FOREWORD

As we pause in retrospection of the past college year, with its varied activities, we fancy ourselves as shadows moving back and forth across the screen of college life—shadows which at times recede vague and obscure, or again emerge clear-cut and well-defined. It is, therefore, the purpose of this book to preserve in high-light and in shadow these images, these impressions, of ourselves and of our school.

The Schoolma'Am
Behold, a king shall reign in righteousness, and princes shall rule in judgment. And a man shall be as an hiding place from the wind, and a covert from the tempest; as rivers of water in a dry place, as the shadow of a great rock in a weary land. And the eyes of them that see shall not be dim, and the ears of them that hear shall hearken. The heart also of the rash shall understand knowledge and the tongue of the stammerers shall be ready to speak plainly. The vile person shall be no more called liberal, nor the churl said to be bountiful. . . . Then judgment shall dwell in the wilderness, and righteousness remain in the fruitful field. And the work of righteousness shall be peace; and the effect of righteousness quietness and assurance forever.
PRAYER

April 7, 1935

Trusting in thy promises, O Lord, we give thanks and make our prayers. Give our princes righteousness and sound judgment. Make our citizens wise, strong, and dependable—able to stand four-square against every tempest of adversity, able to give shelter and comfort to any who may be in distress. "As the shadow of a great rock in a weary land," may the fortitude and generous sympathy of all thy servants refresh the fainting and inspire the earnest. Enlighten our eyes as leaders and teachers, quicken our ears as students, enlarge our understandings as learners. Make our speech eloquent in the simplicity of truth. May evil be abhorred and virtue exalted, and may thy wisdom and goodness be seen clearly even in the dark places of the earth. May the people earn their bread in fruitful industry, and may the nations work together in good will, to the end that justice, peace, and wholesome prosperity may be established. Amen.
ALMA MATER

As shines the light divine on seekers near,
So gleams thy power, O Alma Mater dear.
For finer truth in love and strength to live
We come, accepting all, that we may give.

The daughters of thy pride we long to be,
Inspired to nobleness and loyalty;
Afford us wisdom from thy widening store;
Sight us with visions fading nevermore.

We love thy hills uprising to the blue,
Thy soft grays blending with the sunset hue.
Show us the beauty of our friendships rare;
Teach us the worthiness of such to share.

HISTORICAL

In the heart of the Shenandoah Valley, with the Shenandoah and Massanutten mountains on either hand, lies the City of Harrisonburg, the home of our Alma Mater. When we look at Blue-Stone Hill with its blue limestone buildings, fitted as they are into an orderly pattern, it seems as if they must have always existed; but when we come to read its life history, we find that it is really very young, as institutions go, being only in its twenty-sixth year.

What has been the story of these twenty-six years? Let us first take a backward glance, and then look at our college as it is today so that we may see how much it has progressed.

The college was established March 14, 1908, by an act of the General Assembly, as the Normal and Industrial School for Women. This name it retained until 1916, when it was officially renamed the State Normal School for Women. It was not until 1924 that it received its present title, the State Teachers College at Harrisonburg.

The school was first opened to students September 28, 1909. During this first session the total enrollment amounted to 209 students, while the faculty numbered fourteen. Dr. Julian Ashby Burruss, now president of V. P. I., was president at that time; he retained this position until 1920, when he was succeeded by the present incumbent, Dr. Samuel Page Duke.

The physical equipment of the college on that opening day consisted of three buildings, the present Maury Hall, Jackson Hall, and the Infirmary.

At present the physical plant consists of sixteen buildings, the most recently constructed being Senior Hall, a splendid dormitory of the most modern type. It was completed this year as a Public Work Administration project.

The college now has a faculty of about sixty members and an enrollment of around 800 during the winter session. During the summer the work is co-educational, and the enrollment last summer was approximately 450. The college faculty members in cooperation with the University of Virginia also conduct extension courses at various points in the Valley, in which a number of students enroll.

At present the college grants the Professional Diploma and the Bachelor of Science Degree. The former is awarded upon the completion of the two-year curriculum for either grammar grade or primary-kindergarten teachers, and the latter is awarded to those who take a four-year course in preparation for either elementary or high school teaching or for specialization in home economics. A pre-nursing course of two years is also offered.

In addition, the State Board of Education has just this year authorized the granting of the Bachelor of Arts Degree.

Having given instruction to over 12,000 different persons in its history, it is today the largest college for women in the state. When we consider these noteworthy accomplishments during the first quarter of a century of its history, we realize how rapidly our college has advanced both materially and academically, ever striving toward an even greater degree of service.

GROWTH—1934-'35

ALTHOUGH the steady increases in enrollment during Harrisonburg's twenty-six years of existence culminated during the 1934-35 session in serving 837 boarding- and day-students, the scholastic year has been most noteworthy in its attainment of and progress toward other long-sought goals. The completion of Senior Hall in February by PWA appropriation of $148,000 for construction and furniture relieves the housing congestion by increasing by 116 the dormitory capacity. This splendid modern dormitory contains suites with connecting baths, kitchenettes on each floor, large downstairs-lobby, and three beautifully furnished reception rooms.

Appropriations have been increasingly large for purchase of equipment; approximately $10,000 was spent for library books and laboratory equipment this year.

Faculty members added this year are Mrs. Bernice Varner, instructor in home economics; Miss Ferne Hoover, assistant librarian; and Dr. George Williams, instructor in chemistry.

Reflecting increased student activity and interest, the Curie Science Club, the International Relations Club, and an underclassman scholarship club, Sigma Chi Lambda, drew up constitutions and are definitely functioning. Alpha Literary Society was reorganized to attract and foster the interests of a larger group than ever before.

The year in the training schools has been marked by the increased number of teaching groups which have come for observation in both the Main Street and Junior High Schools. By cooperative integration the supervising staff is endeavoring to further the New Virginia Curriculum in the Valley and throughout the state.

During the last year or so there has been a decided shift of interest to the four-year elementary curriculum, drawing slightly from the other four-year curricula, due largely, however, to recognition of the need of four years of training preparatory to elementary teaching. This year student nurses from Rockingham Memorial Hospital, adjacent to the college grounds, have enrolled in classes on campus. Other students are entered for a two-year course preparatory to hospital entrance as student nurses. Occasional pre-medical and pre-technician students also register.

For the first time the college will this year graduate students with degrees other than those granted for teaching. The Home Economics department offers three alternates: dietetics, institutional management, and general home economics for home-makers. This may be considered a decided step accomplished this year toward the attainment of the far-away ideal.

In February, Harrisonburg, along with the other State Teachers Colleges, was at last granted the right of conferring the A. B. Degree. This final attainment is counted as another step toward educating and serving the state in a broader cultural way.
"Knowledge once gained casts a light beyond the shadows of immediate boundaries."

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

SHADOWS pass before us as we look back on four bright years that we have lived together—vivid memories, colored by earnest endeavor, laughter, and tears.

Eager marchers trooping three hundred strong we came at first, laughing, flaunting our dunce caps, confident that not long would we wear them. The first to enter the freshman dorms, we did not doubt that we, for whom so many things have been planned, would show true colors gorgeous to behold.

Sturdy sophomores trudged along, surprised and delighted at our superiority to the puzzled and groping freshmen that we saw. Some of our members left our number fewer, departing to do at once the work that we all hope to do. Bidding them God-speed, we moved on through the days we were growing to love.

Ere long we recognized the ever-growing newness of the wonderland we had come to. Finding our way through new responsibilities, learning again the wisdom of those who had gone before, we carried on, seeking worthiness.

Donning caps and gowns, with them we symbolized the dignity of added years and knowledge. We entered Senior Hall to greater horizons, to truer self-government. Secretly proud, we joked about our solemn procession, not realizing fully what the years had done to change us. More than souvenirs have we gleaned; calmed, most of us, more serious, more deeply understanding of the life that is ours to face.

And always with us shall go these shadows, more dear to us than childhood dreams. And always shall we be the richer for them—in knowledge, in spirit, and in the love we bear for Blue-Stone Hill and for each other.

THE STORY OF THE CLASS OF '37

To write a brief history of the Sophomore class of 1935 is like attempting to condense a Dickens novel into a one-page story; there are so many plots and sub-plots to be considered—some to be chosen, some eliminated. A word may, in future years, recall to us the main plots, but more precious, sometimes, than these greater associations are the smallest sub-plots of our story. So, if this brief summary of incidents in the life of the Class of '37 may serve to recall those precious "little" things, it will have been worthwhile.

Rather than think of how we came, shall we say that the important fact was that 266 girls arrived as freshmen at H. T. C. on September 25, 1933. From all parts of Virginia and from California, Georgia, Florida, Maryland, North Carolina, West Virginia, and Pennsylvania, came the girls who were to form the story of the Class of '37. Can we ever forget the night we walked into the bare rooms and critically examined our roommates?

That first quarter, made up of new experiences, will always stand out—our pride at receiving an invitation to a tea and the sudden drop from importance on learning that everyone on our end of the hall had received one also; the "hick" party, when freshmen from there met freshmen from here; the faculty reception, which recalled us to the proper formal conduct of a college student, and from which we returned to find our rooms wrongside out—the act of some kind-hearted sophs; the old girl-new girl basketball game, which left us defeated but smiling; the union of our class with the student body in the traditional wedding; class organization, with Alyce Geiger as president; worry, worry, and then exams; and, at last, home for Christmas!

The second quarter was less eventful and more serious, for we really got down to studying, determined to pull up or keep up those last-quarter grades. There were high moments for some when they pulled small neatly-written "bids" from mail boxes and wondered if they should tell Jane about it or just let her find it out. Always we shall remember that exciting snowy night when Jackson and Ashby inmates were so certain that the "gas man" was playing havoc in the other dormitory. The mid-winter dance, basketball games, homecoming, and class day for our "sister class" gave us a feeling of "belonging."

After Easter came the big event—Freshman Day. Dressed as jaunty, trim bell-hops, we announced that we were here to serve, and to serve with a smile. However, we also carried plates for tips! Then came June.

September found us back, with summer experiences to relate, sophomore privileges, Nancy Turner for president, "little sisters," and superiority complexes. Holding the Seniors to a scoreless tie in a class hockey game increased our superiority, but soon flunk slips, student teaching, and the prospect of exams reduced us to a group of mild, meek students.

Sophomore Day, with its theme of “hitch your airplane to a star,” brought with it—besides the thought of the higher ideals which we should be choosing—amusing incidents: the crack-up of the “Spirit of ’37” in front of Wilson, Shank’s apology, and the numerous inquiries the following day as to whether our class spirit was permanently damaged or not.

Now we are nearing commencement, the end of Part Two in our story. Some are leaving us to begin new stories in settings of their own. But each of us can say of these two years—we have learned to live in a new way, we have formed friendships which will live in our memories, we have achieved!

SHADOWS

Shadows—
Dark shadows
Drift and fade and drift again;
Shadows—
Cloud shadows
Promise peace—refreshing rain.

Shadows—
Tree shadows
Peering o’er a river side
Darken,
Give depth,
Make the river seem more wide.

Shadows—
Fern shadows
Weave the finest fairy lace.
Shadows—
Dream shadows
Weave again an old friend’s face.

Sunlight comes
And shadows go,
But in spite of sunshine’s glow
Still remains the memory
Of shadows.

DEEPER SHADOWS

Can life be made of shadows?
The figure of a dancing girl
Outlined against a wall;
A silhouetted pine tree
Standing straight and tall
Against a shadowy sky—
And then
Two birds which fly
Against a dim horizon
And are gone.

A shadow on the water
Gives it depth before unknown;
Shadows in a melody
Lend it richer tone;
A singing wind moves swiftly by,
Leaves flickering shadows on the eye—
But they, too, soon
Are gone.

Can this be life?
( Are things we thought were firm and real,
Are things we see, and think, and feel
Just shadows? )

Shadows leave mere memories;
Shadows flicker and
Are gone.—

Life, too, moves on. —Lois Sloop

Democratic self-government is one of the greatest opportunities and finest trusts placed in the hands of the students of Harrisonburg. The purpose of the Student Government Association is not merely to control the conduct of students and to enforce regulations, but to serve as a guiding factor in a system dependent on student honor, self-reliance, and individual responsibility. It is our ideal that students shall feel more and more that they, as individuals, play a vital part in our Student Association and that the Council, which they have elected to serve them, is constantly trying to direct the emphasis away from the punitive toward the constructive.

A factor equally important as individual responsibility is social responsibility, which signifies that interest in the group is placed above that of self. When we reach the place where we are guided more by group-attitudes than by rules, we shall have made real progress. This is the goal for which we are striving, for this alone will insure the permanence of student government and the realization of its highest ideals.

Our standards will be high if we so demand them; and our Student Government will be permanent as long as we adhere to our motto: “Democracy is something deeper than liberty; it is responsibility.”

Under the leadership of a cabinet of sixteen members and various sub-committees the Young Women’s Christian Association has done much to develop the “abundant life” among students. This year, besides holding a morning watch and a vesper service on Thursday and a devotional service on Sunday, the Y. W. C. A. has arranged special exchange programs with the Bridgewater Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. Many outside speakers have appeared on the programs this year, among them were Mrs. Elizabeth Wells Harrington, National Student Secretary of the Y. W. C. A., and Mr. Leonard Cromie, who spoke on “World Fellowship and Peace.”

The Social Service Committee has done work in the Children’s Home in Harrisonburg.

At Christmas time a beautiful and impressive pageant was presented. At this time the annual toy-drive was also sponsored for the benefit of underprivileged children in nearby mountain schools and missions.

Social activities this year have included a party for the new girls, a tea, and a Hallowe’en banquet.

Two delegates were sent to the Southern Student Conference at Blue Ridge, North Carolina, where, with Y. W. C. A. workers from all over the South, they discussed ways of making the Y. W. C. A. more vital and meaningful in college life.

SEEEN ON THE HOCKEY FIELD THIS SEASON
The Harrisonburg Varsity team opened the hockey season with a 3-2 defeat at the hands of Sweet Briar. However, with fast playing and good teamwork, the H. T. C. team scored two victories at the Virginia Hockey Association tournament at Randolph-Macon Woman's College, the score of the two games being H. T. C.—2, Fredericksburg—1; H. T. C.—4, Et Cetera Team—0.

The Harrisonburg Reserves also played two games during the tournament, both of which ended in defeat: Sweet Briar Reserves—3, Harrisonburg—0; Et Cetera Team—2, Harrisonburg—0.

Two Harrisonburg girls were named on the All-State teams: Edith Todd, Richmond, first team, and Julia Courter, Amelia, second team.

The Westhampton-H. T. C. game ended in a 5-2 defeat for H. T. C.

On December 1, the annual Varsity-Alumnae game was played on a wet, muddy field. The poor playing conditions added much to the excitement of the game. H. T. C. slid to a 5-0 victory!

Margaret Shank, Harrisonburg, will succeed Edith Todd, Richmond, as next year's captain.
WINNING every game played except one, Harrisonburg completed a second season of undefeated playing. The one game which did not end in victory was the Savage-Harrisonburg game, which ended in a 20-20 tie.

The season was opened February 8 by a game with Blackstone on the Blackstone floor. Fast playing and the famous side-line pass placed H. T. C. on the long end of a 35-25 score. The same week-end the team marked up another victory over Westhampton with a score of 26-11.

The first home-game was on the H. T. C. court, February 15. This contest closed with Harrisonburg leading in a 30-12 score.

On February 23, the most exciting home court game in several years was played with the Savage School of Physical Education as the opponent. Which team would come out victorious lay almost in the flip of a coin, or rather in the tick of a watch, since winning or losing was a matter of which team shot the last goal. From all sides there was a sigh of relief when the final whistle blew on a 20-20 tie.

Again playing a hard, tight game on March 2, the team brought home a one-point victory from East Stroudsburg Teachers College, Pennsylvania, with a 31-30 score. On March 9 they defeated New College at H. T. C. 34-20, thus closing a season of brilliant, undefeated playing.

Five members of this year's team have played varsity basketball for Harrisonburg, as a team, for the past three years. Their speed, cooperation, and remarkable playing have challenged even the famous championship team of '29-'30 to equal them. Therefore it was quite fitting that a number of the '29-'30 alumnae should return for the annual Varsity-Alumnae clash at Home-coming. The Alumnae gave the Varsity a hard fight but the result of training and practice finally showed when Harrisonburg emerged with a 16-12 victory.

Captain Emily Pittman, Gates, N. C., has for two years held that position as leader of an undefeated team and has, herself, played in only one college game which ended in defeat. She will be succeeded next year by Miss Anne Kellam, Weirwood.

INTERCLASS

JOYCE LEA

Hockey Sport Leader

Joyce’s election as hockey sport leader followed three years of service on the college hockey team. This is her third year in varsity and her fourth year in interclass hockey.

INTERCLASS HOCKEY

Interclass hockey honors went to the Seniors, with the Sophomores following in second place. Hockey sport leaders were: Senior, Louise Allred; Junior, Margaret Thompson; Sophomore, Margaret Turner; and Freshman, Ann VanLandingham.

LELIA RUCKER

Basketball Sport Leader

Lelia, a transfer from Westhampton College, has played varsity basketball both at Westhampton and at Harrisonburg. Her record for varsity and class squads during both years here is commendable.

INTERCLASS BASKETBALL

In basketball this season the Seniors won first place and the Juniors second. Class leaders were: Senior, Emily Pittman; Junior, Elizabeth Huffman; Sophomore, Alpha Spitzer; and Freshman, Peggy Byer.
SPORTS

DOUGLAS MacDONALD

Swimming Sport Leader

During the four years that "Doug" has been here, she has been interested in swimming and has been on the interclass swimming teams. She holds both the Senior Life-Saving and the Examiners Certificates.

INTERCLASS SWIMMING

The interclass swimming meet was held May 17. The individual holding the highest number of points each year is presented with a cup. Swimming leaders were: Senior, Margaret Regan; Junior, Marguerite Holder; Sophomore, Erma Cannon; and Freshman, Sue Quinn.

DOROTHY GILLEN

Tennis Sport Leader

"Dot" is a transfer from Savage, where she proved herself outstanding in tennis. She has been an enthusiastic and efficient sport leader here this year.

INTERCLASS TENNIS

The girls interested in interclass tennis are given opportunity to try out, and their names are placed on the tennis ladder in the order of their ability. The contestants play off the matches until the winners in each class remain. These girls then play to determine class championship.
“MIKE” BUIE
Golf Sport Leader

“Mike” has been our sport leader in golf ever since it became a popular campus sport. She has served three years and last year won the tournament cup, which is annually presented the best campus golfer.

INTERCLASS GOLF

Class practice in golf starts as early in the spring as the weather permits, finally ending in the selection by each class sport leader of a foursome to represent her class in the tournament at the Spotswood Country Club. Here the finals are played and the contestant having the highest score is awarded the cup.

ELLEN MORAN
Baseball Sport Leader

Ellen, who came from the Savage School of Physical Education, has had experience in coaching and refereeing baseball at summer camps where she has been a counselor.

INTERCLASS BASEBALL

This year, as always, spring called large squads out for baseball. Heated side-line discussions and good attendance at games marked baseball as an absorbing sport on our campus. The classes had as leaders: Senior, Alma Fultz; Junior, Lois Wandless; Sophomore, Virginia McCue; Freshman, Marian Sampson.
Every year a Red Cross representative from Washington visits the college and gives instruction in life-saving to advanced swimmers. Those passing the course are entitled to become Red Cross Examiners. This year the training was given by Mr. D. Melvin Carr.

Examiners, in turn, are qualified to conduct courses in life-saving for all students who may be interested.

The Lanier Literary Society, named for the eminent Southern poet and embodying his ideals, was founded in the early history of the college, October 8, 1909.

On Lanier's birthday, February 2, Lanier Day is commemorated by an impressive chapel program and banquet. Further homage is paid this poet through the study of his works in the society's weekly programs. Lanier pledges wear during their initiation the violet, his favorite flower, and carry the flute, the instrument upon which he proved himself a master-musician. Both the violet and the flute symbolize the gentleness and musical grace of the poet.

The most prized possession of the society is the table upon which Lanier wrote his Science of English Verse. This is particularly valued by Lanier members and has attracted the attention of other Lanier admirers as well.

The Lee Literary Society, second to be organized at Harrisonburg, chose the name of Lee because of the high ideals for which he stood. The motto: “Wearing the white flower of a blameless life,” is the embodiment of these ideals. The courage of this great leader is expressed by the traditional sword borne by incoming members, and by the colors, gold and gray, symbolic of his purity and loyalty.

On January 19, the birthday of Lee, the society honored its namesake by fitting chapel exercises and a banquet for its members.

During the year a party was given for new girls, and other social activities were sponsored for the purpose of stimulating literary interest.

An occasion of outstanding interest this year was an entertaining and instructive talk on the history of the society by Dr. Wayland, one of its founders and now honorary member.

Although Page Literary Society is relatively young on campus, it finds great strength and courage in the character of the man for whom it was named. In 1921, Thomas Nelson Page, a noted Virginian, was chosen by the founders as the inspiration for promoting a greater appreciation for literature and for writers of the past and present. At each meeting its motto, “Thy Country’s, thy God’s, and Truth’s” is reverently repeated by all its members and held dear in the heart of each present.

The programs for this year have consisted of the study of modern drama and of current cinema attractions of the year. A love for the better types of stage and screen productions has developed as a result of discussion and study along these lines. As a contribution to this study, the new members in the first program of the new year dramatized parts of many of the best films.

On April 15, Page Day was observed by fitting chapel exercises.

The Sesame Club was formed three years ago after a few unsuccessful attempts to form an organization which would bring day students into a more intimate contact with each other and with classmates living on campus. The society meets once monthly and endeavors to sponsor activities which will further their purpose. This year Sesame gave a luncheon, to which each member of the club invited a campus student.

The sponsors of Sesame, who are members of the teaching staff, are Mrs. Ruebush, Mr. Chappelear, and Mr. Shorts. Grace Madden has served as president of the organization this year.
The Aeolian Club was organized to further the appreciation of fine music on campus, to arouse interest in different types of music, and to aid talented students to study music. In the latter direction a great step has been taken to give financial aid in the form of a scholarship, which is granted to one student who possesses talent in some field such as violin, voice, piano, or pipe organ. This year the scholarship was awarded to Luemma Phipps, for voice.

The meetings held once a week by the Aeolian members were devoted to the study of the life and works of Schubert, to the study of operas, and to current topics in music. The club sponsors recitals throughout the year.

Josephine R. Miller, Julia Kilgore, and Inez Graybeal represented the club at the district meeting at Buena Vista, Virginia.

The club sponsor is Mrs. Vera Melone Conrad, member of the teaching staff in music.

ART CLUB

Within the art classes and on campus generally there is a large group of students who are interested in constructive art activity and in furthering general interest and appreciation in art. The Art Club was formed for the purpose of bringing together this group in activities mirroring their interest and ability.

Definite requirements have been set up for entrance: an average scholarship rating, at least one quarter of art training in college or present registration in a class, recommendation by the art faculty or by a Club member, and a successful try-out. In this manner the standard of art ability and interest within the club is guaranteed.

In its effort to promote artistic interest during the past year, the Club conducted a chapel program featuring a movie on the making of a stained glass window, and presented to the college a beautiful block-print, “Purple Clematis” by Emerald Bristow, now hanging in Senior Hall. Favors, decorations, and posters are other contributions of the Club members. In conjunction with the Art Staff, the Art Club sponsored this spring an art contest among the public school students of the county, testing for appreciation and for ability in technique.
BLUE-STONE ENSEMBLE

Under the direction of Mr. Fred B. Spiker, instructor in violin at the college, the Blue-Stone Ensemble meets for practice every Wednesday evening in the Music Room. Any student who plays with a marked degree of accuracy and enjoys orchestral work is invited to join the group. Guest players from Harrisonburg are also invited to join the group for practice and recital playing.

Instruments included in the orchestra this year are: violins, bass violin, cello, flute, saxophone, clarinet, and piano.

The Ensemble is busy, during the spring especially, practicing and presenting recitals in Harrisonburg and near-by towns.
The Frances Sale Club, an organization for home economics students, was founded several years ago, and named for Miss Frances Sale, who won distinction for herself by her efforts in this department while on our campus. The society was formed to interest home economics students in the various fields pertaining to their work and to give training in club leadership. Students who are interested in these forms of service may apply for membership.

Many worthwhile activities are carried on by the Frances Sale Club, among which is the management of preparing and serving refreshments at all teas sponsored by the Social Committee. This year they incorporated a new phase of work in their program by sending delegates to a mission to aid in teaching some home economics classes.
The Curie Science Club, a new organization on campus this year, was formed in the interest of a group of students concerned with scientific work. The club was named for Madame Curie, the eminent woman scientist.

In spite of its youth, this society has very definitely taken its place and proved itself to be an indispensable and promising association. This may be accredited to the high standards and ideals which the members have set up for themselves. Their aim is to promote interest in science on campus, to give students an opportunity to do minor research work, and to enable them to keep in touch with and discuss recent scientific discoveries and inventions.

Each member of this club is required to become a junior member of the Virginia Academy of Science. A large number from the Curie Club took advantage of the opportunity thus afforded and attended a meeting of the Academy in Richmond this spring.

The Glee Club, founded with the college but with a more formal reorganization in 1915, was the first college glee club in Virginia to affiliate with the Federation of Music Clubs. Its two-fold aim is to create further interest in music and to serve as a college choir.

Campus activities this year include the Christmas Vesper Service, various programs in assembly, commencement program, and spring concert of excerpts from opera. In April the Glee Club made a trip to Norfolk and Richmond, where various programs were given. Other outside activities included programs at the Elks Club, the Rotary Club, and the Apple-Blossom Festival at Winchester.
STRATFORD CLUB

Director, Miss Ruth Hudson

Honorary Member, Mr. Conrad Logan

The Stratford Dramatic Club, since its organization in 1919, has stood for the presentation of plays of high quality on the campus. The club feels that through its work this year, this standard has been upheld. During the fall quarter the club presented a comedy of Oscar Wilde’s, The Importance of Being Earnest. In the spring quarter the play, The Young Idea, written by Noel Coward, was given.

During National Drama Week the Club presented two programs, each consisting of two cleverly-staged one-act plays: For Distinguished Service, I’m Going, Nevertheless, and Thursday Evening. A formal tea for faculty members was also given in Alumnae Hall.

The club meets once a week, at which time various phases of drama are studied. The director, Miss Hudson, is constantly and faithfully working with the club, aiding it in the continuance of successful work.

Starring in This Year’s Productions

Gene Averett and Billye Mînes in I’m Going; Elizabeth Gilley, “Mike” Buie, and Gene Averett in Noel Coward’s comedy, The Young Idea; Elizabeth Gilley, Nancy Turner, and Frances Wells in Thursday Evening; Elizabeth Gilley, Bertha Jenkins, and Glen Harshman in For Distinguished Service; and Katherine Beale, Elo Holland, and Meigs Aldhizer in Nevertheless.
The Hiking Club was organized several years ago for the benefit of those who enjoy hiking and nature study. Every year a letter is awarded to each member who hikes fifty miles or more before the Christmas holidays. At least twenty miles must be made in ten-mile hikes.

This year the club was divided into groups headed by Erma Cannon, Lois Sloop, Margaret Shank, and Margaret Poats. The hikes were made in the afternoons after classes and on Saturdays. Among the points visited...
CLUB

were Dayton, Massanetta Springs, Pleasant Hill, the "Frog Pond," the town reservoir, and the peak of Massanutten Mountain. The Peak is climbed every fall by Dr. Duke, other members of the faculty, and a large group of students. For members of the Hiking Club, this climb counts as one of their ten-mile hikes.

The club also spent an enjoyable week-end at the college camp on the Shenandoah River near Port Republic.

24. Hail, hail, we’re back again at H. T. C., and glad of it! I was never so tired in my life, but somehow the sight of Blue-Stone Hill and all the old crowd gives me the Harrisonburg spirit again.
26. Took my Little Sister to the Y. W. party. Met a lot of girls.
28. Well, the new girls made their formal début to the faculty tonight at Hillcrest. I heard one freshman say her name was changed ten times in half an hour. Same little joke.
29. We had a movie in Wilson hall tonight. Joan Crawford was the “Dancing Lady.”

October

3. With the faculty and seniors in cap and gown and the rest of us on our dignity, we attended the first convocation exercises of the year. Dr.
Snavely, speaker of the occasion, gave a very interesting message.
10. The New Girl-Old Girl Wedding was lovely. For once we didn’t hear the “strains of Lohengrin’s march,” but it was a wedding.
12. I almost yelled myself hoarse tonight at the New Girl-Old Girl basketball game. New girls have “wim and wigor,” but the old girls won.
13. We had another movie tonight. This time it was Thirty-Day Princess, with Sylvia Sydney in the title role.
17. The Y. W. C. A. gave a tea this afternoon for the new girls.
19. The new girls are getting even more favors. Tonight the Cotillion Club entertained for them with a dance in the Big Gym.
23. Feeling very solemn and sober, we again signed the Student Government Pledge.
25. The Breeze and Schoolma’am editors and business managers left this morning for Radford and Blacksburg, where the press convention is in session. The Frances Sale Club had a party for new home economics students tonight.
27. Today H. T. C. lost the hockey game to Sweet Briar, 3-2.
31. Hallowe’en! The dinner tonight was grand, even with the spooks.

November

Three cheers for the purple and gold!
7. Senior Class Day. Dignified and serious in their caps and gowns, the seniors celebrated their last class day at H. T. C.
9. Harrisonburg had a treat today. We had none other than Governor Peery to speak to us in Assembly. He was late, as important people can afford to be, but we lustily sang Old Virginia until he came. Liked his talk.
10. The first dance of the season is over—and what a good time we all had! Ray Frye's music was just right! Harvest decorations.

11. Sunday and Armistice Day. We had a patriotic program in Y. W.

14. The Standards Day Fashion Show was a big success. The clothes were stunning. Wish I had some money.

17. The Schoolma'am Bazaar tonight was the best one yet. The gifts were all so attractive that everyone had to buy something. Ray Frye's orchestra played for the dancing.

23. I haven't stopped shivering yet! Death Takes a Holiday was good, but I don't care to see it again, thank you.

29. Thanksgiving. I went home with Mary for the day. Too much turkey, of course. We got back to college in time to see George Arliss in The King's Vacation.

30. Bill Morrison's orchestra played for the informal dancing in the gym.

December

1. The varsity and alumnas hockey teams had a spirited tilt on a muddy field today. We won, but the alumnas still have "punch."

5. The recital by music students was very good. Costumes pretty.

7. More entertainment. This time it was The Importance of Being Earnest. Witty, and cleverly done. Congratulations, Stratfords!

8. "I'll hold my breath!" is the favorite expression now.—Source? Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch.

12. Christmas is in the air! Only eight more days until we go home! The Christmas spirit was portrayed in the Y. W. pageant tonight. Frances Wells made a lovely madonna.

13. Another lyceum member. The English Singers were superb.

16. The last Sunday in the quarter! The cantata by the Glee Club was beautiful! Only three more days now.

17-19. Everything's over! We're homeward bound! Jingle bells!

January

5. The movie tonight was Let's Fall in Love. Appropriate idea now!

11. The Sophomores came out as be-goggled aviatrices trying to "hitch their plane to a star." The "Spirit of '37" had an accident, but no serious damage was done.

18. The Lees celebrated their "day" with an interesting program in chapel and a banquet tonight. Afterwards we went to the Athletic Association play, Three Guesses.

19. Do I have jangled nerves? Who wouldn't after seeing Ninth Guest? A few more movies like that, and H. T. C. can move to Staunton.

30. Alpha Chi Chapter of Kappa Delta Pi celebrated its seventh anniversary today. In chapel the guest artist, Mr. Gresham, baritone, of Lynchburg, gave a delightful recital. All honor-students were invited to the tea this afternoon.

February

2. The day we have been looking forward to for months. Cotillion dance. Dansante this afternoon, formal dance tonight, Jack Wardlow's music, silver moon and stars on blue drops.

8. Lanier Day. The basketball season is on. We won from Blackstone!

9. We held our sides and sang "ta-ra-ra-boom-de-ay" with David Harum. In the tea room after the movie we heard that the rabbit foot still held good at Westhampton. Hurray for H. T. C.!
16. Tonight we had The Green Pastures, given by the original cast. This whole play, and especially the performance of "de Lawd," is something we shall long remember.

22. Today was Junior Day. We were dressed as pirates bold, seeking the treasure, knowledge. After the party we went to the Alpha play, Who Told the Truth?

March

1. The basketball team won another game from East Stroudsburg!
2. We had another movie, The World Moves On.

9. Our team won another game from New College here. We're undefeated!
18-20. More examinations. History will repeat itself!
21. And so begins the Spring Quarter. At least we can begin with a good feeling after hearing the Davidson College Glee Club and Orchestra.
22. The Homecoming Celebration began with a concert tonight by Kathryn Meisle, contralto, and Mildred Dilling, the harpist of the heavenly hands.
23. It rained today, but even that didn't keep away three hundred alumnae. Alumnae meeting, basketball game, One Night of Love, tea, banquet, Grand Old Girl, and co-ed dance were some features of the day.
27. The new student government officers took their places this morning at the annual installation service. Dr. Bessie Carter Randolph spoke.

21. We got up at five o'clock for the Easter Sunrise Service.
26. Freshmen, as cadets, invaded the campus. Congratulations, Freshmen, on your first class day.

May

1. French Circle presented Maitre Pierre Pathelin in assembly. Tonight Inez Graybeal gave her senior recital, accompanied by Frances Graybeal and Josephine Miller. It was quite a success.
4. May Day. Peter Pan and the fairies were a colorful part of this pageant.
18. Tonight we had the Barretts of Wimpole Street, starring Norma Shearer.

June

7. Exams are over! It won't be long now. Garden party tonight.
9. The seniors had breakfast in the Tea Room and brought hope-chest gifts. At eleven o'clock we heard the Baccalaureate Sermon by Dr. Pruden. Tonight is the Seniority Service.
10. Class day exercises and commencement address by Dr. Cooper. Awarding of diplomas and degrees.
11. Farewell! A mixture of smiles and tears.

(Lower right corner) Dr. Chan, eminent Chinese surgeon, who gave a very splendid address here. His fine work, as well as his charming personality, attracts admiration wherever he goes.

And of course we have had several "goat" visitors during the year. Laniers, Lees, Pages, Art Club, and Debating Club have all sent their quota.

Peter Pan

SYNOPSIS

EPISODE I
The lost boys of Never Never Land await the return of their Captain, Peter Pan, who has gone into the world of reality in search of his shadow. Wendy, whom Peter has persuaded to be their mother, flying to Never Never Land ahead of Peter, is shot by the Lost Boys at the instigation of Tinker Bell. Peter revives her and she sings the Lost Boys to sleep.

EPISODE II
Dawn breaks, and a new day begins. Tinker, repenting her mischief, flies away to Fairyland and soon returns with the Fairy Queen and her Court. Having welcomed the Queen, Peter dances with his shadow. Dainty fairies troop over the hill and dance for the Lost Boys. In plotting against Peter and his Lost Boys, wicked pirates steal the Queen's wand, thereby rendering her helpless. However, friendly Indians interrupt these evil intentions and restore the magic wand.

The time comes when Wendy must return home and the Lost Boys clamor to go with her. Peter Pan, the symbol of eternal youth, must remain in his Never Never Land forever or else grow old. Thus the Queen is crowned their Fairy Godmother, and shortly afterwards the Queen, Wendy, and the Lost Boys leave. Wistfully, Peter gazes after them and silently vanishes into the forest.

Builders of Better Annuals
Bids for patronage on a basis of price alone get small response from people who know the true worth of good quality in PRINTING. They prefer to pay the slight difference in the cost of good printing over mediocre printing because of the vastly superior RESULTS obtained—and RESULTS, of course, are paramount.

BELLMADE ANNUALS are produced by skilled craftsmen to meet the most exacting requirements. But, measured by the standards of real service and satisfaction, they are, after all, the least expensive.
