers, parallel reading, experiments, and tests shall be each individual student's work. Each professor shall explain his requirements to each class, and a copy of this shall be filed with the Honor Council. If there is any doubt, the student should consult the professor.

The student who gives illegal aid is as responsible as is the student who receives it. A student's signature on a paper shall be his pledge.
(c) The Honor System has been violated if a student is referred to the Honor Council by the Student Council as having intentionally falsified any record, or deliberately fails to tell the truth when questioned by campus authorities, members of the faculty, or members of the Student or Honor Councils during an investigation, hearing or trial. If it is unsatisfactory, they shall request the accused to report himself to the Honor Council within two days. When he reports himself he shall also give the names of his accusers, who shall be notified by the Honor Council that he has reported himself. If the accused does not report himself within two days, the accusers shall report the violation to any member of the Honor Council.

so within the two-day period, the faculty member shall then report the offense to the Honor Council.

(d) If any student observes a violation of the Honor System and fails to report it, he too has violated the principles of honor. Reporting an offense is preserving the integrity of the group.

(e) Any student who reports himself or who is reported to the Honor Council shall have the right to a full and impartial hearing by that body, and any conviction shall be based on a two-thirds vote of the full membership of the Honor Council. If the charges are not upheld, the details of the hearing shall be deleted from the minutes.

SECTION 5. Penalties

(a) In determining penalties the Honor Council shall take into consideration whether a person (1) reported himself without being spoken to, (2) reported himself after being spoken to, or (3) had to be reported by others.

(b) Failure to report a breach of honor shall carry the same range of penalty as other violations of the Honor System.

(c) Penalties may range from probation to expulsion.

(d) In all cases, except those involving suspension and expulsion, the decision of the Honor Council shall be final. In all cases involving suspension and expulsion, the recommendation of the Honor Council shall be submitted to the Administrative Council of the college for review and recommendation to the president who may suspend or dismiss students for such violations.

(e) A second conviction for any violation of the Honor System may result in recommendation for dismissal from the college.

SECTION 6. Pledge

(a) Every student who matriculates at Madison College thereby becomes a member of the Honor System. After the student has gained an understanding of the Honor Code, he must sign this pledge.
"I understand the privileges and responsibilities of self-govern-ernment in group living, and I realize that I am pledging my full cooperation in maintaining our Honor System. I promise that, by personal actions and attitudes, I will uphold the principles of the Honor Code of Madison College."

Article II. General Election Rules

Section 1. The student membership shall elect the major and minor officers of six major organizations: Student Government, Honor Council, Y. W. C. A., the Schoolma'am, the Breeze and the Athletic Association. The following regulations shall be observed in the election of these officers:

(a) There shall be an Electoral Board which shall consist of the vice-presidents of the Student Government, Y. W. C. A., and Athletic Association, and the Business Managers of the Breeze and Schoolma'am, and the Secretary of the Honor Council, together with two members of the Faculty appointed by the President of the College.

tion shall automatically become head of the Nominating Convention.

All members of the Nominating Convention shall have a cumulative rating of 2.00 or higher.

(1) For all offices, the Nominating Convention shall nominate at least two candidates. These shall be presented in writing to the Electoral Board at least ten days before the appointed election day. Additional names may be added to the ballot by petition. Such a petition must be signed by 10% of the student membership. The petition must be presented to the Nominating Convention within one week after nominations are announced.

(2) A candidate must receive a majority of the votes cast in order to be elected. In case no candidate receives a majority of the votes there shall be a run-off election to be held on Thursday following the regular election on Tuesday.

(3) Should a vacancy occur in the presidency of the Student Government, Athletic Association, or Y. W. C. A., the vice-president of said organization shall automatically fill the office of president.

It is imperative that information governing the use of the camp be obtained from the office of the Dean of Women by the groups before leaving the campus.

Campus Calendar
In order to prevent conflicts of time and place, all social events, activities of student organizations, and other special programs are placed on the calendar in the office of Dean of Women, by a member or adviser of any student organization, or a faculty member.
Rehearsals in Wilson Auditorium, social events in Reed or Ashby Gym or Alumnae Hall, picnics, hikes, recitals, plays, dinners, pay-days, movies, class meetings, athletic events, and other special events are to be listed on the calendar. Everyone on campus has immediate access to this information.

Entertainments
Evening entertainments, including distinguished speakers and prominent musicians, concerts and plays, are provided for by each student's payment of the Campus Fee. All will do well to note announcements of coming attractions, and arrange their plans so as not to miss these important cultural opportunities.

Intoxicants
Students are not permitted to use or have in their possession intoxicating liquors of any kind while under campus regulation. Conduct while absent from the campus which reflects discredit on the college, subjects the person to disciplinary action.

Mature Students
(M-21 years of age or over at the beginning of the semester.) Students in this age group come under the regular rules of the College for seniors as stated in the Handbook with the following exceptions:
1. A permission card from parents is not required. A mature student makes all decisions regarding dates, riding, and trips.

2. Slips for over-night absences are filled out with the identification, M.

NOTE: The continuance of these privileges will depend upon the cooperation of the mature students. If there should be abuse of these regulations, the Administration of the College reserves the right at any time to revise any of these regulations or apply restrictions to any student or students.

Campus Movies

1. Students may attend the campus movies on the presentation of their student lyceum tickets.

2. Resident students having out-of-town guests on the campus may get complimentary guest tickets from the office of the Dean of Women or hostesses in the Social Centers before the movie.

3. Day students living outside of the corporate limits of Harrisonburg will be entitled to season complimentary movie guest tickets and also women day students living in Harrisonburg who are too far from campus to attend movies unaccompanied by another person may secure special escort tickets from the Business Office upon payment of the Amusement tax.

4. Persons other than students and special guests, (see 1, 2, 3, above) and employees of the college, are not permitted to attend the college movies since the college is a non-commercial user of films.

Recreation Rooms

Recreation rooms are provided on the ground floors of Ashby and Spotswood Halls where radios, popular and classical recordings, games, pianos and coke machines may be used.

Visiting In Town

Upon receipt of written invitations sent to the Dean of Women, requests may be granted for senior and junior resident students to spend the night off-campus in Harrisonburg and vicinity with friends in a private home. A resident student may spend the night off-campus with parents, other close relatives, guardians or husband in a private home, tourist home or hotel.

Visitors On Campus

1. Overnight guests are welcome on week-ends. They are registered with the dormitory hostess who will notify the office of the Dean of Women. Guests will observe the same regulations as students. A charge of $1.00 a night is paid for a room-guest to the dormitory hostess or the Director of Dormitories.

2. Meal tickets for guests may be purchased from the Dietitian.

3. The Dean of Women and the Dean of Freshmen are glad to meet visitors in their respective offices in Alumnae Hall.

4. Members of the student's immediate families may visit in dormitories when properly announced to the hostess.
DORMITORY LIFE

In the dormitories women live as cooperative and reliable members of a large group. Their behavior is governed by good taste and intelligence. By living up to the best standards, students are oriented to the traditions and regulations of college life, lasting friendships are established, health is protected, effective study is promoted, wholesome personalities develop, and college proves to be a successful experience.

The Madison College way of living and working as presented in this HANDBOOK assumes intelligence, good college spirit, and refined taste, and makes the college a wholesome place for keen intellectual growth and valuable personal development. The Madison atmosphere is that of intelligent behavior and disciplined self-control.

Assignment of Rooms

1. Room assignments are made for freshmen in the office of Dean of Freshmen and for all other students in the office of Dean of Women. Room changes are made after consulting with the Dean of Freshmen or Dean of Women.

2. All students who do not reside at home or with a near relative are required to live in a college residence hall until such accommodations are exhausted. Students may room in private homes in town only when there is no room for them in dormitories and only when their quarters are selected and approved by the Dean of Women or the Dean of Freshmen.

Closing Hour

Each woman shall be in her dormitory every night by 10:35 p.m. except on Saturday night when the time is 11:05 p.m.

Dormitory Personnel

1. The Dormitory Council is a self-contained unit consisting of a hostess provided by the college administration, a president, an assistant president, and from two to six proctors, in charge of all regulations affecting the living of the resident group. This group meets every two weeks to discuss group living.

2. Each member of the dormitory is responsible for the observance of all regulations of the house. A monthly meeting of the dormitory members is called by the dormitory president at a time and place agreed upon by the members.

3. The dormitory hostess is a counselor working in cooperation with the Dormitory Council, Dean of Freshmen, Dean of Women, and the President of the College to promote the wholesome welfare of all women in the dormitory.

4. There will be no appeal to authority outside the house except in case of needed advice or a major difficulty.

Fire Drills

The Fire Department officers and duties are set forth in the Student Government Constitution.

Fire drill instructions are posted in each dormitory. In dormitory meetings fire drill instructions are discussed for clear understanding and correct performance.

Fire drills are held in each dormitory at irregular times.

When the alarm is sounded, each student shall:

1. Close windows, turn on the light, put on coat and shoes, leave door open.
2. Go quickly, using proper exit.—Do not stand in halls.
4. Refrain from laughing or talking during fire drill.
5. Return to room at proper signal.

No one may be excused from a fire drill under any condition.

Housekeeping Standards

High standards of care and management in dormitory rooms protect health, make efficient study possible, encourage good friendships, and create a desirable atmosphere for self-respecting members of a group. Rooms are subject to inspection at any time by the dormitory hostess, Director of Dormitories, Dean of Freshmen, Dean of Women, other members of the faculty and any visitors.

Sub-standard housekeeping brings a call-down from the House Council or Director of Dormitories.

Marring of walls in any way or the misuse of equipment provided by the college is not permitted. Fines are collected for damages.

Students may not use in their rooms inflammable substances or any electrical appliances except radios and hand hair dryers. See also catalogue p. 53 no. 12.

On leaving school a student leaves her room clear of clothing, furnishings, and trash.

Laundry and Pressing

Students send articles to the college laundry in accordance with the laundry rules as posted in each dormitory.

Pressing facilities are provided by the college. Information may be obtained from the dormitory hostess. Students may not use electric irons in their dormitory rooms.

Lost and Found

Lost and found articles are turned in to the Office of the Dean of Women. Losses are to be reported promptly to the Chairman of the Honor Council.

Lounge-Rooms

These rooms in the dormitories may be used to receive parents and other approved guests, for conversation and radio, for house-meetings, for group-devotions, and for reading.

Money

Students deposit personal money at the Office of the Business Manager for safe-keeping and quick accessibility.

Over-Night Guests in Dormitories

   (b) notifies her Hostess or House-President of her plan.

2. When a student is to be an over-night guest in another room in her own dormitory, she notifies her Hostess of her plan.

Quiet Hours

Hours for study and personal work in the dormitories are observed from 7:00 p.m. to 10:30 p.m. daily except Saturday and Sunday evenings. The use of musical instruments which disturbs others is not permitted during study hours.

There is to be no conversation and no use of radio, victrola, or bathtub from 11:00 p.m. to 6:45 a.m.

Every student is to be reasonably quiet during all other hours, especially in the dormitory lobbies, in the dining halls, and on the streets.

Official "Busy Signs" are respected at any hour of the day for the benefit of those who wish quiet or who wish to work without interference.

Radio and Victrola Regulations

A radio or a victrola may be used in a dormitory room on the following plan:

1. Not more than one radio may be used in a room.
2. Each radio must be installed with the approval of the college electrician.
3. A fee of $.75 per semester is charged for the use of each radio and must be paid at the Office of the Business Manager.
4. Radios may be turned on low, (dormitory door and transom closed) without restriction as to time between 6:45 A. M. and 11:00 P. M.

5. The volume of the sound of the radio and other musical instruments must be controlled so as not to disturb students in other rooms.

6. If these regulations are not observed, the radio will be removed from the room by the Hostess or Director of Dormitories and a call-down is given each member of the room.

7. On the nights of formal dances on the campus, radios may be used till midnight.

8. Victrolas: Regulations 4, 5, 6, 7 shall apply to victrolas as well as radios.

Smoking

The college does not encourage smoking. It is permitted only in the students’ dormitory rooms, reception centers, recreation rooms, campus rest rooms, halls of Reed during intermission at formal dances, and in downtown restaurants.

Telephone and Telegraph Service

All students will find it desirable to notify their friends of their telephone numbers, since calls between the city switchboard and dormitories are made over pay telephones. Only emergency calls may be made or received by students after 11:00 P. M.

Please remember to use the telephone sharingly, space calls fairly, hang up receiver carefully and keep calls brief.

Telegraph messages may be sent at any time from a paytelephone; there is one on each floor of each dormitory, as well as in the post office lobby, Harrison Hall.

Students are notified at once of Western Union messages, which are delivered at Alumnae Hall.

Transportation Down Town

When necessary a student may call a taxi to go downtown. There is also a bus through campus every hour.

Out-of-town transportation facilities must be approved by the college.

Vacation Periods

All dormitories are closed during the Thanksgiving, Christmas and Easter vacations.

Violations

"Liberty is not the right to do as you choose; it is the responsibility of choosing what is right."

Violations of good standards for group-living are handled promptly by the House Council by authority granted them through Student Government. A problem may be referred to the Student Council, the Dean of Freshmen, the Dean of Women, or the President of the College.

Any student will forfeit her privilege of living in a dormitory if she creates disturbance so that others cannot work effectively or sleep.

Violations of the standards, practices, and procedures at Madison College are handled promptly by the Student Council of Student Government.

Violations of administrative regulations are handled by the Administrative Council.

Penalties which may be given for failure to cooperate with the college government may be "plain campus," "strict campus," "call downs," probation, suspension, or dismissal. If a student receives as many as 3 call-downs, she is immediately restricted.
A woman with adjustment difficulties is welcome to talk with the dormitory hostess, Dean of Freshmen, Dean of Women, or any other faculty member who may be able to help her.

What does HONOR mean on the Madison College Campus?
The Honor System was created by Madison College students to foster high ideals of integrity and straightforwardness in conduct, thought, and speech. Since it is the work of students, they believe that every person who enrolls at Madison will be proud to belong to an organization which will not tolerate lying, cheating, and stealing. Each new student comes into possession of a coveted heritage—something that grows stronger with the years. In order to strengthen it, and to leave to those that follow a mighty tradition of honest dealing with one another, each student must give his full cooperation to those elected representatives of the student body who have the responsibility of enforcing the Honor Code. To do otherwise would violate one's personal integrity.
The purpose of this organization, founded in March, 1910, is to encourage and stimulate the students' interests as participants in athletic games and sports, to promote good sportsmanship, and to cultivate a spirit of cooperation and fellowship.

The members of the council are: officers of A. A.; presidents of Mercury, Modern Dance, Tennis, and Archery Clubs; the school sports leaders of hockey, basketball, swimming, volleyball, badminton, and softball; and one representative from each class.

There are intramural and extramural sports programs which afford each girl an opportunity to take part in the various athletic activities on campus. These programs include hockey, basketball, volleyball, archery, badminton, tennis, swimming, softball, table tennis, golf, and fencing.

The Y. W. C. A. undertakes certain projects each year. Some of these are: the Freshman “Y”, which is organized to promote Christian Fellowship and training among its members; the “Big Sister-Little Sister Party”; the “Halloween Party”; the “Kid Party at Christmas”; the “Christmas Pageant”; the “Birthday Parties”; and “Religious Emphasis Week”.

Friday chapel and Sunday vespers are looked forward to by both students and faculty.

These college girls have various contacts and conferences where other college “Y” people get together. These conferences occur throughout the state. Officers are given the opportunity for special training at the national school of training.

Arlene Mannos

Endeavoring at all times to maintain freedom of the press, The Breeze is a student-published weekly newspaper. It portrays current activities on campus, contributes information regarding social and educational problems at Madison, and attempts to reflect student opinion and to mold it constructively.

The editor-in-chief and the business manager of The Breeze are elected by the student body. Members of the editorial staff are appointed by the editor-in-chief, while the business manager selects her assistants from a group of volunteers.

The Breeze is now in its thirtieth year of publication as a Madison organization.
The Schoolma’am, Madison’s yearbook, now in its forty-fourth year, enjoys the distinction of having been the first student publication issued at the college.

The editor-in-chief and the business manager of The Schoolma’am are elected in the annual school elections. Other members of the editorial staff are appointed by the editor-in-chief. In addition, each of the four classes elects a representative, who serves as class editor.

The Schoolma’am has as its purpose the preservation of those memories—scenes and events and accomplishments—which have made the year at Madison significant.

VII. SORORITIES

Panhellenic Council

This association, composed of three representatives from each sorority on campus, has as its main purpose to maintain on a high plane sorority life and inter-sorority relationship, to co-operate with college authorities in their effort to maintain high social and scholarship standards throughout the whole college, and to be a forum for the discussion of questions of interest to the college and sorority world.

The Panhellenic Council established a policy to become effective in the fall of 1945 that a student has to be on campus for two regular semesters before she may be rushed by a sorority, except in the case of a transfer who may be rushed after one semester, provided she meets the standards. All students must have a scholastic cumulative "C" average as well as a "C" for the preceding semester before being rushed by a sorority.

Panhellenic Code of Ethics

Membership in a sorority obligates each initiate thereof:
1. To co-operate with college authorities and to foster closer relationship with faculty and student body.
2. To respect both the letter and the spirit of any agreement made by the college and the Council.
3. To refrain from speaking disparagingly of any non-sorority girl or a member of another sorority.
4. To refrain from discussion of sorority affairs with non-members.
5. To regulate conduct so that it shall at all times conform in spirit and appearance with accepted standards of good breeding.
6. To conduct all rushing as inconspicuously as possible, to keep all rush rules in the "spirit" and the "letter of the law."
7. To remember that of those to whom much is given, much is required and that a sorority badge is not a mark of superiority but a pledge to high endeavor.

8. To remember that the unity of sororities means mutual improvement and protection.

9. To so honor the badge worn that nothing will be done to reflect discredit upon it.

Upon enrollment at Madison all men students automatically become members of the Men's Student Organization with attendance at all regular meetings required. The purpose of the organization is to promote the general welfare of the student body and the college as a whole, and to ensure the right of democratic self-government. The latter function is performed chiefly thru the Men's Student Court, composed of three seniors, two juniors, two sophomores, and one freshman, with the president of the organization serving as chairman. Cases of infringement of college tradition, breaches of social etiquette, overcutting or unexcused absences from regular meetings of the organization, and all matters contrary to the best interest of the college are brought before the Court, with that body administering punishment, subject to the approval of the college administration. The Men's Student Organization is the focal point for all activities of the men students, individually or as a body.

At the first regular meeting of the school year the constitution of the Men's Student Organization is read to the men students and each is given a copy of it. This is done for the benefit of all students, but particularly for freshmen and all other new students who find the Organization's officers ready to help them with any problem.

CUSTOMS AND TRADITIONS

Old scrap-books, old songs, old lace, old streets—old things are dearest; and the nicest, most individual, most compelling aspect of Madison is its traditions—some almost as old as the College itself. Of all the memories taken away by girls who have attended Madison, the longest remembered are those of the events that have been going on, year after year, until they have become traditional. It would be impossible to determine just which of the following customs and traditions means the most.

Homecoming

Homecoming, which is held in the spring, is the time for all former students of Madison College, in both summer and regular sessions, to visit the college and enjoy the program provided for the occasion.

May Day

The all college May Day is sponsored by the Athletic Association. Participants include members from all classes.

The Athletic Association Council nominates the court. Nominations are made on the bases of beauty, poise and grace. Candidates are nominated and each member of the council votes for thirty-eight girls by secret ballot.

The final decision for the Queen, her Maid-of-honor and the twelve Maids is made by the student body. Balloting is done at one of the assembly periods. Those persons elected by the student body to serve in the May Court are tapped by members of the Athletic Association Council during a Monday assembly.
Old Student—New Student Ceremony

Symbolical of the union between new students and old, the Oldstudent-New student ceremony is solemnized each fall under the auspices of the Student Government Association.

Candlelight Service

In the fall, soon after the arrival of the students, each girl is given the opportunity of becoming a member of Y. W. C. A. A candlelight service is held as a public recognition of its new members. This is a most impressive service, as each receives the light symbolical of the Christian life.

Christmas Pageant

Each year, just before the Christmas holidays begin, a simple but impressive Christmas Pageant is given by the Y. W. C. A. The Madonna is chosen by popular election from the student body.

Worship Program

Worship services are held every Sunday afternoon at 1:50 p. m. The “Y” also sponsors the Friday chapel services. The entire student body is invited to attend.

Big and Little Sisters

During the summer each upper classman receives the name of her “little sister,” to whom she writes and gives an early welcome to the campus and makes her feel as if she were a part of the college before she gets here. The big sister helps her little sister to become adjusted and acts as her adviser all through the year. The Big Sister-Little Sister party is given on the first Wednesday evening of each school year. Each big sister escorts her little sister and delights in introducing her to the old girls.
Sports, Games and Dance

All year-round interest in sports is left high by the Intramural Program.

The fall sports are field hockey, archery and tennis. Tournaments are arranged and instruction is given to those who desire it.

The winter sports are bowling, basketball, volleyball and badminton. Bowling competition and instruction is arranged. The girls use the alleys in town. Basketball, volleyball and badminton arouse interest with the intradormitory tournament held in each sport.

The spring sports are softball, archery and tennis. Intramural swimming runs through the year.

There is all year participation in modern, square and social dance.

Each student is given an opportunity to engage in her favorite sport and dance. She is encouraged to participate in the Intramural Program and to learn new activities. Students at Madison find these athletics a valuable way to use their leisure time and become acquainted with their fellow classmates.

Sports leaders are elected by the Athletic Association Council for each of the various activities. These leaders are responsible for scheduling intradormitory competition during the respective season. Each activity has a sponsor who is a member of the Physical Education Staff.
Alma Mater
(Since 1940)

MARY FUNK SLAUGHTER

Oh, Alma Mater, to thy name
We'll ever faithful be,
Lift learning's torch to brighter flame,
Shed Honor's light on thee.

Where mountain blue meets sunset glow,
Our college stands serene,
With passing years its friendships grow
In memory ever green.

Oh, Madison, may wisdom clear
Guide us and prosper thee.
We give thee, Alma Mater dear,
Our love and loyalty,
Our love and loyalty.
Alma Mater

(Tune, Old Refrain)

As shines the light divine on seekers near,
So gleams thy power, O Alma Mater dear.
For finer truth in love and strength to live
We come, accepting all, that we may give.

CHORUS:
The daughters of thy pride we long to be,
Inspired to nobleness and loyalty;
Afford us wisdom from thy wid'ning store;
Sight us with visions fading never more.

2.
We love thy hills uprising to the blue,
Thy soft grays blending with the sunset hue.
Show us the beauty of our friendships rare;
Teach us the worthiness of such to share.

Class 1932

Blue-Stone Hill

(Tune, Juanita.)

Dedicated to the Harrisonburg State Normal School.

Fair on yon mountain,
Gleams the light of morning skies;
Firm on yon hill crest
Blue stone towers rise.
Proudly waves Old Glory,
White and red and blue above,
Writ with freedom’s story,
Sign of truth and love.
CHORUS:

Mater, Alma Mater,
Though afar we bless thee still;
And may Love forever
Smile on Blue-Stone Hill.

Far o'er the Valley,
When at eve the world is still,
Shine through the gloaming
Lights from Blue-Stone Hill.
Thus afar out-streaming,
O'er the land and o'er the sea,
Like the stars e'er gleaming,
May thy glory be.—(Chorus.)

Queen of the Valley,
Alma Mater, thou shalt be;
Round thee shall rally
Those who honor thee;
All thy daughters loyal,
One in heart and one in will,
Many gifts and royal
Bring to Blue-Stone Hill:—(Chorus.)

Noon, night, and morning
We attend thy signal bell,
True to its warning
Till we say farewell.
Through the years, swift winging,
Oft will come a quickening thrill—
In the soul still ringing,
Bells of Blue-Stone Hill!—(Chorus.)

—JOHN W. WAYLAND
Presented by the Standards Committee of the Student Government Association

The STANDARDS COMMITTEE aims to promote high standards of conduct and appearance. The conduct of a Madison student embraces all of her activities. This information has been compiled by the STANDARDS COMMITTEE to supplement the Student Handbook. Students are urged to acquaint themselves with these standards of conduct, and to comply with them.

And After Classes

The recreation rooms in Ashby, Logan, and Spotswood are a favorite meeting place between classes, after lunch, in mid afternoon, and evening. The doors are always open to women students. Phonographs, coke machines, and radios are provided. Also games and dancing are enjoyed. Of course, we do not dance on Sunday. You may bring your cigarettes along; smoking is permitted so long as proper care is taken of the furniture and ventilation proves satisfactory.

Freshman dates are welcome in Ashby at certain times; upper classmen in Logan. Check your handbook for the hours and don’t forget, you meet your dates in your social center. On dance weekends dates are permitted also in Spotswood Recreation Room.

Be careful about your personal appearance. Neatness and appropriate attire are required.

Outside doors are the entrances and exits only. These rooms are not to be used as traffic ways . . . no cutting through. For more information see handbook page 44.

Downtown

A few spare minutes and we’re on our way downtown. College students are expected to be very careful about their personal appearance, voices, and conduct on the street, in the movies, and in public eating places.
Students are expected to use discrimination in the choice of restaurants, theaters, and other public places. After the movies we might stop for a coke someplace. Check the time and allow ample time to get back to school. Students are allowed to attend Sunday afternoon movies if they wear Sunday dress. Smoking is permitted in downtown restaurants. For all church functions be sure you wear appropriate costume and headdress.

Let’s Dance

What about dances? After the movies on Saturday night join the crowd and come over to the gym. These dances are informal and quite enjoyable. Yes, we have big dances too....in the fall the Opening dance, sponsored by your Student Government starts the ball rolling. Then there is the Panhellenic dance before Christmas, the May dance, German and Cotillion dances, Alumnae dance, and Commencement dance. All of our dances are “girl break”....be sure and introduce your “date” to your friends and in return meet their “dates”. Don’t just wonder who the people sitting on the sidelines are; introduce yourself and your “date” to the chaperones for they like to know you outside of the classroom, too.

Be on your best behavior....here are a few reminders.

1. Girls meet and sign out for “dates” or other callers in their respective social centers.
2. Formal dances begin at 8:30 p. m. and end at 11:59 p. m. Girls return directly to their dormitories and are in by 12:30 A. M. Lights are out at 1:00 A. M.
3. Girls with “dates” are expected to go down the receiving line.
4. While on the dance floor students and “dates” will refrain from chewing gum, speaking loudly, running across the dance floor, smoking and dancing in exaggerated forms.
5. You may smoke in the halls of Reed during intermission.
6. NO DRINKING IS ALLOWED.
7. Girls break only on dates to whom they are introduced. This includes informal as well as formal dances.
8. At all formal dances girls wear formal dresses and dates wear "tux," tails, or military uniforms.
9. Dances are for all Madison students and their dates. Men stags are not allowed unless they are Madison students.

Dining Halls and Tea Room

A few rules which we observe:

1. Students observe high standards of etiquette in the dining halls and in the tea room at all times.
2. Reverence during grace is the proper attitude. Learn the songs which are used for grace at dinner. Students do not sing at any other time in the dining hall. Students may, however, sing on special occasions.
3. Head scarves may be worn turban style to breakfast only, and are not to be worn in any fashion to other meals.
4. Students dress to make their best appearance for Sunday dinner and other specified occasions. It is well to "freshen up" for dinner every evening.
5. The small bulletin board to the left in Harrison Hall lobby is for dining hall and tea room notices only.
6. Students are requested not to take food or dining hall property from the dining halls. One piece of fruit may be taken at breakfast. Food and medicine should not be brought to the table.
7. Courtesy to the waitress is the standard at all times.
8. At meal times, books and wraps are put in the rooms provided for them in the lobbies of the respective dining halls. Freshman cloakrooms are on the right and left sides of Harrison lobby; upperclassmen eating in Junior, hang their wraps in the lobby and seniors hang their wraps in Senior lobby.
9. For greater safety, crowding on stairs at the entrance of dining halls should be avoided. Thoughtful behavior is in good taste.
10. Students push their chairs back to the table and leave their respective tables as a group and do not stop at other tables to talk on the way out of the dining hall.
11. Family service is used in the dining halls. Each table is to elect a hostess for a semester.
12. Refrain from handling glassware, china, and silver until you are seated at the table.

Around Campus

1. Students do not sit on the walls in front of campus.
2. STUDENTS DO NOT CUT CAMPUS.
3. Students meet their “dates” in Senior, Junior, Logan, or Alumnae Halls as designated by the Office of the Dean of Women.
4. Students and their “dates” do not walk or sit on porches of any dormitories except dating centers (Junior, Logan, Senior, or Alumnae). Benches are provided for your convenience.
5. Students lower shades after dark.
6. Students do not talk out of windows or from upper story porches to passersby.
7. Pajamas are worn only in the dorms. Girls may wear slacks and jeans for picnics, and hikes. For other occasions after dark, slacks and jeans are worn with a full length coat. A full length coat is always worn over gym suits and other active sport attire. The above mentioned attire is not worn to the social centers, recreation rooms, class, the post office, and tea room.

Mind Your Manners

“Good taste or bad is involved in everything we are, do, or have. Our speech, manners, dress, and household goods—and even our friends are evidence of the quality of our taste.”

—Emily Post
Manners are not things to be read and talked about only; they must be practiced EVERYWHERE. Volumes have been written on the subject—it is very important. Here are a few general reminders.

When you receive an invitation be sure to answer it. If you must decline, do so, but when you accept be sure to go. Don’t let it slip by.

Be polite and take time to help guests on campus. Spend a few minutes giving them instructions.

Introduce yourself and make introductions whenever there is an opportunity.

Your behavior should never be conspicuous—showing affection in public is bad taste.

Get to know your faculty members; they are interested in you not only as students but as individuals.

“Good taste is a matter of the heart and understanding, not inherited but acquired.”
—Vogue’s Book of Etiquette

Attention Please

On Monday and Wednesday at noon we have assemblies which you are required to attend. See page 11 for attendance regulations. It is necessary that you give your strict attention to what is going on . . . not only for politeness sake but for your own good. On Monday your Student Government has charge and many important announcements are made which you should catch. If you can knit and listen at the same time, go ahead . . . but no talking and whispering. In our Wednesday assemblies one organization usually takes charge and we have either a speaker or a program. No knitting in Wednesday assemblies, so finish that sock for him some other time. No writing, studying, or talking, please.

Attendance at Friday assemblies sponsored by the Y. W. C. A., is optional but very worth while.
Sunbathing

“No classes until after lunch—let’s go sunbathing.” That’s a familiar phrase around campus when spring comes. The most popular place, on warm spring days and when spring fever has taken the campus by storm, is the area behind the tennis courts. This is the only place sunbathing is permitted. Bring your own blanket and come on out. (College blankets do not go sunbathing.). Radios, magazines, or a bridge game all add to the atmosphere. As a matter of courtesy, pick up your paper, kleenex, and other trash, and put them in the trash can provided.

Bathing suits or shorts and halter are quite appropriate and these can be easily concealed by a raincoat or other long coat on the hike over and back. Save the trip to the tea room until after you have changed your clothes. Sunday seems to be the ideal day to acquire a suntan, so come on out AFTER vespers are over—2:30 p. m.

Saturday Night

Wilson Auditorium is the popular place on Saturday night. Yes, maybe you have heard that we have movies on campus every Saturday night. All of you Madison co-eds are welcome and bring your out-of-town guests. Be sure to get your lyceum ticket, and have it with you, and if you have a date or other guests from out-of-town, you may secure guest tickets from your social center free of charge. Members of the Ushers Committee collect guest tickets and check student lyceum tickets at the door.

Before the movie we usually have a “singspiration” program, provided by campus organizations and talent. The movie itself begins at 7:30 p. m. . . . only one showing so try to make it on time. Late comers enter the auditorium by the side doors and use the side aisles. Unnecessary laughter and noise are not in good taste.
Weekends

When going away on weekends, remember that we are all representatives of Madison and we should behave as such. We are expected to conduct ourselves as ladies while on the campus, in the community, and at other schools. Our conduct brings credit or discredit, not only to ourselves, our families, and our college, but to the girls who have gone to our college, are going, and to those who will attend in the future.

If there is any question as to the appropriateness and good taste of a girl's conduct anywhere the Student Council is justified in contacting this student.

What to Wear

"What should I wear? That is the number one question among new students and almost as frequently asked by upperclassmen. The first rule is "dress appropriately" and the second is "use good taste". For classes cottons until it turns cool and then these are replaced by skirts and sweaters or blouses. Semi-formal dress replaces the classroom clothes on Sunday, and by semi-formal we mean hose, heels or dressy flats, and dresses or suits. For lyceum programs, teas, or other social events, we dress up—semi-formal dress.

Hats are worn to afternoon teas and parties and to church. For formal affairs we wear long dresses....formal dances call for evening dresses and formal dinners call for dinner dresses (evening dress not strapless for dinner).

By the way, when planning any social event, teas, class days, banquets, luncheons, receptions, open house, etc., contact the Social Committee. The Committee can give you a lot of suggestions and will be glad to help you.
Helpful Suggestions

1. Be considerate of your roommates, your neighbors, your hostess.
3. Remember that the faculty members are interested in your personal welfare. Make it a point to get to know them.
4. IF YOU DON'T KNOW THE ANSWER, ASK
