A Message to Students
From President Ronald E. Carrier

Every aspect of your life as a James Madison University student has the potential to be a learning experience. Perhaps the greatest of these learning experiences is the fact that you have the opportunity to choose at James Madison University. At the University, you are given the opportunity to choose the values you want to live by, to choose the life-style you want to adopt, to choose the area of learning in which you wish to specialize and to choose to be the type of individual you desire to be.

Needless to say, this freedom of choice is accompanied by a major responsibility. You have a responsibility to yourself to make your decisions with an open mind and with intelligence, care, creativity and purpose.

You may wish to seek the advice or counsel of the faculty, administration and staff of the University in making these decisions. We are always ready to assist you in any manner you desire. Also, I would urge that you seek your parents’ opinion in the decision-making process. However, the ultimate decisions on all matters are yours since it is your life that is being developed at the University.

We pride ourselves on the importance that is placed on each individual student at James Madison University. There is no question that each student on campus is different to some degree. Accordingly, each student is treated and respected as an individual.

Our University is not a large university in comparison with other universities of America. However, it is also not a small institution. We feel that JMU is the optimum size—large enough to offer a full range of programs and yet small enough so that each student remains an individual, not a number.

Every aspect of the University reflects our philosophy of the importance of the individual. Our student-faculty ratio allows each student to know his or her professors on a personal basis. We offer some 100 separate major programs, and this allows each student to select an academic area of the most interest. Extracurricular and social activities are available to meet the desires of all students. A wide variety of life-style options are offered in the residence halls, allowing each student to select the particular living arrangement most compatible with his or her individuality.

All of you have my best wishes for a most successful year—both in terms of academic achievement and in terms of personal development.

Dr. Ronald E. Carrier
President

Statement on Student Rights and Responsibilities

Among the primary objectives of James Madison University are those of preparing students for a productive role in society and assisting students as they fulfill themselves as individuals. The University also realizes that these two areas of development are mutually effective; that is, the University understands that an increased ability to contribute to society will lead to growth as an individual, and vice versa. In addition, this concept of social and individual development applies not only to students, but also to faculty and staff members, and therefore all interaction between members of the campus community holds the possibility of positive change and advancement.

To aid in the understanding of each person's rights and responsibilities in such an educational setting, the following principles have been endorsed by the James Madison University Student Government Association. This material originated in recommendations of the Carnegie Commission on Higher Education and was adapted by the SGA with the assistance of the faculty and administrative staff.
The following statements of rights and responsibilities are not viewed as a final accomplishment of a completed institution, but rather as themes of a direction for a growing and changing educational environment:

I. Students enjoy the same basic rights and are bound by the same responsibilities to respect the rights of others as are all citizens.

A. It is assumed that the student as a citizen has the rights of freedom of speech, freedom of the press, freedom of peaceful assembly and association, freedom of political beliefs, and freedom from personal force and violence, threats of violence and personal abuse.

B. The student as a citizen has a right to be considered equally for admission to, employment by, and promotion within the campus in accord with the provisions against discrimination in the general law.

C. It is held that James Madison University is no sanctuary from the general law and, furthermore, that the campus is a community of growth and fulfillment for all, rather than a setting described in the concept of in loco parentis.

II. All students have other responsibilities and rights based upon the nature of the educational process and the requirements of the search for truth and its free presentation. These rights and responsibilities include:

A. Each student has the freedom, dependent upon level of competence, to teach, to learn, and to conduct research and publish findings in the spirit of free inquiry.

B. Each student has the right to pursue normal curricular and extracurricular activities, including freedom of movement.

C. Students have the right to expect that records maintained on them contain only information which is reasonably related to the educational purposes or health and safety of the individual or others. Furthermore, it is assumed that the student has the right to protection from unauthorized disclosure of confidential material contained in University records.

D. Students have the right to reasonable and impartially applied rules, designed to reflect the educational purposes of the institution and to protect the safety of the campus.

E. Students have the right to recourse if another member of the campus is negligent or irresponsible in the performance of his or her responsibilities or if another member of the campus represents the work of others as his or her own.

F. Students who hold opinions about basic policy matters of direct concern to them have the right to have them heard and considered at appropriate levels of the decision-making process. It should be noted that students who have a continuing association with the institution and who have substantial influence have an especially strong obligation to maintain an environment supportive of the rights of others.

III. The University has rights and responsibilities which include:

A. The University has a right and an obligation to provide an open forum to present and debate public issues.

B. The University has a right to prohibit individuals and groups who are not members of the University community from using its name, its finances and its physical operating facilities for commercial or political activities.

C. The University has the right to prohibit students from using its name, its finances and its physical and operating facilities for commercial activities.

D. The University has the right and obligation to provide to students the use of meeting rooms under the rules of the campus, including the use of space for political purposes such as political clubs; to prohibit the use of its rooms by individual members or groups of members on a regular or a prolonged basis as free headquarters for political campaigns; and to prohibit the use of its name, its finances and its office equipment and supplies for any political purpose at any time.

E. The University has neither the right nor the obligation to take a position in party politics and public issues, except on those issues which directly affect its autonomy, its academic functions, the freedom of its members and its financial support.

F. The University has a right and the obligation to protect students and their visitors from physical harm, threats of harm or abuse; its property from damage and unauthorized use; and its academic and administrative processes from interruption.

G. The University has a right to require students to identify themselves by name and address. Additionally, visitors to the campus may be required to state what connection, if any, they have with the University.

H. The University has the right to set reasonable standards of conduct in order to safeguard the educational process and to provide for the safety of students and the protection of University property.

IV. All students have the right to fair and equitable procedures which shall determine the validity of charges that they have violated University regulations.

A. Students have a right to expect that the procedures shall be structured so as to facilitate a reliable determination of the truth or falseness of the charges, to provide a fundamental fairness to the parties, and to be effective as an instrument for the maintenance of order.

B. Students have the right to know in advance the range of penalties for violations of University regulations. The definition of adequate cause for separation from the University should be clearly formulated and made public.

C. Charges of minor infractions of the regulations, penalized by small fines or reprimands (which do not become part of a permanent record), may be handled expeditiously by an appropriate individual or committee, but students so penalized have the right to an appeal.

D. In the case of charges of infractions of regulations which may lead to a notation on a permanent record, or to more serious penalties such as suspension or expulsion, students have the right to formal procedures with adequate due process, including the right to appeal.

E. Students charged or convicted of violations of a general law may be subject to University sanctions for the same conduct, in accord with University policies and procedures, when the conduct is in violation of a University rule.
University Policies

Judicial Policies

James Madison University is primarily a community of individuals who have come together for the purpose of education. As with any community, the University must establish guidelines for behavior which will produce the type of environment and atmosphere necessary to best achieve its stated purposes and protect its academic integrity. The basic purpose of rules, regulations, and related enforcement procedures must, of necessity, be to support and maintain an environment in which learning, growth, and maturity can take place.

The following pages contain an alphabetical listing of a number of areas which have required definitive regulation in the past. In cases which are not specifically covered here, students will be expected nonetheless to govern their behavior so as to safeguard the education process, protect individual and institutional rights and property, and insure the safety of all members of the University community.

   5. Activities of participants or observers that disrupt or disturb classes, meetings, or any other normal functions of the University are prohibited.

d. All individuals participating in or observing a demonstration or peaceful assembly must comply with any request of the director of student activities, his/her designee, or campus police.

   Any student who violates any parts(s) of this policy will be referred by the director of student activities or campus police for University judicial action. A recognized organization that violates any part(s) of the policy may have penalties imposed upon it by the director of student activities.

25. Search Policy—Because a university is viewed as an educational community with special behavioral requirements, the courts have upheld the university’s right to enter and search student rooms and suites with just cause, so long as the entry and search are not done in an arbitrary and capricious manner which unnecessarily deprives a student of fundamental constitutional protection. The intent of this policy is to provide protection for the rights of each James Madison University student while at the same time providing residence hall staff members and University officials the means to maintain and protect the educational environment necessary for the University to fulfill its primary purpose.
Emergency Entry: A residence hall staff member may, without verbal or written authorization from a higher authority, enter a student’s room or suite either forcibly or with a building master key in cases of fire, explosion, bomb threats, attempted or suspected suicide, or other situations which call for the immediate entry in the interest of safety and security both for the residents of the room or suite and the physical plant.

Any unauthorized or illegal items observed in student rooms or suites during an emergency entry will not be confiscated and will not be used as a basis for disciplinary action or criminal prosecution. However, in the event of suspected vandalism, arson, assault, or other violations of major University policy which may have occurred in a room, University police will be called in to conduct an investigation. The results of such an investigation may result in disciplinary action or criminal prosecution.

Authorized Entry: In the case of a known violation of a residence hall or University policy the residence hall staff may request permission to make an authorized entry into a student’s room or suite. The request would be made to the appropriate student affairs staff member who would determine the merits of the request and either approve or disapprove the entry. In cases where the entry is approved, the appropriate student affairs staff member would indicate to the residence hall staff what information to include on the approval form. The residence hall staff would then notify those residing in the room that authorization has been obtained to enter the room by use of whatever means necessary. An authorized entry form would be filled out by the residence hall staff that would state exactly which areas may be inspected. When a room or suite is entered by means of an authorized entry, the purpose will be to make a visual inspection of the room. The staff member also may look in the bathroom and in the closet and under the bed. Cabinets, drawers, luggage and other small storage areas will not be searched during an authorized entry.

Authorized Entry and Search: When a residence hall staff member has reasonable cause to believe that a student has violated a University policy and relevant or prohibited materials remain in his or her room or suite, a request may be made for an authorized entry and search. The request would be directed to the appropriate student affairs staff member who would then inform the vice president for student affairs. After considering the request, the vice president for student affairs may give a written or verbal authorization to conduct an authorized entry and search of a student’s room or suite for specified items. An authorized entry and search form then would be filled out by the appropriate student affairs staff member. A copy of the completed form would be given to the residents of the room or suite if they are present. In the event that the vice president for student affairs is not available, the appropriate student affairs staff member should contact the director of residence halls who will then contact the president of the University.

Search Warrant Entry: In those cases where an individual has personal knowledge or other information of a violation of a criminal nature, such as theft or acts of violence, University police are to be contacted. The police will then determine whether or not sufficient evidence exists to request a search warrant.

26. Smoking—Smoking is not permitted in the following places: laboratories, music practice rooms, Latimer-Shaef er Theatre, auditoriums, classrooms, the Grafton-Stovall Theatre, and other locations where no smoking signs are posted.

engage in advertising or selling any goods, services, or tickets; solicit for any purpose whatsoever on University property or in University operated buildings; or survey students without first obtaining the written approval of the director of student activities. Surveys that are a part of an academic requirement must be approved by the instructor, department head and academic dean before approval will be given by the director of student activities.

b. All students or student organizations planning to conduct programs on or off the University campus requiring a contractual agreement with non-University agencies, must obtain the written approval of the director of student activities.

c. Non-student and non-University related organizations may not sell or solicit on the campus for any purpose whatsoever without written authorization from the vice president for business affairs. If approved by the vice president for business affairs and by the director of residence halls and commuting student services, programs or demonstrations of legitimate products may be presented in residence halls only under the following conditions:

1. The hall council agrees to sponsor the program. Approval by a recorded majority vote of the hall council shall constitute legitimate sponsorship.

2. Presentations by the sponsored persons or company shall be limited to demonstration or display of merchandise and appropriate promotion, except that it may not include solicitation of orders, signing of contracts, or exchange of money. The demonstration or promotion shall be such that it does not unreasonably disrupt other hall activities.

3. Solicitors may leave calling cards, catalogs, or order blanks with students but may not transact business or seek promises for future transactions.

4. A member of the residence hall staff must agree to be present to observe the program.

5. No resident of the hall, hall council member, or member of the hall staff may profit from presentation by virtue of his or her role in securing sponsorship for the solicitor. Free gifts, commissions, or any other forms of remuneration are not allowed.

6. Door prizes, discounts, or any other form of free gifts used to promote attendance or to encourage interest must be available to all on an equal basis.

7. No door to door solicitation is permitted.

The director of student activities will define the authorized areas of display for such material. (The exterior of academic buildings and trash receptacles are specifically unauthorized display areas.)

e. No student shall distribute or sell any drug apparatus in any building or property owned or operated by the University.

28. Sound Amplification Equipment—Various outdoor student activity programs require the use of sound amplification equipment. However, the University reserves the right to specify where and when such amplification equip-

   a. Any individual refusing to leave an area as directed by an authorized faculty or staff member is guilty of trespass.
   b. Any unauthorized individual entering a University operated building or room which has been closed or locked shall be guilty of trespass.

31. Unauthorized Entry—No student shall enter or remain in a private room, office, or restricted area under control of another student, faculty member, or University official except by permission or invitation of the resident student or the appropriate University official or faculty member.

32. Unauthorized Use of University Property or Documents—No student shall use, possess, or sell any parking decal, ID card, dining hall number, keys, or official University documents issued by the University to another individual. Specifically this prohibits—
   a. Use, possession, or sale of a parking decal which was not specifically issued to and paid for by the student holding the decal.
   b. Use, possession, or sale of a University identification card to obtain entry or services to which the individual is not entitled.
   c. Use, possession, or sale of any University keys not specifically issued to the student.
   d. Use of official University documents or identifying information by a student not authorized to do so.

33. Violence to Persons—No student shall engage or attempt to engage in any form of violence directed toward another person or group of people. Responding to violence with violence is a violation of this policy.

34. Weapons—No student shall keep, use, possess, display, or carry any rifle, shotgun, handgun, knife, or other lethal or dangerous devices capable of casting a projectile by air, gas, explosion, or mechanical means on any property or in any building owned or operated by the University or in any vehicle on campus. Realistic facsimilies of weapons are also specifically not allowed. Rifles, shotguns and bows which are to be used for hunting may be registered and stored one week before and during the appropriate hunting season at the University police station. Weapons used for hunting must be checked out of the University police office and removed from campus at the end of the appropriate hunting season.

Other Policies
1. Inclement Weather Policy
   James Madison University does not cancel classes during periods of bad weather. However, in the interest of safety and in recognition of the difficult driving conditions that occur in certain areas, the University permits a liberal make-up policy for commuter students who cannot attend classes during times of extremely bad weather conditions.

2. Notification of Non-Discrimination on the Basis of Handicap—In compliance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, James Madison University does not discriminate on the basis of handicap. This requirement not to discriminate in educational programs and activities extends to employment by the University and admission thereto. Inquiries concerning the application of Section 504 and the implementing regulations may be referred to the Section 504 Coordinator, Wilson Hall 205, James Madison University, Harrisonburg, Virginia 22807.

3. Notification of Non-Discrimination on the Basis of Sex—James Madison University does not discriminate on the basis of sex in the educational programs or activities which it operates. James Madison University is required by Title IX of the Education Amendments (PL 92-318) of 1972 and Department of Education regulations to implement Title IX, Prohibition of Sex Discrimination in Educational Programs and Activities Receiving Federal Financial Assistance, not to discriminate in such a manner. This requirement not to discriminate in educational programs and activities extends to employment by the University and to admission thereto. Inquiries concerning the application of Title IX and the implementing regulations may be referred to the Title IX Coordinator, Wilson Hall 205, James Madison University, Harrisonburg, Virginia 22807 or to the Director of the Office for Civil Rights.

Grievance Procedure: A student who wishes to initiate a grievance involving sex discrimination should confer first with the faculty member or administrative person directly involved. If the matter is not resolved and the student wishes to appeal beyond the accused faculty member or administrative person, he or she may go to the department head or division director, then the dean of the school, if applicable, and finally, to the appropriate vice president.

After exhausting the informal remedies the student may institute a formal written complaint. The formal procedure for handling such complaints may be obtained from the Title IX coordinator for James Madison University.

4. Parking—All motor vehicles to be parked on campus by members of the University community (faculty, staff and students) Monday through Friday must be registered with the University police within 24 hours after classes begin for a semester or summer session or on the first work day after bringing a motor vehicle to campus.

Procedures for Inspection and Review

Students who wish to inspect and review their education records may do so by submitting a written request to the official responsible for the specific record desired. The responsible official must respond within 45 days of the request by sending the student a copy of the requested record or arranging an appointment for the student to review the requested record.

Copies of education records or record entries, with certain exceptions, may be obtained by the student at the cost of 15¢ per page. Copies of a student’s permanent academic record (transcript) will be provided at the cost of $2 per transcript after the first copy. The University reserves the right to deny a copy of an education record for which a financial "hold" exists, or a transcript of an original source document which exists elsewhere.

Procedures for Challenging the Contents of An Education Record

Students may challenge the contents of an education record which they consider to be inaccurate, misleading, or otherwise in violation of their privacy rights. Students may initiate a challenge by submitting a written request to the custodian of the particular record in question who shall attempt to resolve the problem through informal discussions. If a challenge to a record is not satisfactorily resolved by this procedure, students will be informed of their right to a formal hearing, the procedures to be followed concerning such a hearing, and its composition.

6. Sexual Harassment—It is the policy of James Madison University to provide a work and study environment free from sexual harassment. Such harassment includes uninvited sexual advances, requests for sexual favors and other sexual verbal or physical conduct which becomes a condition for personnel action or grades or creates an environment which may be offensive. University Policy 1:03:25 describes the procedures to be followed by a student or a member of the faculty or staff, alleging sexual harassment.

The University reserves the right to develop and implement new policies or regulations not presently included in this document. It is the responsibility of the University to make a reasonable attempt to inform the student body of any change in or addition to the current policies and regulations.
The University Judicial System

James Madison University has both a right and an obligation to set reasonable standards of conduct for students who voluntarily and willingly choose to become members of the University community. In conjunction with its rights to set up reasonable standards, the University also assumes a right and accepts the responsibility to establish a system of judicial and disciplinary procedures for use when University policies are violated. In turn, the University recognizes the need to insure that students have the right to fair and equitable procedures in the event they are charged with a violation of University policies.

The authority which the University exercises in charging and disciplining students for violations of its regulations differs from the power exercised by civil authorities in prosecuting cases at general law. Whereas criminal courts most often seek to punish or deter unlawful behavior, it is generally accepted that judicial proceedings at educational institutions are intended to impress upon individuals their responsibilities or, in the most severe cases, to remove by expulsion those who should not remain in the academic community. The federal courts have called discipline "a part of the teaching process."

In adopting the University Judicial System—a system which depends largely on the participation of students and faculty—James Madison University recognizes that errors in procedures and rulings may occur. Therefore, when appeals of judicial decisions are made on a basis of technical, procedural, or interpretive errors, they will be acted upon within the bounds of two principles: first, that the disciplinary format adopted by the University is administrative and not judicial in spirit and that considerable latitude must be permitted in order to avoid excessive legalisms; and second, that only errors that may reasonably have prejudiced in a significant way the interests of an accused student are to be grounds for reversal. In short, it is not intended that technicalities should avert a decision which is substantially valid. Additionally, the right of appeal will extend to accused students only, not to their accusers.

To help insure the fairness and impartiality of the University Judicial System, the president of the University has established the Judicial Control Board, delegating to it the power and authority to monitor the regulations and responsibilities of the judicial system. The membership of the board consists of one faculty member, one administrator, and two students (the Student Government Association president and the student advocate coordinator). The student judicial coordinator and the University judicial coordinator serve as ex officio members. All members of the Judicial Control Board have voting privileges.
I. Student Rights
An accused student has the following rights:

1. The right to a fair and impartial hearing before a duly constituted judicial body or hearing officer.
2. The right to a presumption of innocence until proven guilty.
3. The right to be notified of the charges against him or her, the specific rule or policy violated, and the time, date and place of the scheduled judicial hearing at least 72 hours prior to the hearing (except when the accused student postpones the hearing), provided the student has informed the University of his or her current address. If the student has not furnished the University with a current address the University has only to make a reasonable attempt to notify him or her at the last address provided.
4. The student shall have the right to an advisor of his or her choice, provided that person is willing to assist and advise the student during the investigation. The advisor may be selected from the University community. This right shall extend to all judicial proceedings. Student advisors are available through the student advocate coordinator’s office located in the Warren Campus Center. A student may be represented by an attorney if the University judicial coordinator is notified within 48 hours of the hearing. An attorney may be present at any hearing for the sole purpose of insuring that a student’s constitutional rights are not violated.
5. The right to confront his or her accuser and question all witnesses testifying against the student.
6. The right to present witnesses to testify in his or her defense. The judicial body shall have the authority to limit the number of witnesses in order to avoid unreasonable delays where the testimony would be repetitious or unnecessary.
7. The right to be present during the entire hearing (except for closed judicial deliberation) and know all evidence used in the proceeding. The student may, however, elect not to appear and failure to appear shall not be construed as an admission of guilt.
8. The student has the right to remain silent and such silence shall not be construed as an admission of guilt.
9. The right to be notified in writing of the decision or recommendation of the judicial body or hearing officer within 10 days of the date of the hearing.
10. The right to one appeal to a higher judicial body or University administrative official within five working days of receiving the judicial decision for any of the following causes:
   a. violation of due process and student rights
   b. new evidence
   c. inappropriate penalty
   The chairperson of the appeals body or the appellate hearing officer has the right to accept or reject all appeals.
11. The right to have access to a recording of his or her hearing for the purposes of preparing an appeal.

II. University Judicial Structure
A. University Judicial Council
1. The role of the University Judicial Council is to act as the original hearing body for cases in which a student is charged with a violation of a policy classified as "major" under the University’s judicial procedures. The board also acts as the original hearing body for "flexible" violations when appropriate.
2. The council shall have a total of 24 members. Twelve of the members shall be faculty members, selected by the president, none of whom shall hold an administrative position higher than head of a department. The other 12 members shall be students who are selected by the president of the University from the student body, exclusive of student government officers.

3. Appointment to the council shall be on an annual basis. Reappointment shall be made with consideration to the need for continuity while maintaining a system of orderly rotation.

4. If any member of the council feels that he or she has such previous contact with the case or the students involved that a fair judgment cannot be rendered, the member must request that he or she not serve for that hearing. The accused student may request that any member of the council be excused whenever the student can show a bias on the part of the member. The chairperson of the council will decide on such challenges and, if appropriate, ask the member to excuse himself or herself. If the chairperson is challenged, the council will by a majority vote decide whether or not the chairperson should be requested to excuse himself or herself.

5. The University judicial coordinator is responsible for the training of the University Judicial Council.

B. Minor Violations Board

1. The role of the Minor Violations Board is to act as the original hearing body for cases in which a student is charged with a violation of a University or residence hall policy classified as "minor" under the University’s judicial procedures. The board shall also act as the original hearing body for "flexible" violations when appropriate.

2. The Minor Violations Board shall have a total of eight student members; at least five members must be present to hear a case. Ideally, the board’s membership should be representative of the student body.

3. Minor Violation Board members shall be selected after all students have been given an opportunity to apply for the position. The student judicial coordinator acting in conjunction with the executive council shall be responsible for selection of board members with approval by the Student Senate.

4. The non-voting chairperson of the Minor Violations Board shall be appointed from among the eight student members by the president of S.G.A. with the approval of the entire board membership.

C. Administrative Option

Any student charged with a violation may choose to have the violation handled administratively by the University judicial coordinator (for major violations) or the student judicial coordinator (for minor violations) in accordance with the following:

1. The student must be informed in writing by the University or the student judicial coordinator of the charge against him or her.

2. The University or student judicial coordinator after hearing all relevant facts, informs the student verbally of the penalty which will be assigned.

3. The accused student may accept the penalty and sign a statement indicating acceptance, or may reject the penalty and request a hearing before the appropriate judicial body. Under no circumstances may the judicial body be informed of the accused student’s original plea or the penalty which would have been assigned by the University or student judicial coordinator.

   b. In emergency situations involving interim suspension; or
   c. If the circumstances of a case are of such a personal nature that it would cause severe embarrassment or discomfort to either the accused student or any witness if the case were heard by the judicial body having original jurisdiction.

2. The University judicial coordinator or the student judicial coordinator will conduct an investigation of all charges to determine:
   a. The validity of the charge;
   b. Whether there are grounds for a formal charge and the initiation of judicial proceedings; and
   c. Whether the charge should be referred to other University officials or administrative committees.
3. If the investigation produces sufficient cause to believe that a violation has taken place, the student will be contacted by mail, informed of the charge, and asked to make an appointment with the University or student judicial coordinator. The student may bring his or her advisor to this meeting if so desired. At this meeting, the University or student judicial coordinator will explain the charges against the student, inform the student of his or her rights and judicial procedures, and allow the student to choose between having the case heard by a judicial board or handled administratively. If a student fails to make an appointment with the University or student judicial coordinator within three days after being properly notified, an additional charge of non-compliance with an official request may be added.
4. Proper notification shall consist of written notice mailed to the student’s last address on file with the University or placed in the student’s assigned mailbox. The notice will be considered received one day following the date the notice is posted at a U.S. Post Office facility or placed in the student’s mailbox. This shall apply to notification of judicial conferences, official judicial hearings and judicial decisions.

B. Judicial Hearing Procedures: Original Jurisdiction
1. All hearings are closed.
2. The accused student shall receive all rights guaranteed him or her.
3. A judicial hearing will generally proceed in the following manner:

   f. Evidence is presented against the accused student, with each witness being called individually and being questioned by the student judicial officer and the advocate.
   g. Evidence is presented in favor of the accused student, with each witness being called individually and being questioned by the student judicial officer and the advocate.
   h. The board members may question the witnesses as they are called.
   i. The person bringing charges presents concluding remarks.
   j. The accused student or his or her advisor and the student judicial officer may present concluding remarks.

k. All persons are excused from the hearing room except board members.

l. The board considers only information introduced in the hearing and deliberates in executive session until a decision is made as to guilt or innocence. The decision is based on the preponderance of the evidence and is decided by a simple majority vote. In case of a tie vote, the ruling is to withdraw charges or lower the penalty in favor of the accused. Previous violations are to be considered in the assigning of appropriate penalties.

m. The decision is announced in the presence of only the person or persons bringing charges and the student charged and the advisor.

n. The student is informed of the right of appeal and the appropriate procedure for initiating an appeal.

4. The chairperson of the council shall have the right to limit the length of testimony of any witness or participant in the hearing if it appears to be repetitious or does not contribute positively to the fair and efficient adjudication of the case currently being considered.

5. If an accused student fails to appear at a hearing after being properly notified, the judicial body shall hear the case on the basis of the evidence accumulated as a result of the investigation and the testimony of witnesses and notify the accused student of the decision.

6. An accused student may request one postponement of a judicial hearing by contacting the University judicial coordinator at least 24 hours prior to the scheduled hearing. Postponement will only be allowed when an accused student has an exam conflict, emergency at home, or is too ill to attend the judicial hearing.

C. Appeals from Cases of Original Jurisdiction

1. Any student found guilty by a judicial body or hearing officer shall have the right to appeal within five working days of receiving notice of the decision by filing a written petition for appeal with the University judicial coordinator in the Office of the Dean of Students. Any other party significantly affected or injured by the decision may also petition for appeal.

2. Decisions as to whether to hear or reject the appeal will be made by the chairman of the appeal body or University hearing officer within 96 hours of the filing of the request for appeal. If there is inadequate time for a judicial body to hear an appeal, it must then be heard by a hearing officer. If the appeal is denied, the student will be notified in writing.

3. An appeal hearing will be concerned only with the points raised in the written appeal form.

If the appeal has included new evidence or contention of error, the appeal body will vote first on innocence or guilt and then on the penalty. If only the penalty is in question, the appeal body will vote to affirm or decrease the original penalty.
D. Appeals from an Appeal Body

The student considering an appeal should notify the University judicial coordinator within 24 hours that he or she wishes to make a final appeal to the president of the University.

E. Judicial Procedures for Violations Occurring During the Last Two Weeks of a Semester or During the Summer Sessions

When a student is charged with a violation during the last two weeks of any semester or during the summer sessions, and the case cannot be scheduled before a judicial body, the student may choose, providing he/she is not a graduating senior, one of the following options:

a. The case may be heard immediately by the University hearing officer, provided witnesses are available. (This is the only option available to graduating seniors.)

b. The case may be heard at a regular meeting of the judicial board when the next semester begins provided witnesses are available. (Not applicable to graduating seniors.)

If the student wishes to have his or her case heard when witnesses are not available, he or she may waive in writing the right to cross-examine the witnesses and the written statements of all witnesses will then be accepted as legal evidence and testimony by the judicial council or hearing officer. The accused student may, however, challenge the testimony given in these statements by presenting witnesses in his or her own behalf.

F. Emergency Procedures

1. If the University president or designee determines that the presence of an accused student presents a clear and present danger to the orderly operation of the University or to the safety and welfare of members of the University community, the president or designee may immediately suspend that student.

a. The suspended student may, within 48 hours of being notified of such suspension, request an informal hearing before the University hearing officer to determine if the interim suspension should continue.

b. A formal judicial hearing shall take place within seven working days of the date of the interim suspension hearing to fully adjudicate the case.

2. If the University president or designee determines that the presence of any student presents a clear and present danger to the University community, the president or designee may withdraw that student provided the student's withdrawal is approved by the appropriate medical officer of the University.

The withdrawn student, within 48 hours of being notified of such withdrawal, may request an informal hearing before the University hearing officer to determine only the validity of the withdrawal.

3. If the president of the University or designee determines that additional judicial bodies are required during an emergency situation to hear cases involving major violations, he or she shall be empowered to appoint temporary judicial councils.

a. These temporary judicial councils shall be composed of four student members and four faculty members with a non-voting faculty chairman. All members shall be appointed by the president.

b. These councils shall operate under the same procedures and have the same powers as the University judicial council.

c. Decisions of these bodies may be appealed to the Appeals Committee of the University Judicial Council.

d. These councils shall be dissolved when all cases arising from the particular emergency situation which necessitated their creation have been fully adjudicated.
V. Penalties

Any student found guilty of violating any of the regulations or policies of James Madison University may be subject to one or more of the following penalties:

A. Fines

Fines shall be no less than $15 and no greater than $100 depending upon the severity of the infraction. All payments are to be made to the University cashier in Wilson Hall within two weeks of notification of a judicial decision. Failure to pay the fine will result in further judicial action and the imposition of more severe penalties.

The money collected from fines will be used for short term loans for students in need.

B. Disciplinary Probation

Probation shall be for a specified period of time and may include loss of privileges or eligibility to participate in extracurricular University activities. The minimal probationary period is one full semester.

C. Restitution

Reimbursement by the student to the University or a member of the University community to cover the cost of damage or loss of community or personal property.

D. Suspension From University Housing

The student loses the privilege of living in or visiting anyone in University housing for a specified length of time. Afterwards, the student is allowed to reapply for University housing and will be admitted provided there is space available.

E. Expulsion From University Housing

The student permanently loses the privilege of living in or visiting anyone in University housing.

F. Suspension

Suspension means that a student is dismissed from James Madison University for a specified length of time after which he or she is allowed to return to the University. Judicial councils may only recommend suspension to the president of the University who is the only official empowered to actually suspend any student. A suspended student may not visit the campus without the permission of the University judicial coordinator.

G. Expulsion

The student loses the privilege of attending James Madison University as a student and is permanently separated from the University. Judicial councils may only recommend expulsion. The president of the University must review and make the final decision on any expulsion penalty. A student who is expelled may not visit the campus without the permission of the University judicial coordinator.

H. Special Assignments

In certain cases special assignments may be imposed.

Range of Penalties Assigned to Each Judicial Body and Hearing Officer

1. A minor violation board or student judicial coordinator may assign any of the following penalties:
   a. Fines
   b. Disciplinary probation
   c. Restitution
   d. Special assignments

2. The University judicial coordinator, the University Judicial Council, or the University hearing officer may assign any penalties listed in sub-section A through H.

Guidelines for Assignment of Penalties

In order to maintain fairness and uniformity in the assignment of penalties for certain first-time offenses, the following guidelines have been established:

1. Alcohol beverage violations—$15 fine per person and disciplinary probation.
2. Drug violations—minimum of $20 fine and two semesters' probation.
3. Failure to comply with an official request—$15 fine per person and disciplinary probation.
4. Fire alarm violations—$50 fine per person and disciplinary probation for as long as the student is at James Madison University.
5. Fire extinguisher violations—$25 fine per person, $5 fee to refill the extinguisher, and two semesters probation.
6. Theft (items valued greater than or equal to $25)—one semester's suspension.
7. Visitation violations—$15 fine per person and disciplinary probation.

A second conviction for any University policy violation may result in suspension from the University.

VI. Changes and Amendments
All policies and procedures defined in these sections are subject to change by the president or Judicial Control Board at any time. Students shall be informed in writing of any changes in this document.

In a University community, there can be no doubt that honor and the pursuit of knowledge are inexorably intertwined. True knowledge can be gained only through honorable means.

Moreover, honor is essential to the proper development of our civilization itself. As Henrik Ibsen once noted: "The spirit of truth and the spirit of freedom—they are the pillars of society." Concomitant with freedom, however, is the necessity for truth and honor. An honor system must be believed in, supported by, and administered by those who belong to it.

Upon enrollment at James Madison University, each student is automatically subject to the provisions of the Honor System. This system is codified, recognizing that varying punishments should be applied for varying offenses. Violations of the Honor System are punishable by a minimum of a one-semester suspension from the University. More stringent penalties, including permanent expulsion from the University, may be applied for aggravated violations of the Honor System.

In order for the Honor System to be truly effective, all students are expected to cooperate in its implementation. If students accept dishonesty by their peers, the entire Honor System will be weakened. True honor can be achieved only if all guard it zealously.

Any suspected violation should be reported immediately to the University Honor Council coordinator or a student prosecutor. The University Honor Council coordinator will then meet with the accused student and, if the student pleads guilty, the coordinator will set the penalty.

If a student pleads not guilty to the coordinator, the case will be referred to the Honor Council for a hearing. The Honor Council Hearing Committee consists of four students and four faculty members, in addition to the president and vice president. The decision of the Honor Council may be appealed to an appeals committee of three students, one faculty member and an academic dean designated by the vice president for academic affairs.

All decisions involving suspension or expulsion will be reviewed automatically by the president of the University.

CONFIDENTIALITY REGARDING ALL HONOR COUNCIL CASES IS AN ABSOLUTE MUST.

I. Student Rights

The student has the right to—

1. a fair and impartial hearing before the appropriate hearing body.
2. a presumption of innocence until proven guilty.
3. be notified of the charges, the specific violation, and the time and place of the hearing at least 96 hours prior to the hearing, provided the student has informed the University of his/her current address. If such information has not been provided, only a reasonable attempt will be made to notify the student at the last given address. (This right may be waived in writing by the student if desired.)
4. be represented by any student member of the University community, excluding Honor Council members. This right shall extend to all proceedings and pre-hearing investigation. The Student Advocate Corps is available to advise and represent accused students. Students may request that a lawyer act as their advisor during their hearing by contacting the University Honor Council coordinator at least 36 hours prior to the hearing.
5. confront the accuser and cross-examine all witnesses.
6. present witnesses to testify for the defense.
7. be present during the entire hearing (except for closed deliberation) and know all evidence used in the proceeding. The student may elect not to appear and failure to do so shall not be taken as an admission of guilt.
8. remain silent. Such silence shall not be construed as an admission of guilt.
9. be notified in writing of the decision or recommendation of the hearing within ten days of the date of the hearing.
10. one appeal to the appropriate hearing body within five working days of receiving official notification of the decision.
11. have access to an official record of the hearing for the purposes of preparing an appeal. This record shall consist of either a written transcript of the hearing or a copy of the tape recording made at the hearing at the discretion of the University Honor Council coordinator.

CONFIDENTIALITY REGARDING ALL HONOR COUNCIL CASES IS AN ABSOLUTE MUST.

III. Jurisdiction

The original jurisdiction for all cases shall be assigned by the joint agreement of the University Honor Council coordinator and the student Honor Council prosecutors. Violations are usually assigned for hearings to the University Honor Council, except during the last two weeks of any University term and the summer session. All academic dishonesty is expressly prohibited. Violations include, but are not limited to, the following actions:

1. The use of unauthorized materials during an examination, including notes, a textbook, previous examinations, a completed copy of the examination in question, or any other supplementary items.

2. Copying information from a paper of another student during an examination or

Violations are punishable by suspension for a minimum of one semester. In cases of aggravating violations, such as a second conviction for an honor violation or a violation that also involves a wrongful act such as stealing an examination, suspension may be recommended for periods longer than one semester, up to and including expulsion.

Any breach of honor alleged to have been committed more than six months before complaint is made to the University Honor Council coordinator or a student prosecutor may not be prosecuted.

The University reserves the right to develop and implement new policies or regulations not presently included in this document. It is the responsibility of the University to make a reasonable attempt to inform the student body of any change or addition to the current policies and regulations.

IV. Penalties

Any student found guilty of an honor violation will have the grade received in the course where the violation occurred expunged (with the designation of "W"). In addition one of the following penalties will be imposed:

A. Suspension - the student is suspended from the University for a specified length of time after which the student is allowed to return. (Minimum length for suspension is one semester. Suspension can only be imposed during the fall and spring semester.)

B. Expulsion - the student is permanently separated from the University. NOTE: The Honor Council may only recommend suspension and expulsion to the president of the University who is the only official empowered to suspend or expel any student.

C. Permanent withdrawal - the student permanently withdraws from the University. (This is only available under the administrative option.)

V. Honor System Procedures

A. Charges

1. An individual (faculty, student, or administrator) who becomes aware of or witnesses a possible honor violation shall report the violation as soon as possible to the University Honor Council coordinator or one of the student prosecutors. A student who commits an honor violation shall be responsible for reporting it.

2. All reports of possible honor violations shall be investigated by the University Honor Council coordinator or a student prosecutor. They shall jointly decide if there is sufficient evidence to justify a hearing. In the event of agreement of insufficient evidence, all charges will be dropped.
3. If the investigation indicates an honor violation has occurred, the student will be contacted by mail, informed of the charge, and asked to make an appointment with the University Honor Council coordinator. At this meeting, the coordinator or prosecutor will explain the charges against the student, inform the student of his or her rights and the judicial procedures, and allow the student to choose between having the case referred to a hearing or handled administratively. If the student fails to contact the coordinator or prosecutor within three days after being notified, the case will automatically be referred for a hearing.

4. Proper notification consists of written notice mailed to the student’s last address on file with the University or placed in the assigned student mailbox. The notice will be considered received one day after the date the notice is posted at a U.S. Post Office facility, or placed in the student’s mailbox. This applies to notification of conferences, official hearings and decisions.

B. Administrative Option

1. Any student charged with an Honor Code violation may choose to have the violation handled administratively by the University Honor Council coordinator in accordance with the following:

a. The student must be informed in writing of the charges. The coordinator informs the student verbally of the penalty which will be assigned if the plea is guilty. (Only permanent withdrawal or suspension may be offered.)

b. The accused student may either accept the penalty and sign a statement indicating a desire to plead guilty and waive the right to a formal hearing, or may reject the penalty and request a hearing.

c. If the student rejects the penalty assigned, the case shall be referred for a hearing. UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES may the hearing body be informed of the accused student’s original plea or the penalty which would have been assigned.

C. Hearing Procedures

1. All hearings are closed unless the accused student requests an open hearing at least 48 hours prior to the time of the hearing. If the number of spectators or disorderly behavior disrupt the hearing in any manner, the Honor Council president may order any or all spectators to leave the hearing room. The president may also prohibit the use of cameras or unauthorized tape recording equipment.

2. The accused student shall receive all rights guaranteed in the student rights section of this document, including the right to present a defense and cross-examine all adverse witnesses.

3. Excused members - If any member of the council, because of previous acquaintance with the case or student involved, feels the ability to render a fair judgment would be impaired, the member must request to be excused from serving for that hearing. With the student’s consent, eight voting council members shall constitute a quorum.

4. The appropriate University staff member or accuser has the right to question all defense witnesses and the accused student.

5. The Honor Council president or hearing officer rules on the admissibility of all evidence introduced during the hearing. Because the hearing is administrative, rules of criminal evidence do not apply.

6. The order of an Honor Council hearing will generally proceed in the following manner:

b. Statement regarding confidentiality
1. In closed Honor Council hearings all participants are required to maintain confidentiality.

2. In open Honor Council hearings, only Honor Council members, officers, University coordinator and prosecutors are required to maintain confidentiality.

c. Answer any questions concerning rights or procedures.

d. The statement of charges is presented.

e. The accused student enters a plea:
   1. Not guilty
   2. Guilty

f. Presentation of evidence against the accused student:
   1. Each witness is called individually
   2. The accused student or the advisor is given an opportunity to question each witness.

g. Presentation of evidence in favor of the accused student:
   1. Each witness is called individually
   2. The accuser or University representative is given an opportunity to question each witness.

h. The Honor Council members may question the witnesses as they are called.

i. The Honor Council prosecutor presents concluding remarks.

j. The accused student or the advisor may present concluding remarks and enter a plea if one was not entered previously.

k. All are excused from the hearing room except Honor Council members.

l. The Honor Council will consider only information introduced in the hearing and deliberate until a decision is made as to guilt or innocence. The decision is based on proof of guilt beyond a reasonable doubt. At least seven votes are required for a conviction.

m. If the decision is guilty, the student will be given the opportunity to ask the Honor Council to consider immediate suspension before the Honor Council decides on an appropriate penalty. Immediate suspension can be granted only if the student is found guilty substantially early in a semester. At least seven votes are required for a penalty greater than the minimum of one-semester suspension for aggravated offenses.

n. The decision will be announced in the presence of the person charged, the advisor and the prosecutor. If the hearing has been closed, the decision is also to be treated as confidential.

o. The student is informed of the right of appeal and the appropriate procedure for initiating an appeal.

7. Hearing officers will follow the same procedural guidelines as the Honor Council, except that a student may enter a written plea of guilty and waive the right to an extensive hearing. If the student wishes to do this, the hearing officer will accept the guilty plea and decide only on an appropriate penalty after a statement by the accused student concerning any extenuating circumstances which may have affected his or her involvement in the violation.

8. If an accused student refuses or fails to appear at a hearing after being properly notified, the Honor Council shall hear the case on the basis of the evidence accumulated as a result of the investigation and the testimony of witnesses and notify the accused student of the decision.

9. An accused student may request one postponement of a hearing by contacting the University Honor Council coordinator at least 24 hours prior to the scheduled hearing. Adequate cause for postponement must be demonstrated.

10. If a student is accused of an Honor Code violation during the last two weeks of the spring semester, or during the summer session, the case will be heard by a University hearing officer or, in the event witnesses are not available, the case will be postponed until the fall semester and heard by the Honor Council.

11. If the student does not appeal the decision within five working days, the Honor Council coordinator will report the outcome of the hearing to the president of the University who will make the final decision and inform the student of it.

12. Record of the Case
A complete tape recording is maintained for each case. This record is submitted to the president of the University. The final recommendation to the president of the University is submitted in writing within 24 hours of the conclusion of the appeal period. The final decision is made by the president and he informs the student in writing. Copies of the decision are sent to the student, to the parents (for students under 18 years of age), the vice president for academic affairs and student affairs, and the University Honor Council coordinator. Notification of withdrawal will be sent to the dean of admissions and records, the vice president for academic affairs and the vice president for business affairs. This notification will include only that information necessary for the office involved and will not be a report of the disciplinary action itself. If the decision is to terminate or interrupt the academic progress of the student at James Madison University, an entry is made on the student's record in the records office. If the student's progress is interrupted, this entry is purged upon completion of this interrupted period (suspension).

13. If the student wishes to have his or her case heard when witnesses are not available, the right to cross-examine the witnesses may be waived in writing and the written statements of all witnesses shall then be accepted as legal evidence and testimony by the Honor Council or hearing officer. The accused student may, however, challenge the testimony given in these statements by presenting witnesses in the student's own behalf.

14. Grades
If the decision of the president of the University is to terminate or interrupt the progress of the student, the student will be withdrawn from the University effective the date of the decision. Grades will be based upon the principle applied for University withdrawals with no consideration for dates and no incompletes.

D. Appeals

1. Any student found guilty by the Honor Council or hearing officer shall have the right to appeal within five working days of receiving notice of decision by filing a written petition justifying an appeal with the Honor Council coordinator. A student filing an appeal petition may request a recording of the hearing before the Honor Council. The University Honor Council coordinator will notify the student in writing of the time, place and date of the appeal hearing.

2. The vice president for academic affairs shall designate an academic dean (on a rotation basis) to be the chairperson of the Appeals Committee. This committee will consist of five members: the chairperson, three students, and one faculty member. Each member will have one vote. Appeals presented during the last two weeks of the semester or during the summer session will be heard by a University hearing officer. The procedure during the appeal will be a review of the original hearing.
3. The Appeals Committee or the hearing officers with appellate jurisdiction may take the following actions:

a. Affirm the guilty findings and penalty of the Honor Council or hearing officer.

b. Find the student not guilty and dismiss the charges.

c. Reduce the penalty (but not below the minimum penalty).

d. Order a new hearing.

4. A student found guilty of a violation may not be given a more severe penalty as the result of the decision to appeal to a higher body. At least four votes will be necessary to overturn the original decision.

5. The chairman of the Appeals Committee will notify the president of the Honor Council and the University Honor Council coordinator will report the outcome of the appeal to the president of the University who will make the final decision and inform the student of it.

CONFIDENTIALITY REGARDING ALL HONOR COUNCIL CASES IS AN ABSOLUTE MUST.
This section of the handbook is designed to give the student selected academic information with which every student should be familiar. The complete academic regulations governing the academic program, including the requirements for graduation, are explicitly stated in the James Madison University General Catalog. Each student must meet the graduation requirements given in the catalog for the year he or she is admitted or any year following. It is very important that the student keep this catalog for future reference.

Credit By Departmental Examination

College degrees represent growth and maturity in certain fundamental knowledge and skills rather than a mere accumulation of semester hours. In recognition of the fact that some persons may achieve academic competence through non-traditional means such as private study, technical employment, or prior instruction, James Madison University endorses the concept of credit by examination. By permitting a student to earn credit by departmental examination for knowledge already gained, highly motivated, or academically advanced persons are able to accelerate their program. It is, of course, the student's responsibility to ascertain what preparation and background are necessary for taking advantage of this means of acceleration, before attempting an examination.
General Policies

1. Any enrolled student may make application to take an examination for credit in selected courses in the undergraduate curriculum.

2. Permission to take an examination for credit must be obtained from the head of the department in which credit is sought.

3. A student is not permitted to take the examination for credit option in a course in which he or she is already enrolled or in courses which are prerequisites to those courses in which the student is enrolled or has already completed. Exceptions to this policy may be permitted when a department is determining the correct placement of a student during the first week of classes.

4. Each department will use its own discretion in developing the form of the examination and in determining the procedure to be followed.

5. Students may earn as many as 30 semester hours through CLEP and credit by departmental examination, with no more than 12 semester hours in any one discipline.

6. To receive credit, a student must make a grade of "C" or better on the examination. Each department shall determine what constitutes a "C" for that department. No department shall require a grade higher than a "C" for passing the examination.

7. The examination for a course can be taken only once in a given semester.

8. A non-refundable fee will be charged for the administration of an examination for credit.

9. Each department will determine its own time schedule for giving such examinations.

Credit/No-Credit Course Registration

The credit/no-credit option has been established to encourage students to explore academic areas with which they are unfamiliar. It is also designed to allow students to select courses of interest to them which are outside of their major and minor fields of concentration, especially those of exceptional challenge, without jeopardizing their academic record. Furthermore, it may also be used in some cases to reduce academic pressures and competition for grades.

Students electing to take courses under this option should be selective in choosing which courses to take credit/no-credit. Graduate and professional schools as well as future employers may possibly view the use of non-traditional grading systems adversely. Students should consult their academic advisers for information concerning the inclusion of credit/no-credit course grades within their program.

1. A student is eligible to take a course on a credit/no-credit basis if he or she has completed at least 28 semester hours at James Madison University and has attained a 2.25 cumulative grade point average. A transfer student may take courses on the credit/no-credit option if he or she has completed 28 semester hours with at least 14 semester hours at James Madison University. Note: A student is permitted to register for physical education activity courses on a credit/no-credit basis at any time, without regard to minimum hours completed or grade point average. The grade for student teaching is assigned on a credit/no-credit basis.

2. The following courses may not be taken on a credit/no-credit basis:
   a. Courses within major program.
   b. Courses within minor program.
   c. Courses listed by name and number in a major or minor program but offered outside the major and minor department.

All other courses may be taken on the credit/no-credit option.

3. A total of up to 15 semester hours may be taken on a credit/no-credit basis with a maximum of four semester hours per semester or one course of more than four semester hours. Student teaching is not counted as a part of these totals.

4. Students must declare at registration the course or courses they plan to take on a credit/no-credit basis.

5. All changes to and from the credit/no-credit option must be completed by the end of the drop period.

6. Credit/no-credit will apply only to final grades. All coursework and quizzes will be graded as for other students in the course.

7. Students taking a course on a credit/no-credit basis will not be identified to the instructor until after final grades have been submitted.

8. Letter grades will be submitted by instructors to the director of records who will change all grades of "A" through "C" to "CR" (credit) for those enrolled under the credit/no-credit option. The student will receive credit hours, but not quality points, for the work completed. Therefore, the grade of "CR" will not affect the student's cumulative grade point average.

9. A grade of "NC" (no-credit) will be recorded for all grades of "D" and "F". The student will not receive credit hours or quality points for the grade of "NC". The fact that the course was attempted will remain on the transcript, but the grade will not affect the student's cumulative grade point average.

Faculty Academic Advisers

All freshmen are assigned freshmen faculty advisers at the time they attend orientation in the summer. They remain with that adviser until the early part of the second semester at which time they are assigned advisers in the department in which they are majoring. Transfer students attending orientation are usually assigned advisers in the fall.

Academic advising is an on-going relationship between student and faculty that extends from orientation to graduation. The role of the faculty adviser is to assist and advise students in the attainment of their educational goals. Areas in which the adviser may be helpful include general information on academic policies and procedures, program planning and adjustments, major requirements, scholarship information, career advising, and assistance with academic problems.

James Madison University believes that the responsibility of fulfilling all requirements for graduation lies with the students; therefore, they should be familiar with these requirements as outlined for them in their University catalog.

Attendance

A student’s participation in the work of a course is clearly a precondition of his or her receiving credit in that course. Because of the wide variety of courses and teaching methods at James Madison University, the University recognizes that the nature of a student’s participation in the work of a course cannot be prescribed on a university-wide basis. For this reason classroom attendance is not a matter subject to regulation by the University. A student’s attendance in class and laboratory is, rather, a matter between him or her and the professor in that class or laboratory.

Course Adjustment

After a student has completed his or her class schedule and has registered, no classes may be dropped, no additions made and no transfers to other sections made without the approval of his or her faculty adviser.

A fee of $10 is required for any adjustment made after the “no fee” schedule adjustment period as specified in the University calendar. The $10 fee must be paid unless the change is necessitated by circumstances beyond the student’s control and the fee is waived by the dean of admissions and records.

1. Withdrawal from a course:

a. A student may withdraw from any course with the signature of his or her
The University believes that requirements and regulations made by the academic and teaching staff of its colleges and schools are intended to maintain a high standard of scholarship and to promote the welfare of students. It has been the policy of the University, the faculty, and the deans to enforce regulations and requirements without discrimination on the basis of race, sex, creed, religion, national origin, or handicapping condition. The University expects students to carry their own academic and personal responsibility. Students who enroll in courses at the University must accept the responsibility for their own academic work. Students who register in a class should be prepared to attend all classes and to complete all assignments.

Because of its academic requirements, the University limits the transfer of credit. Credit is given only for courses in which the student has received a grade of 'C' or better. Students are responsible for selecting courses appropriate to their academic requirements. The academic requirements of the University must be satisfied in the student's major field of study. The University reserves the right to refuse to accept courses for credit if they are not relevant to the student's major.

Should a student be unable to continue in a course because of illness, severe hardship beyond the student's control, or other reasons, a petition may be made to withdraw from the course. The petition must be approved by the head of the department and the dean of the school in which the course is offered. A grade of 'W' will be recorded in the course.

Students who wish to change or declare a major should obtain a "Change or Declaration of Major" form from the records office and take it to the head of the department which they wish to enter. Students are accepted by the department on the basis of their academic records and upon the satisfaction of such other criteria as the department may establish. A new adviser is assigned by the department for students beyond the freshmen level.

Withdrawal from the University

Undergraduates

Student withdrawal from the University when enrollment is terminated before completing the semester or summer session period for which they registered. A student desiring to withdraw must have a conference with a staff member in the Office of the Dean of Students (Alumnae Hall) and complete the withdrawal request form. Students who are unsure about withdrawing are encouraged to talk to a member of the Counseling and Student Development Center staff before initiating withdrawal procedures.

The Office of the Dean of Students, must approve such requests, set the official withdrawal date and notify other University offices of the action. Strict compliance with this requirement is mandatory. Students who withdraw without receiving official approval will receive a grade of "F" for all courses in which they are enrolled.

Grades of students withdrawing with official approval will be determined as follows:

Students withdrawing from the University up to the semester course withdrawal deadline (Oct. 27 and Mar. 16) will receive a grade of "W" in all their courses.

Students withdrawing from the University because of extenuating circumstances after the semester course withdrawal deadline will receive a grade of "W" in all their courses.

Students withdrawing from the University after the semester course withdrawal deadline when there are no documented extenuating circumstances will receive a grade of "W" in courses they are passing and a grade of "F" in courses they are failing at the time of withdrawal, the grade to be determined by each individual faculty member.

Students enrolled in an off-campus course may withdraw from the University by securing a "Request for Withdrawal" form from the center director or the Office of the Dean of Students. This form should be completed and returned to the Office of the Dean of Students where the official withdrawal will be processed.

An adjustment in charges will be figured from the official date of withdrawal. No adjustment in charges will be made unless the withdrawal form is received in the Office of the Dean of Students within 30 days after the student leaves the campus. Adjustments will not include non-refundable fees or charges.

2. Adding a course:

A course being added requires the signature of the adviser, the records office and the cashier. The last day to add is as specified in the University calendar. A course added after the specified deadline must be approved by the head of the department and the dean of the school in which the course is offered.

Change or Declaration of Major

Students who wish to change or declare a major should obtain a "Change or Declaration of Major" form from the records office and take it to the head of the department which they wish to enter. Students are accepted by the department on the basis of their academic records and upon the satisfaction of such other criteria as the department may establish. Nonreturning Students

All students who plan to complete their current semester but do not intend to return to James Madison University for the subsequent semester should notify the Office of the Dean of Students in writing. This notification is necessary whether or not students have registered or paid. Questions concerning nonreturning status should be directed to the Office of the Dean of Students, Alumnae Hall.

Graduates

A graduate student withdraws from graduate school when he or she terminates his or her enrollment before completing the semester or summer session for which he or she registered. A student desiring to withdraw must have a conference with the dean of the graduate school and complete the withdrawal request form available in the graduate school office in Hoffman Hall.

The dean of the graduate school approves the request, sets the official withdrawal date, and notifies other University officials of the action. A student who voluntarily withdraws without receiving official approval, will receive a grade of “F” for all courses for which he or she is enrolled. A student voluntarily withdrawing with official approval will receive a grade of “W” in all courses. A student who withdraws because of extenuating circumstances will also receive a “W” in all courses.

An adjustment in charges will be figured from the official date of withdrawal. No adjustment in charges will be made unless the request for withdrawal is received in the graduate school office 30 days after the last class attendance. Adjustments will not include non-refundable fees or charges.

Classification

The classification of a student depends on the number of semester hours of credit he or she has received.

Freshmen are students with 27 or fewer semester hours of credit.

Sophomores are students with 28-59 semester hours of credit.

Juniors are students with 60-92 semester hours of credit.

Seniors are students with more than 92 semester hours of credit.

Academic Status

Academic status for a student is denoted as follows:

1. Good standing
2. Academic warning
3. Academic probation
4. Academic suspension

Good Standing

A student is in “good standing” if his or her cumulative grade point average is 2.00 or above.

Academic Warning

The status of “academic warning” indicates that a student has a cumulative grade point average of less than 2.00, but that his or her grade point deficiency is not sufficient to warrant his or her being placed on academic probation.

Academic Probation

A student who is placed on “academic probation” may not take more than twelve semester hours of course work. Students on academic probation are expected to confer regularly with their academic adviser and are encouraged to participate in the Educational Skills Development Laboratory.

Academic Suspension

A student who is placed on “academic suspension” may apply for readmission after one calendar year. However, if there are extenuating circumstances associated with his or her academic deficiency, the student may appeal to the Retention Review Committee for reinstatement the following semester. The appeal must be in writing and should be sent to Dean Fay J. Reubush, secretary of the committee. Students will not receive credit for work during the period of suspension.

Retention

The retention policy of James Madison University is a corollary of the university's policies and procedures for academic admission and progression. The policy for retention applies to students who have registered or paid. Questions concerning retention should be directed to the Office of the Dean of Students, Alumnae Hall.
Retention

The retention policy defines the minimum scholarship requirement for good standing and permission to enroll in a subsequent semester.

1. Quality point deficiency is twice the number of semester hours attempted at James Madison minus the number of quality points earned at the University.

2. A student is subject to suspension if fewer than six semester hours are passed in any semester.

3. If a student is on academic probation for two successive semesters, he or she is not eligible to return the following semester unless probation has been removed prior to the beginning of the semester.

4. A student who is placed on academic suspension may apply for readmission after one calendar year and must have his or her record reviewed before admission is granted.

5. Retention standards are the same for transfer students as any other student except that semester hours include all semester hours accepted for transfer credit.

Grade Appeal Procedure

A student who wishes to appeal a grade or retain an "I" beyond one semester must follow the steps of this procedure in the order listed:

1. Confer with the faculty member. The student should state at this conference the reason or reasons he or she feels a change of grade is warranted. At this meeting the faculty member has the obligation to explain to the student the basis for determining the grade which the student was awarded. If the faculty member does not feel that a change of grade is warranted, the student may appeal to the:
   a. Head of the department in which the course is offered.
   b. Dean of the school in which the course is offered.
   c. Vice president for academic affairs.

2. A student who wishes to take advantage of these services may do so. The University provides professional staff for students who need assistance in improving basic academic skills which might be influencing their ability to do satisfactory work in their course assignments. Any student who wishes to take advantage of these services may do so. Students may also be referred to a laboratory on a voluntary basis by any professor, academic adviser, or the Counseling and Student Development Center. There is no charge for these services. Attendance is always voluntary.
Educational Skills Development Laboratory: The Educational Skills Development Laboratory provides an opportunity for the student to examine those study habits and attitudes which may be influencing his or her college life. The coordinator of the laboratory diagnoses and evaluates the student's academic concerns and refers each student to group or individual work in such areas as listening, note-taking, test-taking, reading, and comprehension. An attempt is also made to provide tutors for students experiencing difficulty in specific academic areas. The lab is open to students enrolled in 9 or more hours.

The Writing Laboratory. The University expects students to demonstrate a satisfactory level of proficiency in the writing of English. For those who show deficiencies in writing ability or English proficiency, the University has provided a Writing Lab where individualized assistance is available to improve these skills. The Writing Lab is also available to students who wish help in such areas as writing resumes, building vocabulary and grammar skills, and preparing for graduate or professional school examinations.

The Reading Center. The Reading Center provides diagnostic services for students who are having difficulty with their reading. A course in reading efficiency is offered through the Elementary and Early Childhood Department to assist students who wish to improve their reading efficiency. Independent study materials in reading efficiency are also available at the Reading Center.

The Reading and Writing Support Labs for Freshman English. In addition to the writing laboratory available to all students, a special program coordinated with the freshman English classes provides individual assistance for those freshmen identified as having below average ability or preparation in reading and/or writing.

Transcript

The transcript of a student's permanent academic course record is released by the records office only upon the written request of the student or former student and for authorized research purposes. The transcript is the official record of grades earned to date and includes the date of graduation, degree received, and date of withdrawal or dismissal. Official transcripts with the University seal attached are not released directly to the student, but are mailed directly to another college or authorized agency. The first transcript is sent without charge. For subsequent copies the fee is $2 for one transcript. If a request is for two or more copies to the same address, the fee is $2 for the first copy and 50¢ for each additional copy. Payment must accompany the request.

Regulations Regarding Transfer of Credit from Other Institutions

A student wishing to earn credits at another institution, either in the summer or during a regular session, must obtain permission in advance from the records office. The records office will make the determination concerning the course and its application toward a James Madison University degree following consultation with the head of the department, if necessary. The student is responsible for having an official transcript mailed to the admissions office when the work has been completed.

Student Grievance Procedure

1. Every department will have an advisory committee made up of faculty and students that will hear grievances and potential grievances, examine all materials relating to the issue, and make recommendations to the department head. The Curriculum and Instruction Committee can serve this function or a special committee can be established.

2. The student component of the committee will have hearings and listen to students with complaints. After making the complaint, the student has anonymity from that point.

3. The student component will take the complaints back to the whole committee.
where the complaint or problem will be discussed.

4. The professor will then be informed of the complaint by the department head or the committee and asked to respond to it.

5. If not corrected, the problem will be given to the academic dean for disposition.

Cashiers

The University Cashiers are located on the first floor of Wilson Hall, adjacent to Room 101. Operating hours are 8:30 a.m.—12:00 noon and 1:00 p.m.—3:30 p.m. Monday through Friday. These cashiers accept room, board, tuition and other fee payments and disburse student financial aid checks.

Payment of Fees

All fees and expenses are to be paid prior to the beginning of each semester. No student having unpaid fees or fines due for a previous session will be permitted to register until they are paid in full.

Tuition and fees and their payment due dates are listed in the general and graduate catalogs for each academic year. Specific payment procedures are addressed in the Schedule of Classes published for each semester.

Returned Checks

Checks returned unpaid because of insufficient funds or for any other reason are considered a serious matter by the University.

The student whose account was credited will be notified that the check has been returned. Returned checks must be redeemed at the cashier’s window in Wilson Hall, with cash, cashier’s check, or money order by the due date on the notice sent to the student. Personal checks are not acceptable for the redemption of a returned check.

Failure to redeem a returned check by the due date may result in the loss of check cashing privileges at the University, suspension from participation in dining hall services, or, if the check is for tuition and fees, forced withdrawal from the University.

The student withdrawing under these circumstances will be liable for all costs which cannot be refunded in accordance with the refund policy as stated in the “Tuition and Fees” section of the General Catalog. Those charges will remain on the student’s account and must be paid before authorization to register can be given or a transcript or diploma issued.

If three checks are returned unpaid, the student may be required to pay future tuition and fees by cash, cashier’s check, or money order.

Delinquent Accounts

All unpaid bills are subject to the following regulations enacted by the Board of Visitors of James Madison University which require (1) that no credit for University work may be given to any student for a diploma, or a teacher’s certificate, or for transfer purposes, until all debts to the University, other than student loans, have been paid; (2) that students will not be eligible for readmission unless accounts are paid in full for the current session; and (3) that upon recommendation of the vice president for business affairs and with the approval of the vice president for academic affairs, students who are deficient in their accounts may be restricted from attending classes until satisfactory arrangements have been made for payment of their past due obligations to the University.

Refunds
Refunds are authorized during the periods and in the amounts specified in the general and graduate catalogs for each academic year.

Refunds are calculated from the date on which withdrawal from the University is officially approved by the Office of the Dean of Students.

Students who withdraw due to illness certified by a physician, or for unavoidable emergency or extenuating circumstances approved by the vice president for business affairs will be refunded a pro rata share of all fees. The dates for determining pro rata refunds will be those stated in the University calendar for the opening of the dining and residence halls.

Students whose connection with the University terminates because of disciplinary action or enforced withdrawal will receive a pro rata refund of all fees except for room.

No adjustment in the charge for room and board will be made for late entries of 10 days or less or for absences of less than 14 days, except in the case of hospital confinement where adjustment is made for absences of seven days or longer.

Campus Banking Facility: The Virginia National Bank operates a full service branch bank on the campus. The University urges students to make use of this service rather than risk the loss of funds.

Virginia Status Classification
All initial determinations concerning classifications of in-state and out-of-state students for the purpose of paying fees are made by the admitting office. It is the student's responsibility to notify the comptroller of the University if the facts used in the initial determination change. It is important that the student make this notification as soon as possible since charges for out-of-state tuition are retroactive to the date reduced tuition charges were no longer applicable. Questions regarding residency status or appeal procedures should be directed to the comptroller.

Guidelines used by the University are furnished by the Office of the Attorney General of Virginia as established in the Code of Virginia, Section 23-7 as follows:

"No person in attendance at a state institution of higher education shall be entitled to reduced tuition charges, unless such person is and has been domiciled in Virginia for a period of at least one year immediately prior to the commencement of the term, semester or quarter for which any such reduced tuition charge is sought.

A person who enrolls in any such institution while not domiciled in Virginia does not become entitled to reduced tuition charges by mere presence or residence in Virginia. In order to become so entitled, any such person must establish that, one year before the date of alleged entitlement, he or she had abandoned his or her old domicile and was present in Virginia with the unqualified intention of remaining in Virginia for the period immediately following his or her old domicile and was present in Virginia with the unqualified intention of remaining in Virginia for the period immediately thereafter.

Entitlement to reduced tuition charges must be established by convincing evidence and the burden of establishing entitlement shall be on the person claiming such entitlement."

Evidence of intent to establish a Virginia domicile may include, but is not limited to, voting registration, actual voting, payment of taxes, permanent residence, membership in organizations, summer employment, vehicle registration and operators license.

From 7:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday, during the school session, parking on campus is limited to registered vehicles displaying a University parking decal. Physically handicapped, commuting students, and resident seniors, juniors, and sophomores in good standing may register a vehicle in that order of priority on a space available basis. All visitors who park on campus (7:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday) are required to obtain a visitor parking permit at the Campus Police Office. There will be no fee for this permit.

James Madison University Food Services serves the entire University community through its four divisions: the Contract Dining Division, Duke’s Grill, the Office of Special Events (catering), and the Vending and Concessions Division. Food Services is a department within the University’s Division of Business Affairs and it is entirely supported by revenues received from boarding students and other customers.

The Contract Dining Division is the largest of Food Services’ divisions, responsible for providing meals to the University’s more than 5,000 dining contract—or boarding—students. Most of these students are served daily in the dining rooms of Gibbons Hall, but the Contract Dining Division also arranges with Duke’s Grill in the Warren Campus Center and Salads Plus in Chandler Hall to allow students to eat many meals at those two alternate locations. Contract dining students are admitted to the use of campus camps, conference functions as a cate...
Duke's Grill, located on the top floor of Warren Campus Center, is a fast-food restaurant open to the campus community. The grill is a popular eating and gathering spot for students and other members of the University community. During certain hours, students with dining contracts may choose to eat in Duke's Grill in lieu of going to the dining hall; upon presenting a valid University dining ID to the cashier, a specified cash credit is subtracted from the amount of the purchase. For further information, contact Joseph M. Erickson, Duke's Grill Manager, Tel. 6237.

The Office of Special Events arranges for the use of campus facilities for seminars, camps, conferences, and other events, and it functions as a catering service for University groups desiring formal dinners, refreshment breaks, banquets, picnics and a number of other affairs. The Office of Special Events also operates Salads Plus, an alternate lunch spot to which contract dining students may be admitted by presenting their University Dining ID. Furthermore, the office will rent food service equipment, such as tablecloths, dishes, punch bowls, platters, etc., on an availability basis to members of the University community. Although most of the Office of Special Events' business is with summer conference groups or catering staff and faculty functions, student customers are also welcome. The office is glad to give free advice to student groups arranging their own picnics, dances and other social activities. For information, contact R. Neil Vining, Coordinator of Special Events, Chandler Hall, Room G-16, Tel. 6637.

The Vending and Concessions Division, headquartered under the Grafton-Stovall Theatre, is responsible for most of the vending machines on campus, including the coin-operated washers and dryers in the residence halls. This division also operates the concession stands in Godwin Hall and at the football field as well as a concessions truck for other locations. For information, contact Don H. Blume, Vending and Concessions Division Manager, Warren Campus Center, Tel. 6745.

Meal Plans

With the exception of a few students who live in University apartments equipped with kitchens, all students living in University residence halls have 20 meal/week plans automatically included with their housing contracts.

However, since dining contracts can be cost effective and convenient for busy college students, it is the policy of Food Service to allow full-time, off campus students to also purchase contracts if they wish. In fact, Food Service offers a variety of contracts to off campus students so they may select a meal plan to suit their individual living arrangements.

These plans include the same 20 meal plan, at the same price, held by residence hall students. There are also plans providing any two meals per day seven days per week and plans for any three, two or one meals per day Monday-Friday. All of the meal plans offer significant savings on meals compared with retail prices and even, in most cases, compared with cooking at home.

There is also a declining balance contract known as Food From Home which provides students with greater purchasing power and security for their food money as well as the ability to pay as they go for meals. (On campus students desiring a convenient way to handle snack money may also open Food
From Home accounts in addition to their 20 meal plans.)

For information about the various meal plans, contact Rebecca L. Hinkle, Food Services Accountant, Gibbons Hall Entrance 7, Tel. 6446.

University ID Cards

Food Services is responsible for issuing University identification cards to all members of the University community. The ID is the property of James Madison University and must be surrendered to authorized University officials on demand and returned on withdrawal. Students are required to present picture identification and proof of age when obtaining their cards and may use their IDs in connection with admission to athletic events, bookstore business, concerts, library services and a number of other University matters. ID cards held by contract dining students are computer encoded to allow admission to meals. Students should carry ID cards with them always and carefully protect them against loss, theft or damage.

Worn out IDs will be replaced free by Food Services, but IDs which have been lost, stolen, or damaged by having holes punched in them or other abuse must be replaced at student expense. The fee is $8 for each replacement, price subject to change without notice.

University ID cards are non-transferrable, and students loaning IDs or attempting to use the ID of another may be charged with unauthorized use of a University document, a violation of University policy.

Questions concerning ID cards may be directed to Rebecca L. Hinkle, Food Services Accountant, Gibbons Hall Entrance 7, Tel. 6446.

Dining Hall Regulations

The dining contract obligates the University to provide meals for the contract holder in Gibbons Hall during established meal hours while the University is officially in session. To exercise the contract and be admitted to meals, the contract holder is obligated to present his or her properly validated University ID at the dining hall door. No refunds will be made for meals missed due to failure to present an operable ID card.

With the exception of a very few menu items, all customers at Gibbons Hall and Salads Plus in Chandler Hall are welcome to unlimited seconds. However, no food, drink or other property of Food Service may be taken from the dining premises, and the benefits of an individual dining contract may not be transferred from one person to another.

As a convenience to customers and, especially, so that customers may safeguard their personal belongings from theft, JMU Food Services allows all customers to freely carry coats, book bags, pocketbooks, knapsacks and other belongings into dining areas. However, in allowing this, Food Service reserves the right to search such belongings for articles illicitly being brought into or taken out of dining facilities. Persons who object to having their belongings searched should refrain from bringing them into dining facilities.

Solicitations and sales are not allowed in Food Services facilities, nor is any form of advertising except that relevant to the business of Food Services. However, announcements may be printed free of charge in the dining hall's weekly Digest on a space available basis.

Entrances to and exits from the dining facilities must be made via designated doorways. The use of employee, emergency, or other non-customers entrances is prohibited.

Food Services officials are responsible for maintaining the decorum and integrity of all food operations. Where discipline problems with customers arise, Food Services management may refer a student to the University Judicial Council or take administrative action by levying a charge for certain offenses. The schedule of these charges is as follows:

- $15 charge - 1) Loaning a University ID to another person.
- 2) Attempting to use or possessing the University ID of another person.
- 3) Using false pretenses in an attempt to illicitly gain good services.
- 4) Using a false ID at the dining hall.
- 5) Attempting to use or possess a University ID of another person.
- 6) Loaning a University ID to another person.
- 7) Discourteous behavior or other abuse of the benefits of an individual dining contract.
illicitly gain goods or services from Food Services. 4) Using an improper entrance or exit. 5) Attempting to remove food, drink or materials belonging to Food Service from the dining premises (concealment of such goods in clothing or other personal belongings is considered an attempt to remove). 6) Refusal to comply with a reasonable request by a Food Service official (a request to search personal belongings is considered a reasonable request). 7) Disorderly conduct. 8) Damaging Food Service facilities, equipment or property (plus cost of damages, $1 minimum assessment). 9) Bringing alcoholic beverages into a Food Service facility (plus confiscation of beverage).

$25 Charge - 1) Refusal to present a University ID upon request by a Food Service official. 2) Throwing food, paper or other “soft materials” (the throwing of dishes, silverware or other hard and potentially dangerous materials will automatically be referred to the University Judicial Council).

Appeals to any of the above-levied charges may be made to the contract dining manager. If not satisfactorily resolved at that level, written appeal may be made to the director of Food Services.

Office of Career Planning and Placement
Alumnae Hall, Room 208

Thomas A. Nardi
Director
Edgar F. Wilkerson
Assistant Director
Glenda Rooney
Assistant Director

The Office of Career Planning and Placement, located on the second floor of Alumnae Hall, aids students at various stages of the career exploration and job search process. Students can receive assistance in defining their career objectives, finding out about the current job market, and learning how to conduct a job-seeking campaign. The office also serves as a central point where seniors may file placement credentials and have them mailed to prospective employers.

Services of the Office

Career Library: The placement career library is designed to make available pertinent resources for career planning and choice, employer literature, manpower trends, employer directories and other placement related information. The library is color-coded for easy reference and organized on a self-help basis so that students and faculty may browse at their leisure. Samples of resumes and cover letters are on file for student use, and tapes are available on various aspects of the job search process. Staff members are readily accessible to answer questions and help students utilize these materials.

On-Campus Recruitment: Each year business, industry, government, armed forces and educational systems send representatives to the campus to conduct job interviews with graduating seniors. This service provides students with the opportunity to meet and talk with a number of employers and to explore a number of job opportunities.

In order to help students prepare for these interviews, many job search-oriented workshops are held throughout the year. Sessions covering topics such as how to prepare for an interview, write a resume, or fill out an employment application are very popular. Also, the professional staff members are available to talk with clubs and organizations regarding many other career planning and placement related topics.

Special Career Programs: Each year, the Office of Career Planning and Placement sponsors a career day program to give students the opportunity to explore many vocational areas of their choice. Nearly 100 representatives from a wide range of occupations in business, industry, government, science and education participate as career consultants and talk informally with students about vocational possibilities in their career area.

Job Referral: Job vacancies are advertised on bulletin boards in the office lobby and in the career library. Vacancy bulletins are periodically mailed to students who are registered with the office. Registration involves filling out a placement file. This allows seniors to participate in the on-campus interview program and to establish credentials which can be sent without charge to prospective employers upon request. Placement files are retained in the office for five years from the registrant's date of graduation or five years from the last date of active use.

Career Counseling: Professional career counselors are available on an appointment or drop-in basis to discuss vocational objectives relating to the educational background and experiences of the individual student. Assistance will also be given to any student wishing information on the current employment outlook, places of employment, employer contact and the use of the career library.

The staff hopes that students will take maximum advantage of the materials and resources available to them in this office. All services are intended to supplement the efforts of students as they develop their own career alternatives and do not replace the student's own personal search for employ-
Student Affairs

Alumnae Hall, Room 107
Tel. No. 433-6226

The mission of the division of student affairs at James Madison University is to advance the educational purpose of the University by promoting the various goals of the University and by providing a supportive yet challenging environment so that maximum development of the academic, interpersonal, identity, and value needs of the student is accomplished. This mission is accomplished by providing consultation, instruction, and a stimulating environment for students and by assisting faculty, staff, and members of the community at large in understanding the needs of students.

The division of student affairs bridges the academic and non-academic areas of the student experience by providing experiential learning opportunities, personal growth opportunities and developmental programs; by coordinating extracurricular, problem solving, and decision making experiences; and by responding, in general, to the goals and needs of students. Professional staff of the division of student affairs function as educators in the development of the student as a whole person permitting students the freedom to identify options and make choices within defined boundaries of behavior.

The University experience offers a unique opportunity for students as individuals to grow academically, to gain new skills, to test values and to expand their perspective. The Office of the Dean of Students is dedicated to helping students discover and integrate the many phases of life at James Madison University. The staff is available from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. to assist students by interpreting University policy, citing available resources, clarifying values, resolving conflict and providing a variety of services.

The dean of students and his staff also work with students in all areas of University governance, coordinating the operation of the University judicial system, advising fraternities and sororities, implementing student withdrawals from the University, identifying the needs of students, and maintaining student personnel records.
Ombudsman. In an effort to improve communication, speed up solutions to problems, and quickly find answers to student questions, President Carrier has authorized the dean of students to act as University ombudsman "to by-pass the normal administrative channels". The ombudsman will deal with practically any problem or question a student may encounter involving University life. To find solutions, the ombudsman is able to go directly to anyone in the University community who can deal effectively with the problem.

For example, while the ombudsman cannot directly assist in the raising of a grade, he can advise a student of the proper procedure for appealing a course grade. Typical matters students have brought to the ombudsman involve phones, library fines, food service, class absence, finances, records and personal emergencies. The dean of students and his staff also assist students wishing assistance or guidance in pursuing a complaint of sexual harassment. The ombudsman’s office is located in Alumnae 104 and is open 8:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday. The telephone number is 433-6218.

General Information and Assistance. The dean of students provides general information and assistance to students, including advisement regarding their rights and responsibilities. Referrals are made to professional staff members within the student affairs division and, when appropriate, to other University or community agencies.

The dean of students is also responsible for maintaining student personnel files and implementing projects designed to meet emerging student needs or concerns.

University Governance. The dean of students encourages active participation in campus life. Through the S.G.A., Honor Council and various other organizations, students have the opportunity to participate in decision-making, to develop leadership skills, and to work with other faculty, students and administrators towards the improvement of the community. Dean of Students staff are available to help student leaders direct concerns through appropriate channels and to provide an institutional perspective.

University Judicial System. A member of the staff coordinates the University judicial system to ensure that all students are treated in a fair and consistent manner. Each student who is charged with violation of a University policy confers with the University or student judicial coordinator who will interpret the situation and inform the student of the appropriate judicial procedure. This staff member also trains members of the judicial boards, works with residence hall staff members on disciplinary concerns and provides advice relating to legal concerns of students.

Minority Student Affairs. The Office of Minority Student Affairs is responsible for assessing the needs of minority students and for coordinating services and programs designed to meet these needs. Any student who wishes to know more about these services or programs should contact the coordinator of minority student affairs.

Fraternities and Sororities. The office of the dean of students not only advises the Interfraternity Council and Panhellenic Councils, but also provides assistance to all Greeks on campus. Some typical areas of involvement are helping individual chapters, encouraging Greek leadership on campus and interpreting University policies.

Commuter Student Services. The Office of the Dean of Students is responsible for assessing the needs of commuter students and for coordinating services and programs designed to meet those needs. The commuter student committee is composed of off-campus students interested in developing programs and identifying special needs of non-residential students. Any commuter student having landlord-tenant difficulties, parking problems or other concerns should contact the coordinator for commuter student services or the office of the dean of students. New and returning commuter students may also receive assistance in locating off-campus housing or roommates by writing or visiting the office in Alumae Hall.
Assistance with Withdrawals from the University. Any student who is considering withdrawing from the University, should contact the Office of the Dean of the Students to gain a perspective on the personal, financial and academic implications of such a decision. A staff member will provide factual information as well as aid in the decision-making process. If a student should need additional help, a referral will be made. Upon deciding to withdraw, a staff member will help work out the administrative details.

Assistance with Readmission to the University. A student who withdraws for extenuating circumstances or medical reasons may be asked to provide written verification of therapeutic treatment or corrective intervention during their absence from the University. This verification shall be provided by the professional staff person or the physician initiating the withdrawal. This clearance procedure must be completed 30 days prior to enrollment for the semester in which the student wishes to return.

Short Term Loan. Supported by money from the Student Government Association, the Office of the Dean of Students lends small amounts of money to any currently enrolled student for a 30-day period. Additional information about this loan can be obtained in Alumnae Hall, Room 106.

The Counseling and Student Development Center exists to serve students at those times when:

1. Friends can't help because they are too personally involved or are part of the problem itself.
2. Parents are too far away or might not understand.
3. Major changes are being considered in your personal, academic or vocational life plans.
4. You need a trained, more objective person to help resolve some immediate concern.
5. You want to grow and deal with new decisions more effectively.
6. You feel cut off and isolated and need someone to hear you and to care about you.

As professionals trained in human development, we are aware that the university years are times of growth, change and major transition that often bring with them matters that are not easily and quickly settled.

Like most other students, you may at one time or another find yourself confronted with very real questions involving who you are, what you are doing and why, your relationships with other people, fields of study and future occupations, and lifetime goals. Talking about these concerns with people like us who will keep them confidential and who are trained to help people answer these questions can be both helpful and productive.

We see counseling as an educational process in which you can learn to think more clearly about yourself and understand yourself more fully. Our goal is to contribute to your maturity and independence and not necessarily to give advice for an immediate solution. We want to work with you, not take over for you.

The Counseling and Student Development Center is located in Alumnae Hall, Room 200, and may be reached by telephone by calling 433-6552.

Additional Services:
1. Educational Skills Development Program
   The study skills program provides an opportunity for you to examine the study habits and attitudes that may be influencing your university life. Like many other students, you may want to improve such skills as organizing time, listening and taking lecture notes, reading to remember, test preparation and test-taking. To do so, you may work in the lab on an individual basis or become part of a study skills group. Contact the Counseling and Student Development Center for more information.

2. Vocational Development

During their college years, many students encounter difficulties in selecting a major or a career. This decision-making process is an important part of life planning. The Counseling and Student Development Center can help you explore your personal and professional values and interests and explore how they relate to specific careers. Often vocational testing is a useful part of this process, although it is not the only part. Life planning is an on-going process, and it takes time to find a satisfactory career. An informed decision on your part can increase your chances of selecting a rewarding career.

3. Walk-In Service

Normally, you would be seen at the Counseling and Student Development Center on an appointment basis. However, between 3 p.m. and 5 p.m. Monday through Thursday you may come to Alumnae 200 and be seen on a walk-in basis as soon as possible without making an appointment.

4. Tutoring Program

The tutoring program offers you an opportunity to examine any difficulty you are having with a particular course. You can receive tutoring from a qualified student who is knowledgeable in the subject matter. You are encouraged to talk with your professor before signing up for tutoring to determine if tutoring is appropriate. If your professor recommends tutoring, come by the center to sign up and for additional information.

5. Listening Ear

The Counseling and Student Development Center sponsors a "hot line" to Listening Ear for use at those times when the center is not open. The telephone number is 6444 and may be reached by all campus phones on the Centrex system without dialing the 433 prefix.

6. Outreach Services

Counseling and Student Development Center staff members are available to lead workshops or give presentations on relationships, wellness, human sexuality, interpersonal communication and other topics in mental health. These presentations are usually made to groups of residence hall students, classes, or other interested students.

7. Special Groups

The Counseling and Student Development Center also serves as a support and referral agency for individuals or groups with special needs, such as minority groups, persons with handicaps, commuter and transfer students, and others, as needed.

University Health Center

Dr. Walter F. Green, III, Director
University Health Center
Tel. No. 433-6177

The University Health Center provides short-term care, treatment for minor illnesses, and emergency services which a student may require. The services of the Center are not intended to replace those of a family physician nor to treat chronic or serious medical problems. The health center provides supplementary medical care while students are away from their family physician.

The medical staff includes physicians who specialize in orthopedics, general surgery, gynecology and psychiatry. A physical therapist is also available to help with specific medical problems. In addition, registered nurses are on duty 24 hours daily to... receive students and assist the physicians.

Regularly scheduled out-patient screening clinics are conducted by the nursing staff. Students are received at the health center on a first-come, first-served basis. Those students who wish to see a physician may wait in the adjacent lounge. The waiting period is as unpredictable as in any personal physician’s office.

Upon arrival at the health center, each individual is asked to register by name and wait in the adjacent lounge. The waiting period is as unpredictable as in any personal physician’s office.

In addition to the out-patient screening clinic, short-term in-patient care is also provided. Meals and clean linens are provided in addition to health care and visitors are permitted during the hours from 8:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.

The services of the health center are available to all students taking seven or more hours, including commuting as well as residential students. These services do not include the cost of prescriptions, private nursing, hospital care, surgical operations, or services of specialists not on the University staff. Supplementary medical care includes an option of extended gynecological services paid for directly by the recipients of the medical service.

In the event of a more serious illness or accident, the health center is able to make special arrangements with Rockingham Memorial Hospital for your treatment. Any student anticipating hospitalization must first report to the health center where the attending nurse will offer prompt assistance.

It is recommended that students carry health and accident insurance. This coverage may be through a family or military policy or the group policy available to James Madison University students at an additional cost. The health fee does not include insurance coverage. The staff of the health center will assist you with completion of the health claim forms.

The health center maintains a file on each student. These files contain the student’s medical history and a report of a medical examination. Medical examinations, recorded on forms provided by the University, are required before the student enters the University and before the third year of attendance.

Tel. No. 433-6671

The Office of Residence Life seeks to serve a combination of diverse student groups, but the element common to each service is a responsibility for the housing of University students, both on and off campus. The primary goal is to provide or assist students in finding a comfortable living unit, compatible with their lifestyle, interests and educational needs. With respect to residence halls, the office is particularly concerned with developing community within each hall and providing each resident with a variety of opportunities for personal growth and learning. The office is also interested in implementing services and programs which meet the specific needs of commuting students and which provide ample opportunities for commuters to be actively involved in University life.
Residence Hall Organization and Staff

The Office of Residence Life operates 26 residence halls and seven apartment buildings which house approximately 5,000 students. In order to facilitate communication and improve overall residence hall management, the campus is divided into three separate geographical areas, each with a professional administrative staff member who is responsible for the total operation and program of all halls within that area. In addition to several other duties, the assistant director is responsible for selecting, training and supervising the residence hall staff; developing, implementing and interpreting residence hall policy; and facilitating the development of individual residence hall programming, hall councils, area activities and projects.

Within each residence hall, the head resident is responsible for the management of the building, supervision of the resident adviser staff, and development of hall programs and procedures that meet student needs. The resident advisers, one per floor or section, provide information, counseling and programming for residents. Additionally, these staff members have been trained to deal with emergency situations, to protect individual and institutional rights through the enforcement of University policies, and to assume the administrative responsibilities of a residence hall. The goal of the professional and student staff is to develop residential living environments that will promote close interpersonal relationships, individual growth and learning, and a strong sense of community responsibility and identity.

Room Assignments and Lifestyles

There are differences in age, experience and values among residence hall students; therefore, the University has developed a differentiated housing system of lifestyle options that permit students to choose a living environment in which they will feel most comfortable. There are seven different lifestyle options that define the use of alcohol within a building and the number of days per week during which visitation by members of the opposite sex is permitted. Upperclassmen select their residence hall room and lifestyle option for the upcoming academic year in April during spring sign-up. New freshmen receive information on lifestyle options in May and are assigned to available rooms based on one of their chosen lifestyle preferences.

During the academic year, students may request a room or hall change at any time by obtaining a room change request form from their head resident or building supervisor and submitting it to the housing services office in Alumnae Hall. Except in emergency situations, room changes will be processed in the order they are received provided that the desired space is available and all procedures for obtaining the room have been correctly completed.

After these conditions have been met, the student will be issued written authorization to complete the desired move. Room changes cannot be made without authorization. Students will be assessed $15 for each unauthorized room change, and must return to their originally assigned room.

Housing Contracts

It is important that all students living in University operated housing during the academic year understand that their housing contract obligates both the student and the University for the full academic year. There are certain limited conditions under which a housing contract can be renegotiated, but these cases are exceptions. Any residence hall student with questions about the contract or who is considering moving off campus during the academic year must see the associate director for housing services in Alumnae Hall.

Residence Hall Councils

The hall council consists of the elected hall officers and floor/section representatives, and works closely with the residence hall staff. Hall councils are actively involved in improving the quality of life within each residence hall through the implementation of social and educational programs which provide opportunities for personal growth, facilitate the development of relationships among hall residents, and promote hall spirit and unity. The presidents of each hall council form the Inter-Hall Council, an organization which enables hall presidents to exchange program ideas, talk with the professional residence hall staff about administrative matters and cooperate on campus-wide activities for the entire residence hall system.

Residence Hall Policies

James Madison University offers a variety of life-styles and living arrangements within the residence halls and apartments. Residential facilities offer students the opportunity to study and live in an environment that meets their educational, social, recreational and personal needs. The following policies and procedures have been developed to ensure the orderly operation of the residence halls, the protection of the educational environment, and the safety of residents.

1. Alcohol Policies

A. Alcohol Use in Residence Hall Rooms and Suites

Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to allow members of the University community the opportunity to make their own choices regarding the use of alcohol by residents or their guests in a private room or suite and to assume full responsibility for such use. The establishment and maintenance of a positive educational environment in University residence halls is of primary importance and this alcohol policy will be continued only so long as this goal is not endangered. This policy has been developed in evolutionary stages reflecting experience with portions of the policy in actual use.

The following regulations govern the use of alcohol in residence hall rooms and suites:

1. Residents' rights to study, sleep and have privacy within their rooms will be maintained. Loud or disruptive behavior, interference with the cleanliness of the residence halls, or drinking habits that otherwise interfere with the rights of others are reasons for disciplinary action. Party sponsors are responsible for the conduct of those who attend their party. Room/suite parties are discouraged during weeknights.

2. Possession or use of liquor or wine by persons under 21 years of age is prohibited. Beer is prohibited for those under 19 years of age.

3. Individual residence hall rooms, private suite lounges and designated party rooms are the only residence hall areas where alcoholic beverages may be consumed. Hallways, reception rooms, unit lounges, meeting rooms and kitchens are not included in the definition of residence hall rooms.

4. The number of people attending the party must be no more than the room or suite can safely accommodate. A maximum number of 30 has been determined for Hillside units. Party sponsors are fully responsible for keeping those attending the party within the room or suite area. Failure to do so will result in immediate administrative or judicial penalties. Parties in rooms or suites are intended to be relatively small parties due to the space available, safety and fire regulations. Party sponsors are expected to use reasonable judgment as to the number of guests at the party at any one time. Residence hall recreation rooms may be reserved for larger parties on the weekends in accordance with the policy on alcohol use in residence hall recreation rooms.

5. The sale of alcoholic beverages in any manner is strictly prohibited in rooms and suites, and therefore the use of the banquet license is not applicable.

6. Financing for the party must be arranged in advance of the 5:00 p.m. party registration deadline. Money or donations cannot be collected during or after the party. Any form of solicitation of funds from the guests by the sponsors of the party constitutes a violation of state Alcoholic Beverage Control Board (A.B.C.) regulations.

7. Advertisement of room or suite parties is prohibited.

8. Only a one-quarter keg container of beer is allowed to be on tap at a time. During an entire evening, up to two quarter keg containers of beer are allowed for a suite party. Absolutely no half kegs (16 gallons) are permitted at any time and if found are subject to immediate confiscation. Keg containers of beer are not permitted in Hillside units.

9. Grain alcohol parties are prohibited.

10. Containers of alcohol which are to be transported through public areas must be unopened.

11. Parties may not begin before 4:00 p.m. and must end no later than closing time of the hall.

12. All parties involving 10 or more people in a single room (12 or more in Hillside units, 15 or more in a Chandler Hall or a village area suite) where alcohol is present for consumption must be registered prior to the party but no later than 5:00 p.m. on the day of the scheduled activity. Failure to register a party will result in an automatic $25 fine for each room or suite resident in addition to other possible judicial action. Parties will be registered by the hall staff on a first-come, first-served basis according to the listing below. If, based on past experience, prior advertising, or other mitigating circumstances, the assistant director and head resident have reason to believe a maximum number of the requested parties might create a control problem, the maximum number of parties permitted may be reduced for a specific evening or weekend. No parties may be scheduled between the weekend prior to final exams and the closing of the residence halls.

These limits have been established based on architectural differences between halls, room and suite sizes, life-styles, and other factors. These limits are intended to reduce the possibility of uncontrollable situations resulting from an excessive number of parties being scheduled on the same floor on the same night.

13. Uninvited guests ("party crashers") should be asked to leave the party by the party sponsors. If this request is not sufficient, the party sponsors should immediately notify the residence hall staff for assistance. The uninvited guest may be subject to referral for judicial action as noted above.

14. Violations of the alcohol policy (except in cases involving automatic penalties) will be referred to the University judicial system for disposition in the same manner as all other University and residence hall policies.

15. Inability or unwillingness to control a party or guests, or noncompliance with any provisions of the room and suite alcohol policy on the part of the party sponsors may result in one or more of the following:

   a. Loss of party registration privilege;
   b. Fines up to $50 per sponsor;
   c. Referral for judicial action as noted above; or
   d. Termination of housing contract.

Student Sponsor
Responsibilities

This alcohol policy is based on the assumption that University students are responsible adults and will assume appropriate responsibilities associated with the privileges inherent in this policy. Specific responsibilities of the party are as follows:

   1. Student sponsors are required to register all alcohol-related activities that involve 10 or more people (12 or more in Hillside units, 15 or more in a Chandler or Village Area suite). Party registration forms must be turned in to a member of the residence hall staff no later than 5:00 p.m. on the day of the activity.

   2. Student sponsors are responsible for controlling the transportation of containers of alcohol through public areas. Containers must be unopened in public areas.

   3. Student sponsors are responsible for controlling drinking in public areas.

   4. Student sponsors are responsible for registering all alcohol-related activities that involve 1 or more people in one or more in Hillside units, 15 or more in a Chandler or Village Area suite). Party registration forms must be turned in to a member of the residence hall
      staff no later than 5:00 p.m. on the day of the activity.

   5. Student sponsors accept full financial responsibility for all damage or theft occurring as a direct result of the party except when specific individuals are identified and accept responsibility for the damage or theft.
This includes damage or soiling of areas such as hallways and stairwells which provide access to the party.

6. Student sponsors must insure that areas adjacent to the party area, as determined by resident advisers and head residents, will be cleaned up no later than 11:00 a.m. on the day following the party. If, as a direct result of coming to or leaving the party, guests have soiled other areas such as the lobby, the yard, or access hallways, the student sponsors are responsible for cleaning those areas also.

7. Student sponsors are expected to limit the number of guests invited, taking into consideration room or suite size, fire and safety regulations, and the University's practice of allowing only one quarter keg in use at any one time.

It is recommended that the number of students present at a room party not exceed 30 and that the number of students at a suite party not exceed 60. A maximum number of 30 has been determined for Hillside units.

8. Student sponsors are expected to maintain control over their party at all times and to immediately seek assistance from the residence hall staff if difficulties are encountered beyond their control (party "crashers" that refuse to leave, etc.). Contacting a residence hall staff member in the event of a problem does not, however, relieve the party hosts of primary responsibility for control of the party and all attending guests.

9. Student sponsors are encouraged, though not required, to use a guest list in the foyer or hall entrance to discourage uninvited guests from reaching the party.

10. Student sponsors are responsible for insuring that the rights and privileges of all the residents of the residence hall are not threatened or abused by party guests.

Residence Hall Staff Responsibilities

The major responsibility for the planning and control of a party lies in the hands of the students sponsoring or attending the activity. Residence hall staff should need to play only a minimal role in the control of any party taking place under the provisions of this policy.

1. The head resident is responsible for meeting with all sponsors prior to an activity in order to clearly explain the responsibilities and expectations of the party sponsors and answer any questions regarding interpretation of this policy.

2. The residence hall staff member on duty is responsible for routinely checking on the party during the course of normal building duty tours and for noting any damage observed in the party area prior to the hall closing hours.

3. If a residence hall staff member observes a violation of any residence hall or University policy, he or she may bring the violation to the attention of one of the party hosts and ask them to correct the problem or make sure it is not repeated. If the party sponsors take no action or if they are unable to correct the violation or prevent recurrence, the staff member may deal directly with the violation, and, if necessary, stop the party. In extreme cases, the University police may be called for assistance.

4. Residence hall staff are responsible for checking the party during the last duty tour, noting any damage observed at that time, and filing an incident report on any scheduled party in which significant problems have been encountered.
B. Alcohol Use in Residence Hall Recreation Rooms

Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to permit residence hall students the opportunity to reserve and use a designated public recreation area in their hall for a private party or social activity at which beer and non-alcoholic beverages may be served. The acquisition of public residence halls for such purposes rests on the following suppositions:

1. Social activities carried out in accordance with this policy will benefit both individuals and groups within the hall and lead to increased interaction among residents and a greater sense of community within the hall.

2. Students hosting such an activity will assume total responsibility for the planning and conduct of the party including the behavior of all guests, and willingly agree to be fully accountable for the results of such an activity.

3. The implementation of this policy will not have a significant negative impact on the educational environment of the residence hall, the physical condition of the building, or the role and responsibilities of the residence hall staff.

Designated Room Location

Each hall council may, with approval of the head resident and assistant director for the area, request designation of a “party room” within each residence hall which permits the consumption of alcohol under its life-style regulations. Study lounges, carpeted areas and public hallways used as fire exit routes from student rooms are specifically excluded from consideration or use as a designated party area. Due to building design and space usage, some residence halls will not have a party area available in the building. Residents of these halls will be given priority in reserving other party areas available on the campus.

Room Reservation Process

1. Four sponsors or hosts are required to reserve the party room.

2. All four sponsors must attend, as a group, a meeting with the head resident and resident adviser. The purpose of the meeting is to request reservations and, if approved, to fully explain the policy, review the responsibilities of the party hosts, and complete the party contract. This meeting must be completed no later than 5 p.m. on the Thursday before the proposed party is to be held or the reservation will not be approved.

Frequency and Timing of Parties

The designated party area will be available for reservation each weekend on Friday and Saturday nights. No parties may be scheduled during the weekends before and after final exams. Parties may not begin before 8:00 p.m. and must end no later than 1:30 a.m. Beer may not be dispensed after 1:00 a.m.

Maximum Party Size

The number of individuals permitted to attend a specific party in a given area shall be determined by the formula presented in the Life Safety Code of National Fire Protection Association. The University safety coordinator, using the Life Safety Code, shall determine the maximum safe occupancy load for each designated party room. The party hosts shall be fully responsible for insuring that the maximum occupancy load is not exceeded at any time during a scheduled private party. Because the party hosts, the residence hall staff and University officials may be held liable or negligent in the event of an accident or death occurring when occupancy of a public room exceeds the maximum safe limit, severe penalties will be imposed on party hosts for failure to control the size of a scheduled party.

The University safety coordinator has determined the maximum safe occupancy load for the following residence hall areas using the guidelines of the Life Safety Code:

Compliance with A.B.C. Commission Regulations

1. A banquet license is required for any party for which admission is charged, tickets sold, donations requested, or any other form of payment made in exchange for an alcoholic beverage. With a banquet license, all of the above activities are legal. Party hosts should allow approximately three weeks to obtain the license, which costs $15. Party sponsors should contact the Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs in Alumnae Hall to obtain the necessary request forms.

2. No banquet license is required for a party at which all refreshments and beverages are provided totally free of charge. Regular hall dues or funds may be used to purchase such refreshments so long as no special or extraordinary collection is made for a particular party or event.

3. Beer is the only alcoholic beverage which may be served.

4. No one under 19 years of age may be served. It is the responsibility of the hosts to insure that no guest under the age of 19 is served or in any way obtains beer at the scheduled activity.

5. No beer may be served after 1:00 a.m. In accordance with A.B.C. regulations, parties with banquet licenses may not serve beer after 12:00 midnight.

Type and Amount of Refreshments Provided

1. Alcoholic beverages other than beer are prohibited. Beer may be provided in keg or can containers. Glass containers are not allowed as a safety precaution.

2. Party sponsors must provide an alternative non-alcoholic beverage (other than water) in an amount equal to one 12-ounce can for every two persons of room capacity. For example, 30 cans of non-alcoholic beverages would be required for a party held in a room with a capacity of 60 persons.

3. Sponsors are encouraged to provide adequate food.

4. Only one half keg (or two quarter kegs) of beer is allowed on tap at any one time.

5. Party hosts are limited to providing a maximum of one half keg of beer (16 gallons) per 30 people expected attendance. Provision of additional beer for a fraction of a group less than 30 must be approved by the head resident and the Office of Residence Halls.

Advertising

Parties may be advertised only within the residence halls.

Student Sponsor Responsibilities

1. Four student sponsors are required to schedule a party and must sign a written party contract and meet with the head resident and resident advisers before a party can take place.

2. Student sponsors are responsible for insuring that all room entrances are supervised and only invited guests are admitted to the party and that the party maximum is not exceeded.

3. Student sponsors must have a written guest list showing first and last names of all invited guests. Guest lists must be available at the door.

4. Student sponsors are responsible for keeping the party under control, and for insuring that all aspects of this policy, state A.B.C. regulations and all other University policies are upheld by party guests during the activity.

5. Student sponsors must insure that no beer is carried by guests outside of the designated party room into other public areas of the residence hall.

6. Student sponsors accept full financial responsibility for all damage or theft occurring as a direct result of the party except when specific individuals are identified and accept responsibility for the damage or theft.

7. Student sponsors are accountable for insuring that the party room and the immediate adjacent areas, as described by the head resident in the meeting before the party, are completely cleaned in accordance with the provisions of this policy no later than 11:00 a.m. on the morning following the activity.

8. Student sponsors should enlist the aid of the residence hall staff member on duty at the onset of any difficulties with guests.

Residence Hall Staff Responsibilities

See residence hall staff responsibilities in the section of this policy concerning alcohol use in residence hall room and suites. (p. 77).

2. Antennas

Outside antennas of any kind on University-operated housing are prohibited.

Students are advised that splicing or connecting to cables and antennas is prohibited by law and could result in arrest as well as restitution for damage.

3. Candles

a. Candles may be burned only if they are securely fastened in a glass or metal holder which prohibits the flame from contacting combustible materials. The holder must be constructed so that it is firmly secured.

b. Students are responsible for extinguishing all candles when the room is not occupied.

c. Students who burn candles improperly are guilty of a violation of University policy and may be referred to the University Judicial Board.

d. Students are responsible for damage or injury resulting from a fire caused by candles.

4. Check-In and Check-Out Procedures

a. Students must check in at the hall office or with their apartment supervisor when moving into their hall or apartment and complete the room or apartment condition forms.

b. Students must turn in room key, sign their condition forms, return front door keys, and have the condition of their room approved as part of their check-out from all University operated housing. This does not apply for students who are leaving their hall or apartment for vacation periods but does include those students who are leaving for their field placement experience or withdrawing from the University. It is the student's responsibility to find a residence hall staff member and make check-out arrangements.

c. Student who move into or out of University housing without completing the proper procedures will be charged a fee of $15.

d. Students will be held responsible for the expenses incurred as a result of returning a room to its original condition.

5. Delivery of Packages
Deliveries made to the residence halls are to be accepted only by the addressee or his or her designee. The University accepts no responsibility for the loss of such deliveries.

6. Electrical Appliances
Because of the hazard of fire and the limits on the amount of electricity that can be safely used on any given electrical unit and the limited number of outlets in some halls, the following policies have been established by the Harrisonburg fire marshall and the Campus Police and Safety Office.

a. Hot plates, space heaters, soup warmers and other appliances with an open heating element, and air conditioners are prohibited in student rooms. One refrigerator, no larger than 2.2 cubic feet, is permitted per room.

b. Heavy drawing appliances such as hair dryers, electric irons, televisions and refrigerators are to be plugged directly into outlets, not multiple plug attachments.

c. Only one multiple plug attachment may be used per room.

d. If extension cords are used, they must be U.L. approved.

e. When room occupants are leaving for a weekend or vacation, all appliances must be unplugged.

f. No student shall tape over, tamper with, or disconnect a circuit breaker, a fuse, or telephone circuit box.

g. Parachutes, sheets, and other large flammable items are not permitted to be suspended from residence hall room ceilings and walls.

7. Furniture Misappropriation
No student shall move University equipment or furniture within a residence hall or apartment from room to room without receiving authorization from the head resident or apartment supervisor. Unauthorized movement of furniture within a building or from one building to another will be considered misappropriation.

8. Hall Opening and Closing
Students will not be permitted to check into University housing prior to the announced opening time. All residence halls are closed during Thanksgiving vacation, spring vacation and semester break. No student may stay in a hall after it has been closed for a vacation period. All residence hall front door keys must be returned to the residence hall staff at fall semester closing. Presidential Apartments may remain open during Thanksgiving and spring break. Temporary University housing will be provided for students participating in field placement experience should this be necessary during spring break. At the conclusion of the academic year, residents will be required to properly check out of their residence hall within twenty-four hours after completion of their last exam. In all cases, residents who are not graduating seniors must check out by 7:30 p.m. Friday.

9. Housing Contracts
The housing and food services contract contains specific terms and policy statements pertaining to keys, maintenance and damage charges, and room inspection, as well as the terms of the contract. The housing contract should be read carefully since non-compliance with the provisions of the contract could result in termination, nonrenewal, or forfeiture of housing fees.

10. Key Duplication
Residence hall room and front door keys may not be duplicated. Students who lose keys should immediately contact a member of the residence hall staff to get a replacement.

11. Lofts
A loft is any temporary structure or device intended to elevate furnishings from floor level or that, in effect, creates additional floor space in a residence hall room. Lofts meeting approved specifications may be constructed by students at their own risk and expense in accordance with the provisions of this policy.

Due to differences in room size, physical arrangement, ceiling height and building conditions, approved loft construction will be classified into two categories:

a. Small lofts or platform beds conforming to the University safety specifications may be constructed in the following halls: Bell, Chandler, Chappelear, Dingle-dine, Eagle, Frederikson, Garber, Hanson, Hoffman, Huffman, Ikenberry, Shorts, Weaver, White.

b. Full lofts or small lofts or platform beds conforming to University safety specifications may be constructed in the following residence halls: Ashby, Cleveland, Converse, Gifford, Logan, Shenandoah, Spotswood, Wayland.

University safety specifications for loft construction are available from the assistant directors of residence halls or the physical plant office.

Lofts or platform beds or any similar construction of any size are not permitted in Hillside units, Wine-Price, Glick, or the Presidential Apartments.

Due to fire safety regulations, loft construction materials may not be stored even temporarily in hallways or other public areas.

Any construction in University residence halls must receive prior approval and must be inspected for safety in the following manner:

Before construction begins a permit must be obtained from the assistant director of residence halls or the head resident, and a statement of responsibility must be signed by each occupant of the room in which construction is to take place. This permit must be displayed on the loft at all times after construction is completed.

Loft construction must be completed two weeks after the issuance of the building permit, and any University inspection for structural soundness and safety will follow. All full lofts must be equipped with smoke detector devices. Lofts which meet approved standards will be issued an inspection card which must be displayed on the loft at all times. Those lofts not approved must be appropriately modified or removed within 72 hours.

Failure to comply with provisions of the loft policy will result in the following penalties for each room resident:

1. Failure to obtain in advance or to display a construction permit—Automatic $15 fine and additional $15 per day assessment for each day the loft remains or proper permits are not obtained or displayed.

2. Storing, leaving, or dumping loft construction materials in any hallway, stairwell, or public area within a residence hall—Immediate $15 assessment and additional charges of $20 per day for each day the materials remain in the areas described above.

3. Failure to remove or properly modify a loft within 72 hours after an inspection in which the loft is disapproved—Immediate $15 assessment and additional charges of $15 per day for each day the loft remains in room without inspection approval.

4. Failure to dismantle a loft and remove it from the residence hall in accordance with the provisions of the loft policy and residence hall check-out procedures—$25 fine per resident plus incidental charges for damage or improper check-out from the residence hall.

The storage of loft materials during the summer months in University facilities is prohibited.

12. Overnight Guests

a. Overnight guests of the same sex over 17 years of age are permitted in residence halls and University operated apartments provided reasonable space is available and the roommates do not object.

b. Guests may stay overnight in student rooms only.

c. All guests must be registered at the hall office. Failure to register a guest may result in judicial action.

d. The host is responsible for the activities of guests while they are visiting the University. Damages attributed to guests will be charged to the resident host.

e. Residents may not have overnight guests during final examination week.

f. Guests may not stay overnight for more than two consecutive nights without special permission from the assistant director of residence halls responsible for the specific residence hall.

13. Paint Policy

Students will be permitted to paint their own residence hall rooms in accordance with the procedures and regulations set forth by the Office of Residence Life. Painting procedures and authorization forms are available from the head resident. No student is permitted to paint a room without first receiving written authorization from the head resident. Students painting their rooms without written authorization will be assessed a minimum charge of $15 each, and may be billed for returning the room to an acceptable condition.

14. Presidential Apartments

All University and residence hall policies as found in the Student Handbook and the terms and conditions of the Housing and Food Service Contract will be in effect at the Presidential Apartments. Residents of the Presidential Apartments must also recognize and agree to the additional conditions for apartment living as set forth in the Presidential Apartments Supplemental Agreement.

15. Public Area Requisition Procedures

The hall council must initiate any organized activity (other than registered recreation room parties) that makes use of public lounge or recreation space in a residence hall and for which there is any cost or fee charged for admission or participation. Active hall council sponsorship must involve all of the following:

a. The hall council (not solely the hall council president) must approve the requested activity by vote in a regular meeting with a quorum present.

b. Fees can only be collected by an authorized hall council member or residence hall staff member. Under no circumstances may any "instructor" or "sponsor" other than the hall council representatives collect money for admission or participation.

c. The hall council may vote to offer some financial remuneration to the sponsor or instructor of an activity, but no such remuneration is required.

d. Students wishing to sell items in residence halls should refer to the solicitation statement outlined in the University policy section of the Student Handbook.

16. Public Health Policy

Any student whose physical or mental health might jeopardize the safety or well-being of that individual or any other resident may be required to have an examination by a University physician or a consultation with a University counselor. Should the physician or counselor determine that a health or safety concern exists then the associate director of residence life may amend or suspend the student’s housing contract as appropriate.

17. Quiet Hours

The University is committed to providing students with housing in which they may grow and develop both personally and academically. In order to achieve this type of environment, quiet hours must be established and maintained. The development of an atmosphere conducive to study is the mutual responsibility of all residents. Therefore, the following guidelines are established:

a. Students are required to be considerate of the needs of others at all times and govern the noise level of their stereos and gatherings accordingly.

b. Every residence hall will have quiet hours and these hours will be posted throughout the hall.

c. The residents of each hall must determine their quiet hours by a two-thirds majority vote of the hall council. This matter will be one of the first orders of business for new hall councils at the beginning of a new academic year.

d. Prior to the adoption of quiet hours for a new academic year, the quiet hours that were used for the previous academic year will apply. Quiet hours will begin on the evening of the first day of class.

18. Radios, Stereos, and Sound Amplification Equipment

Radios, stereos, musical instruments and sound equipment may be used by residence hall students as long as the use of the equipment does not disturb other residents, faculty members, or neighbors. Sound equipment or musical instruments may be banned from the hall or confiscated if they are the cause of continuous complaints or disruption. The placement of speakers in room or suite windows is prohibited.

19. Restroom Use

All restroom facilities are designated as male or female. At no time shall these facilities be used by the non-designated sex. Visitors of the opposite sex are expected to use public restrooms.

20. Roofs and Balconies

Students are not allowed on roofs or elevated balconies of residence halls.

21. Room Assignment Policy

Room assignments are the exclusive responsibility of the Office of Residence Life and students are expected to remain in their assigned space unless officially authorized to move. Vacant space in rooms will be filled on a first-come, first-served basis by the Office of Residence Life. Students who misrepresent the truth, intimidate assigned occupants, or otherwise attempt to manipulate the housing assignment process illegally may be subject to judicial action or contract termination.

22. Room Inspection

a. The University reserves the right to periodically enter rooms and suites to insure that safety precautions are being observed and that sanitary conditions exist.

b. Rooms and suites may also be entered for cleaning, painting, repairs and maintenance.

c. In the case of a routine room inspection, residents will be given 24 hours advance notice. Rooms will be inspected at hall closing for Thanksgiving, Christmas and spring break. Any unauthorized or illegal items observed in student rooms or suites during a room inspection will be confiscated and will be used as a basis for disciplinary action.

d. In the event of requested service or a maintenance emergency, a room may be entered after knocking but without advance notice.

e. Students who persist in contributing to unsanitary room or bathroom conditions will be assessed a fee for the cleaning of the room and may have their housing contract cancelled.

f. Students should also be aware of the search policy which is described in the University policies section of this handbook.
23. Security

Students may return to their residence halls after evening closing hours by use of keys provided in the residence hall. A student without a key may be admitted to the residence hall by contacting the University operator and asking for assistance of a University police officer.

a. No student may lend a front door key to any other student or non-student.

b. A student who enters or leaves the residence hall after closing hour is responsible for securing the door.

c. A student may not prop open or in any manner alter a door so that it will not properly close.

d. Students are not to admit unauthorized or uninvited persons into the hall after it has been closed.

24. Storage

Residence hall storage rooms are provided for the convenience of students; however, the storage of large or dangerous items is prohibited. The University will take all reasonable precautions to safeguard the items stored, but will not assume liability in the case of damage or theft of personal belongings.

25. Trash Removal

Students are responsible for placing their trash in designated areas. Failure to do so will result in an automatic fine and possible judicial action.

26. Twenty-Four Hour Study Lounges

Twenty-four hour study lounges are designed to be utilized as study areas only. Each residence hall may, through its hall council, recommend that an area serve as a 24-hour study lounge. The head resident of each hall will approve or disapprove the recommendation. The designated area and the policies that apply will be conspicuously posted throughout the hall. The following policies will apply:

a. Students planning to use a 24-hour study lounge must be in the hall when the hall is closed.

b. Non-resident students who use the 24-hour study lounge must take the most direct route to and from the designated area and are not to enter the other areas of the hall.

c. Non-residents must be accompanied by a resident of the hall at all times while using the 24-hour study lounge.

d. Non-students are not permitted to use the 24-hour study lounge except when permission has been granted by the head resident.

e. Hosts are responsible for the actions of their guests.

27. Visitation

The policies below are to be followed during all periods of visitation:

a. Guests of the opposite sex may use only main lounges during non-visitaton hours. However, the areas may not be used during those hours when the residence hall is officially closed.

b. Guests must be escorted at all times by a resident of the hall which they are visiting.

c. Students are fully responsible for the actions of their guests and should not have more guests at any one time than they can supervise and control. Any party held in a student room or suite is the responsibility of the assigned residents and these individuals will be held accountable for any damage or violation of regulations.

d. In the event of an individual violation, the guest will be asked to leave by the hall staff and the host and the guest may be reported. Such violations will be referred to the University judicial coordinator. Non-residents who refuse to leave the hall are guilty of trespass and are subject to arrest.

e. In cases of floor or section violation, the residence hall staff may terminate visitation for the floor or section involved. If necessary, the visitation may be terminated permanently or for a designated period of time.

Services
The Office of Student Activities schedules campus facilities, entertainment programs and operates the Warren Campus Center, the Grafton-Stovall Theatre, and the coffeehouse "Maxims", located in Chandler Hall.

The Office of Student Activities maintains the campus scheduling office and provides a master calendar which includes all events of major significance to the campus community. Student organizations, faculty and staff groups may schedule auditoriums, meeting facilities and outdoor areas by contacting this office.
The Office of Student Activities provides campus entertainment through the University Program Board. This board, composed entirely of students, provides major concerts, movies, tournaments, coffeehouses, dances, speakers, trips and numerous other activities.

Facilities

A. Percy H. Warren Campus Center: Named in honor of a former dean of James Madison University, the Percy H. Warren Campus Center was officially opened in March, 1971 to serve as the base from which most student activities originate. The facilities in the Campus Center include a restaurant, ballrooms, meeting rooms, television room, general lounge, study area, outdoor recreation center, bookstore, bank, post office, student government offices, Honor Council office, student publication office, Greek offices, student organization office, programming office and directorate offices. There is also a Book for Sale board and a Ride board located in the building. Camping equipment is available for rental by students at the outdoor recreation center.

B. Grafton-Stovall Theatre: Located adjacent to the Campus Center building, the Grafton-Stovall Theatre is considered a part of the Warren Campus Center facilities. The theater was dedicated in January, 1979 and is named for two former members of the University Board of Visitors.

The 630-seat theater is the location for film showings, lectures, theater productions, concerts and other entertainment provided by the University program board for the enjoyment and interaction of the entire University community.

C. Chandler Hall: Located by Newman Lake, Chandler Hall was completed during the 1974-75 school year. In addition to being a residence hall, Chandler Hall houses a coffeehouse facility known as "Maxims", which the Campus Center makes available for limited use by student organizations. In addition, the University Program Board schedules a variety of entertainment programs in this facility throughout the academic year.

The building also has facilities for meetings, banquets, and social events. For use of these facilities, contact the Special Events Coordinator, Chandler Hall.

D. University Farm: The University Farm consists of 30 acres of land with a farmhouse located near Port Republic approximately 13 miles from main campus. It is available for use by members of the University community by requisition through the scheduling office of the Campus Center. The farm is closed from November 15 through March 15. A $50 deposit is required to reserve this space. A requisition and the deposit must be made before the space is reserved.

Student Activities Policies

A. Recognition of Student Organizations: All new student organizations must be approved by the Student Clubs and Organizations Subcommittee of the Commission on Student Services, by the Commission itself, and by the president of the University. This process is referred to as "recognition." ("Recognition" does not imply endorsement, by the University or the Student Government Association of the group itself or of the purposes or activities of the group.)

First, a core of interested students with the active support of at least one James Madison University faculty member should begin meeting as an organizing committee. This committee will be responsible for designing the organization, establishing purposes and functions, and drawing up a constitution. The chairperson of this organizing committee should obtain from the director of the student activities a copy of the criteria for recognition of student organizations as soon as the committee begins work. This material will help to make the organizing committee aware of what will be expected of it by the Student Clubs and Organizations Subcommittee, the Commission on Student Services, and the president.

An attempt should then be made to gather members. Organizations in the process for forming may use campus facilities to meet for the purposes of organizing and attracting new members. These facilities must be requested through the director of the student activities. The forming organizations may maintain this temporary status for a period of one semester only. If an organization has not achieved recognition within one semester, use of facilities will be withdrawn until the organization has had its constitution approved by the Student Clubs and Organizations Subcommittee, the Commission on Student Services, and the president of the University.

When the group has completed its constitution and obtained its charter members, the chairman of the Student Clubs and Organizations Subcommittee (Director of Student Activities) should be contacted, so that a date may be set for review of the constitution by that committee.

Upon review of the constitution by the Student Clubs and Organizations Subcommittee, the forming organization will be expected to revise its constitution as recommended by the committee and prepare and submit to the director of student activities a copy of the revised constitution at least one week prior to final review by the Commission on Student Services. The Commission on Student Services will consider the group's request for recognition at its next regularly scheduled meeting. Affirmative action on the part of the Commission will be necessary before the constitution and request for recognition is forwarded to the president of the University for final approval.

B. Disbandment of Student Organizations:

There are two ways by means of which an existing organization may be disbanded:

1. During the fourth eight weeks of each school year, the director of student activities will request that each recognized organization submit a list of new officers and an up-to-date version of its constitution with changes marked. Three weeks prior to the end of the second semester if an organization has not provided this information, it will be considered non-functioning and can be disbanded by a vote of the Student Clubs and Organizations Subcommittee.

2. Each year the Student Clubs and Organizations Subcommittee will review a portion of all recognized organizations in an attempt to ensure that existing organizations meet the same criteria by which newly forming organizations are judged. If these criteria cannot be met by an organization, it may be disbanded.

An organization which has been disbanded by either of these procedures must go through the recognition process if it is again to be considered recognized.

C. Allocation and Disbursement of Student Fees:

At the beginning of each school year funds from student fees will be allocated by the Board of Visitors to recognized student clubs designated by the S.G.A. These funds are designed to support a balanced program of social, cultural, and recreational student activities.

Procedures for Allocations:

1. In the spring of the year there will be a meeting of the Special Advisory Committee on Student Fees, made up of the president of student government, treasurer of student government, the chairman of the S.G.A. Finance Committee, University comptroller, director of student activities and vice president for student affairs, to project the total amount of student fees available for the following year and to discuss general philosophy and percentage allocations.
2. The Finance Committee of the Student Government Association will hold budget hearings for all recognized student groups seeking funds.

3. The S.G.A. Finance Committee will draft budget recommendations when budget hearings are completed. The Special Advisory Committee will review the budget structure.

4. The president and treasurer of student government will present the budgets to the student government senate for confirmation.

5. The University comptroller will establish separate accounts for each funded organization. An accounting manual will be developed by the comptroller, president of student government, the treasurer of student government, and the director of student activities for the funded organizations.

6. The fiscal year operating budget print-out for each funded organization and the accounting manuals will be distributed by the director of student activities to the appropriate organizations. The director of student activities will be available to consult with funded groups on questions involving the expenditure of funds.

Procedure for Expending Funds:

Once the allocations are made, groups may begin to draw on their accounts. The following procedures will be observed:

1. Signature cards will be made available by the S.G.A. to the appropriate student organizations. These cards should be signed by the person responsible for the clubs' finances. (This same signature must appear on the "Request for Check" form). The cards will then be delivered by the S.G.A. to the University comptroller's office.

2. In order to draw on the accounts, a "Request for Check" form must be completed and the appropriate signature must appear on both requisitions. When appropriate the invoice must accompany the "Request for Check" form.

3. The director of student activities will sign each requisition, other than those of the S.G.A., and will be available when assistance is necessary.

4. The "Request for Check" form must then be taken to the University comptroller's office. A check in the amount requested will then be written to the party indicated on the "Request for Check" form.

D. Space Requisitions: Recognized student organizations wishing to use University space for activities such as meetings, dances, programs and other productions, must request such space through the Office of Student Activities, Warren Campus Center, Room 102. An "Activity Request and Space Contract" must be prepared by the requisitioner, and upon being initiated by approving authorities, will constitute reservation of space. Special services to be made available must be listed on the form.

E. Sound Amplification Equipment: Sound amplification equipment may be used for such outdoor student activities as concerts or programs of a similar nature at or near the Campus Center, the east patio of Godwin Hall and the patio of the N Complex residence halls. All outdoor student activity programs on campus must be approved by the director of student activities and will conclude no later than 11 p.m.

F. Procedures For Use Of Student Activities Space

1. Student Activity Space is available to recognized student organizations, academic and administrative department and off-campus organizations which do not discriminate on the basis of race, religion, national origin or sex.

2. The requisitioning of Campus Center space Grafton-Stovall Theatre, University Farm, and other student activity space must be done in advance at the Campus Center office. In requisitioning use of the theatre, the University Program Board will be given priority and

3. Classes, laboratories, tests, or any type of academic activity shall not be scheduled in the Campus Center.

Office of Financial Aid

John H. Sellers, Director
Thomas Sheridan, Assistant Director
Ann H. Scroggin, Financial Aid Assistant
Hoffman Hall
Tel. No. 433-6644

The Office of Financial Aid endeavors to assist students in financing their higher education. Financial assistance is provided in the form of scholarships, grants, loans, and employment administered by the University. Students must be degree-seeking, making satisfactory academic progress, and able to satisfy respective program requirements.

The philosophy underlying all programs of assistance is that parents and the student have an obligation to finance the education of the student to a reasonable extent within their means. Each student and family situation is recognized as being unique. Each application and financial statement is carefully considered and analyzed to determine relative financial security and the ability to pay for education. Complete confidentiality is provided to persons supplying financial information. The financial aid awarded to a student is intended to be adequate rather than excessive, keep indebtedness to manageable levels, and provide employment opportunities commensurate with academic schedules.

The Office of Financial Aid is the liaison between the students with their families and the government or other sources of funds. The staff attempts to guide the student with regard to funding alternatives, financial planning, and regulations effecting the financing of an education. Much attention is also given to expediting the process of the many, required forms for the student. At the same time, the office is the designated, on-site agent for each source of funds. In this capacity it fulfills program regulations and maintains fiscal responsibility.

A detailed description of the financial aid programs and general related requirements are in the General Catalog and the Financial Aid Brochure. Students should apprise themselves of this information. Additional policies and responsibilities are described below.

Additional Policies and Responsibilities

1. Additional Assistance: A recipient of financial aid at James Madison University is required to notify the Office of Financial Aid in writing of any other form of financial assistance received during the period for which aid is granted by the University office. This applies to awards granted either prior to enrollment or at a later date. Such awards may include scholarships, employment, loans, assistantships, or fellowships which are not awarded by or in cooperation with the Financial Aid Office.

2. Other Employment: A recipient of any form of assistance awarded through the financial aid office may not accept employment without first obtaining approval from the office. If employment is awarded by the Financial Aid Office, any additional employment is prohibited.

3. Satisfactory Academic Progress: To receive financial assistance, students must be maintaining satisfactory academic progress in their course of study, as defined by Section 497(e) of the Higher Education Act, as amended. Satisfactory progress is a means of evaluating a student's efforts to achieve an educational goal within a given time frame. To satisfy this policy, measurements in the form of grade point average are applied against a norm. Federal regulations specify that an institution must apply its policy consistently to all students.

The satisfactory progress requirement should not be confused with the good standing or the retention policy. The latter means that a student may continue enrollment. Satisfactory progress means that a regular student is proceeding in a positive manner toward fulfilling degree requirements.
The policy is defined in the University's General Catalog.

4. Application Procedures: Students must apply each year for the financial aid desired. Since application deadlines for most programs are in the late winter prior to the year for which aid is sought, applicants are advised to consult the Financial Aid Office prior to Christmas holidays for application materials and deadline information. Because funding for all programs is limited, students are cautioned that late applications may not be considered for assistance.

Amounts and types of assistance may vary from year to year based on altered program regulations and eligibility criteria, amount of student need, number of qualified applicants, and available funds.

5. Award Revision: When a student receives assistance from sources other than the Office of Financial Aid, the package of assistance may need to be revised. A revision may also be necessary if a student is awarded assistance late in the year especially if that aid is retroactive. If an overaward exists, a repayment may be required.

6. University Withdrawal: If a student who receives assistance withdraws from the University, a portion of the aid awarded for that semester may be used to pay outstanding charges. This may include loans, grants, scholarships, and other aid in the award package. In addition, in the event a refund of costs are owed to the student, regulations specify that financial assistance programs which are disbursed must first be refunded before any amount is paid to the student. A detailed policy statement is available in the Financial Aid Office.

7. Summer School Awards: Assistance through employment or the Guaranteed Student Loan Program may be available during the summer for students who satisfy program requirements and who have submitted applications by the deadline. Pell Grant awards may be paid to certain students who did not receive the full entitlement in the prior academic year and who satisfy all other program requirements.

8. Publicity: The University believes that in most instances the type and amount of student assistance should remain confidential. The University will make public announcement of scholarships and other awards which it deems appropriate to announce.

9. Release of Records: Acceptance of University awarded aid carries with it the understanding that pertinent records may be shared with the donor or auditors as required.

10. Acceptance and Affidavit: Students awarded assistance should read all literature sent to them carefully in order to be fully apprised of legal obligations. Many programs require a student to affirm acceptance or rejection of assistance and to sign an affidavit before an award is final. Failure to comply with the requirements may lead to cancellation of aid, which is not renewable for the same period.

11. Other Policies: Student recipients of financial assistance are expected to conform to University policies. Additional program policies are described in other locations as noted earlier in this section. Changes in University policies or program regulations often occur outside of the control of the Office of Financial Aid. Students should contact the office regarding additional or changed policies and regulations.
