Over three thousand individuals
Each with unique feelings and abilities
Each seeking within, searching without,
in an attempt to find himself
Each working independently to become more knowledgable, developing natural talents, discovering new abilities, fulfilling his own special needs.
evolving with his own special dream
No man stands alone.
We need to share our dreams—
Striving is made worthwhile.
People need people; nowhere is this better exemplified than in college.
For Madison is much more than the tower of Wilson,
more than a chosen field of study,
so much more than even three thousand students.
It is a feeling of brotherhood, learning to love and to share.
watching strangers become friends.
Friends:
Some only acquaintances helped along by a friendly word or smile—

Others are companions with mutual interests and needs—
A few are so special that each becomes an integral part of the other.
“You give but little when you give of your possessions. It is when you give of yourself that you truly give.”

ENTERING A NEW PHASE

No, this is not a key to the Playboy Club.

All supplies must be inspected to prevent cluttering up the dorm.
Where do you expect to find room for all of this?

RECEIVING EXTRA HELP

It seems as if the pile will never decrease.

At least that's one way to bring everything.
When is that speaker going to finish?

At all times hold on securely to the mortar board.

Now they are officially seniors.
I told the man he measured my head too small.

SECURING THE FUTURE

Smile now, graduation has never been so close.

Hurry up before I fall asleep.
PRESENTING A PARTICULAR TALENT

The trouble with music today is that it’s too loud.
I wish I knew how to play this.

EXCELLING IN A UNIQUE FIELD

One more time and I'm liable to hit him with the tuba.

I wonder what these buttons are for.
The Lettermen proved to be very versatile.

BEING ENTERTAINED

Everyone was invited to dance in the aisles at the Platters' Concert.

The Korean Children's concert was a blending of voices and charm.
In what quarter is the hockey game?

ATTENDING A SPORTS EVENT

Maybe if I stand here, I won't have to play.

Remember girls, only two orange slices each.
How did they teach us to braid at summer camp?

Now with just a slight turn, I can produce music.

DEPENDING ON OTHERS

Even if it is February, I still might get a tan.
Working on the floor has certain advantages.

I wonder if I can start with Junior courses.

WORKING INDEPENDENTLY

All the easy teachers have already been taken.
UTILIZING TOOLS . . .

I'm sorry but this is not the desk for complaints.

Her answer looks better than mine.

FOR LEARNING

If you can understand this, then you'll have no problem with physics.

Maybe if I pray hard enough I'll pass.

Have you ever tried to read with your eyes closed?

Reading assignment for English: Start at one end and continue.

SPENDING QUIET HOURS

The perfect time to catch up on sleep missed at night.
I'm tired of holding the same note. I wonder if all great artists start out this way.

PRACTICING TOWARDS PERFECTION

Maybe he'll never notice me reading this letter.
I think I'll switch to the FM station.

DEVELOPING A BROAD EDUCATION

Memorize every slide and it's an easy A.

All I ever see is my eyelash.
RELAXING OCCASIONALLY

This elevator never goes anywhere exciting.

It's a dog's life.

All you ever do is write letters.
Nothing will stop the progress of getting to classes, not even snow.

BOARD OF VISITORS

Corporated in 1964 as “The Visitors of Madison College,” the Board controls all the real estate and personal property of Madison College. Eleven of the twelve members are appointed by the Governor of Virginia, and the Superintendent of Public Instruction serves as an ex officio member. The Board sets the rates charged students for tuition and has the right to confer degrees.

First Row: Dr. Daniel R. Hall, Mr. J. Leonard Mauck, Mr. E. Guy Ridgely, Mrs. Emily N. Spong, Dr. Dabney S. Lancaster. Second Row: Mr. Charles C. Broun, Mr. G. Fred Switzer, Mrs. Helen M. White, Mr. Russell M. Weaver, Mr. Wallace L. Chandler, Mrs. Mary S. Hammond, Dr. G. Tyler Miller.
Dr. G. Tyler Miller has witnessed numerous milestones in the growth of Madison College since he became its third President in 1949. His capable leadership has remained in evidence from the very beginning of his association with the college. President Miller continues to be regarded with great admiration as Madison prospers under his professional guidance.
BUSINESS MANAGER

As Business Manager of the College, Col. Adolph H. Phillips is concerned chiefly with the financial aspects and business affairs of Madison. He serves in accordance with the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia, as well as the regulations of the Board of Visitors.

Col. Adolph H. Phillips
DEAN OF THE COLLEGE

With Dr. Daniel R. Hall, Jr. as Dean of the College, Madison has experienced the effects of his fine direction. Dr. Hall manages and coordinates the instructional program of the college. His close contact with both students and faculty alike has enabled him to be a most invaluable coordinator.

Dr. Daniel R. Hall, Jr.
The Dean of Student Services, Dr. James W. Fox, carries the responsibility of directing a number of programs concerned with various forms of student aid. In handling this responsibility Dr. Fox enlists the aid of the Student Service directors.
PRESIDENT'S OFFICE

General Administration of the college is centered in the Office of the President. All functions and activities are coordinated by this office in order to maintain the effective operation of Madison. Such areas as study programs, faculty organization, financial plans, and public relations are all concerns of this office. It is in the Office of the President that a sense of order is established among the varied activities involved in college administration.

TEACHER EDUCATION 81
The Division of the Humanities, directed by Dr. Locke, contains five departmental programs. These are Art, English, Foreign Languages, Music, and Speech and Drama.

DR. LOUIS GLENN LOCKE
Director

Art students are shown works of art on display in the Duke Art Gallery.
The Art Department attempts to prepare students to be teachers or supervisors of art on either the elementary or secondary level; to provide a balanced background for talented students who wish to build a foundation for a career and/or advanced study in art; and to combine art with academic studies as a broad basis for general education on the college level.
This program is designed to prepare students to enter graduate study; to prepare them for the teaching profession; and to serve as basic preparation for many professions in which skillful use of language is important.
DEPARTMENT OF FOREIGN LANGUAGES

Programs are offered in French, German, Latin, Russian, and Spanish. They are designed to teach the student to understand and to speak a language with facility, to develop skill in reading and writing, and to provide an acquaintance with foreign literatures and an appreciation of foreign cultures; and to prepare students for the teaching profession, government work, international trade and research leading to advanced degrees.

FRESHMEN 266
As the Senior Class of 1969 begins the journey down the path of life, the many happy memories of the past four fruitful years spent at Madison College are foremost in our minds.

One event which particularly stirs our memory is the Senior Class Weekend held last fall. This traditional happening began with a series of skits in which the unifying theme was “The Graduate.” The program proved quite entertaining and appropriate. Other activities of this exciting weekend included a banquet, a dance with entertainment provided by The Epitome, and finally a concert sponsored by our sister class of 1971.

The senior Class Weekend is just one of many memorable events of the past four years. Certainly as we travel our separate ways, we shall encounter more joyful and memorable experiences. However, the years spent at Madison will always have a special place in our hearts, and we shall never forget the happy times experienced here.

JUNIOR CLASS

In Madison tradition, the Junior Class began another hectic but rewarding year by welcoming the Class of 1972, our sister class. At the same time we welcomed many new members to our own class, and everyone was soon caught up in the excitement which mounted in anticipation of the arrival of class rings. Plans were made for a lunar excursion, "Fly Me to the Moon," which occurred late in November. Orbiting this theme, class day and ring dance were the features of a weekend which highlighted the year for the Class of 1970.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

With the Class of 1971, a new tradition began—an eventful four-day celebration highlighted the class’s events instead of the familiar “Class Day” given by the majority of the classes.

This change enabled the Class of 1971 to enjoy a wide variety of organized entertainment. All of the functions reflected the theme of “Carousel”. The festivities began with the class skit, followed by a banquet the next evening. The most successful aspect of the weekend was the semi-formal dance held on Saturday night, with the Classics IV providing entertainment. A picnic on Sunday afternoon marked the final event of the weekend. The success of these events has encouraged the continuation of the weekend celebration in place of the well-known “Class Day” festivities.

ALPHA GAMMA DELTA

Founded 1904, Syracuse University . . .
Gamma Mu Chapter, Founded 1959 . . .
Red, Buff, and Green . . .
Red and Buff Roses

Sisterhood was a very active part of the Alpha Gam’s year. Thirteen of the Gamma Lambda’s at Longwood came to the campus to share in the initiation activities of the sorority. They also attended the Feast of Roses Banquet, and the Panhellenic Picnic. The Gamma Mu’s also plan to get together with Longwood and University of Maryland chapters.

Alpha Gam’s Flower Fantasy.

PRESIDENT: Page Lohmeyer.
The Beta Epsilon chapter of Alpha Sigma Alpha began its year by hearing that Lee Evaul, their delegate to the National Convention in St. Louis, had brought back the National Officers Efficiency Award. This award, plus the Panhellenic Scholarship Cup won last spring gives extra incentive for the chapter to do well in all its activities. Since the Scholarship Cup has been won three times by Beta Epsilon, the sorority now gets to keep the award and display it in the chapter room.
ALPHA SIGMA TAU

Founded 1899, Ypsilanti, Michigan . . .
Psi Chapter, Founded 1944 . . .
Emerald and Gold . . . Yellow Rose

The Psi chapter of Alpha Sigma Tau shows the true spirit of giving. Of their many activities, two enjoyed most by the girls were the Easter party given to the welfare children of the Harrisonburg area, and the Christmas carole they taped and sent to our men in Vietnam.

An Aster tackles a new pledge.

At Denver, Colorado, this past July, President Holly Crockett accepted the National Chapter Development Award for the Gamma Theta chapter of Phi Mu. This was the only award given of its kind to the chapter that had shown the most improvement in a one year period.

Another highlight of the Phi Mu's year is their sponsorship of a little girl at the Methodist Children's Home in Richmond. Last year, Linda came up to visit the sorority for Greek Weekend, and the Gamma Theta's look forward to her visit again this year.

PRESIDENT: Holly Crockett.

Madison College
The Queen of Violets reigns over third round parties.

SIGMA KAPPA

Founded 1874, Colby College, Delta Rho Chapter, Founded 1959 . . .
Lavender and Maroon . . . Violet

Each spring the Delta Rho chapter of Sigma Kappa honors the retired professors of Madison and the area alumnae of Sigma Kappa with a Ger-ontology Tea.

Also, in service to the community, the sorority remembers the elderly at Sunnyside Home at Massanutten with gifts and songs at Holiday time.

This year the Sigma Kappa's are looking forward to their first State Day at Longwood College, and also are reviewing their Parents' Day custom.
President Lyn Fiery, and delegates Joan Bailey and Janie Poland represented the Alpha Upsilon chapter of Sigma Sigma Sigma at their triennial convention held in Roanoke, Virginia. The awards won by the chapter show its various activities: Annual Examination Chapter Honor Roll for the triennium, Robbie Page Honor Roll for member participation in donating to the pediatrics ward (fully supported by the national sorority) of the North Carolina Memorial Hospital; first runner-up in Chapter Efficiency, and the only chapter to receive a silver plate for one hundred percent initiation for three years.

ZETA TAU ALPHA

Founded 1898, Longwood College . . .
Gamma Kappa Chapter, Founded 1949
. . . Turquoise and Silver . . . White Violet

Zeta Tau Alpha serves the community and carries out its philanthropic project by helping the retardee children at Simms School every week. Perhaps the most outstanding award won by the Gamma Kappa chapter at their national convention this summer was The Award for Sustained Excellence in Fraternity Spirit. The Zeta’s were very proud that their outstanding spirit, long shown on Madison’s campus, has been recognized nationally.

OFFICERS: C. Huff, E. Choby, M. Allen, M. Niles, K. Duncan, B. Myers.
SIGMA PHI EPSILON

Founded 1901, Richmond College...Purple and Gold...Violet, Dark Red Rose

On November 1, 1968, the members of the local fraternity, Phi Alpha Epsilon, replaced that name in favor of national affiliation with Sigma Phi Epsilon. This was of significant importance in that it was only the eighth group in Virginia to petition for colony status. Since the colony recognition of Sig Ep, the members have worked diligently to fulfill the responsibility of the fraternity toward improving relations with the college and local community. The work displayed for the Tams Concert, Greek Keg Party and mixers shows the Virtue, diligence, and brotherly love that the SPE’s strive to uphold.

TAU KAPPA EPSILON

Founded 1899, Illinois Wesleyan...Cherry and Gray...Pearl...Red Carnation

Affiliation of Sigma Delta Rho to Tau Kappa Epsilon took place this year. The fraternity has sponsored many functions which clearly display its rise to national status. Some of these activities include countless mixer dances, a house party featuring a visit from the Lettermen, and a slave auction for Panhellenic. Participation in intramural sports has added to the spirit of brotherhood found ever present in the TKE’s.

TKE’s and guests welcome the Lettermen to their party.
PHI ALPHA PI

Founded 1963, Frederick College. Gold and White. Yellow Rose

Phi Alpha Pi Fraternity was granted its charter at Madison College on December 10, 1968. The aim of it as a social fraternity is to instill the supreme ideal of brotherhood. Its function as a social society is, in every way, to arouse school spirit, friendly competition, and make both concrete and abstract improvements. Phi Alpha Pi is not limited to specific beliefs or creeds, but rather, founded on the sole platform of brotherhood, which is the greatest endowment man can have.
Phi Kappa Beta was transferred to the Madison campus this fall as a local fraternity. With it came the hopes of the brothers to continue its fine traditions as established at Frederick. While there they sponsored concerts and achieved high academic status. At Madison the PKS's were officially recognized on December 10th and have been active and outstanding in the intramural sports program. They are known for their saying. PKB once, PKB twice....

To provide campus recreational facilities such as T.V.'s, stereos, and ping pong tables is the purpose of the Recreation Council. Planning to widen the facilities to include more students, the council seeks to repair old equipment and procure new for the enjoyment of the whole campus.

Robin Smith, Chairman of Rec Council, serves on the executive council of the Student Government Association.
STUDENT COUNSELORS

Freshmen Sheryl Weiseman, Pat Morris, Leslie Curtis, Terry Hilton, and Linda Iser receive an orientation to Madison life through handbook classes with counselor, Becky McKee.
SOCIAL COMMITTEE

Receptions, teas, parties, picnics the Social Committee arranges social functions for SGA.

Chairman: Becky Dixon.
Policing Madison's campus for rule infractions is our ever alert Standards Committee. In an effort to promote high standards of conduct and appearance, their jurisdiction includes cutting campus and ultra-miniskirts.

Rallies, mixers, banquets, and conventions created an air of excitement and patriotism for enthusiastic Young Democrats. Members sought to further interest and activity in the Democratic Party as well as in the government. Club effort and participation progressed with the selection of Kathi Dugan, Virginia State Collegiate Secretary, to the state and national Democratic convention.
1968, an election year, added a new dimension to the Young Republicans nation-wide, state-wide, and campus-wide. Miami’s Republican Convention was the site where Debbie Tanner and Diane Sateridy gathered up bundles of enthusiasm to bring back to Madison. Using this spirit, the campus Nixon-Agnew supporters “spread the word” through car rallies, door-to-door campaigning, and conventions - all in anticipation of November 5.

WOMEN'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The Women's Athletic Association is the unifying body which oversees the activities of team intramurals, varsity sports, and various interest clubs for campus women. Under its auspices are the Bowling, Fencing, and Porpoise Clubs, Orchesis, and Pegasus. Closing out the year, the WAA presents an award to the girl in each class who has accumulated the most points for her participation in the organization's activities.

TENNIS TEAM

Combining skill, experience, and hours of practice, the Women's Tennis Team played their way to a winning season in the spring of 1968. Their record included five wins, two losses, and one tie. Two of the team members, Sally Crickard and Chris Shelton, represented Madison in the Middle Atlantic Lawn Tennis Association Tournament which was held May 2-4 at Mary Baldwin College. The girls went to second round competition in both singles and doubles.

Barb Moore looks around for a teammate to help her out while closely guarded by a Longwood opponent.

Constant strenuous practice and unequaled enthusiasm on the part of Coach Quinn and her women’s basketball team gave MC a winning season in 1969. A special feature of their fine performance was a warm-up drill executed to the music of “Sweet Georgia Brown.”
FENCING TEAM

Tryouts for the Fencing Team were held second semester and eight members were selected. Gwen Bruno, a senior with several years of experience on the team, was chosen as captain. Coached by Miss Rosemary Rummel, the team participated in matches with Hollins, Penn. State, Mary Washington, William and Mary, and Greensboro. They also competed in the State Fencing Tournament.

SWIMMING TEAM

Despite a record of two wins and four losses, the Swimming Team's season was not completely disappointing. The girls broke four records for the Division of Girls' and Women's Sports. A team composed of Joyce Plaugher, Debbie Crytzer, Nancy Taylor, and Jo Ann Hughes broke a record for the 160 yd. medley relay. Two 160 yd. freestyle relay records were broken by two different teams during the season. Marlene Langdale, a freshman, broke a pool record in the 200 yd. freestyle event at Lynchburg College.

PORPOISE CLUB

For those interested and proficient in water activities, the Porpoise Club provides an opportunity to develop and perfect strokes and synchronized swimming skills. The product of weekly practices throughout the year was the spring water show. “A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Storm Cellar: The Wizard of Oz” was performed as a poolsideplay. The club was invited to Hollins College for a workshop with other school where the members presented a number and received instruction from professionals in the field.

ADVISOR: Mrs. Jane Myers.
The Madison Dance Theatre was organized this year as a dance production group featuring talent ranging from modern dance to ballet. The group's activities on campus include such varied activities as singspirations and complete productions for the Fine Arts Festival. In March they attended the Mid-Atlantic Regional Dance Festival at Hollins College, and they traveled to Richmond for the Virginia Dance Festival. The Dance Theatre is noted for the professional productions it presents for students on campus and for the local community.
PEGASUS CLUB

Pegasus Club presented Madison’s first horse show to climax its fall activity. The events include all classes of equitation and the participants included both club members and students from the riding class. For outstanding performances Janet Astroth was announced champion and Karen Benson, reserve champion. Oak Manor School of Equitation was the site of the competition and of all Pegasus activity.

FENCING CLUB

Equipped with foil and mask, fencing enthusiasts try out each semester for the Fencing Club. Activities range from assisting with class instruction to visiting and competing with local clubs. The club received a special invitation to give a fencing clinic in January at Salisbury State College.
In bowling, as in many sports, good form will improve one's score.

Madison College’s soccer team made its debut in the Virginia Intercollegiate Soccer Association by playing a seven match schedule. The team was built around Mike Frye, Jim Fleming, and Jim Robinson, who were the only members with previous high school playing experience. This lack of experience was evident as shown by the results of the first four matches. Madison gave up an average of eight goals per match while being held scoreless. The team finally managed to score four times in their sixth match, but this was only good enough to tie Hampden-Sydney.

The highlight of the season was the fine play of the goalie, Jim Fleming. Jim made 128 saves in seven matches, and this performance earned him Honorable Mention on the All State Soccer Team. Coach Rader started seven freshmen and four sophomores throughout the season, therefore MC will be able to field an all veteran team next fall. The members of the team chose Michael Frye, their leading scorer, and Jim Fleming as honorary co-captains for the team.

The outstanding performance of goalie Jim Fleming earned him Honorable Mention on the All State Soccer Team.
Men’s Basketball

Bolstered by the return of several lettermen and the addition of several talented freshmen and transfers, the Dukes showed real improvement in their 1968-69 season. Weeks of strenuous practice and extensive drills paid off as the team demonstrated some fine ball handling in a long-awaited winning season.

The varsity cheerleading squad leads the Madison cheering section as the Dukes score another basket.

CHEERLEADERS

More school spirit was developed this year as two cheering squads led spectators of various sports in supporting their teams. Advised by Miss Betty Jaynes, the girls developed new cheers and routines for use in our ever expanding sports program.

During a time out in a women's basketball game, the junior varsity cheerleaders lead the spectators in voicing support for their team.

FOR SUCH IS THE UNBROKEN CIRCLE, FROM EARTH TO THE SKY ABOVE. THAT TO GIVE OF LOVE IS TO GIVE OF LIFE AND IN GIVING LIFE FIND LOVE.
1969 Bluestone - In Retrospect

For most of you, a yearbook is little more than a collection of pictures taken throughout the school year. Perhaps you were inconvenience when a picture was made, or you didn’t receive your proofs, or perhaps even your picture was omitted. In these cases and others, you may tend to look upon the yearbook staff as inefficient and uncaring.

Upon completion of this book, as well as upon leaving office, I only ask that you look beyond what seems apparent. There are few people left on our campus who are willing to make the sacrifices which are necessary in publishing a book such as this. These few people must, therefore, tackle a job which requires many people. In doing so, they no longer have time for their friends, for studying, or for anything which most college students take for granted. Instead, they spend their time in such activities as scheduling pictures, drawing layouts, attending meetings, solving other people’s problems, and “pulling all-nighters” in order to meet a deadline. Yet, for the most part, they receive little cooperation and much criticism from the faculty, administration, and their fellow students. Unless we do our part to change this situation, the time will come when Madison ceases to have a yearbook.

There are many people I would like to thank for the ways in which they have helped this year. Barry has been of special help throughout the year, not only because of her creativity, but even more because of her understanding and enthusiasm. Betty, Cindy, Jeanne, Hazel, and Nan—all on my staff—have done an excellent job even though they were forced to carry an extra-heavy yearbook load. Others have helped by giving me personal encouragement, as well as by working—especially my family, Terrie, Minna, Barbie, Gail, Newt, Tut, Karen, and Cookie.

The 1969 Bluestone was published by Hunter Publishing Company, Winston-Salem, North Carolina. Special thanks are extended to its representatives, Mr. Jim Ellis and Mr. Charles Perry, for their expert guidance and understanding. The cover was produced by S.K. Smith. Class portraits were taken by Victor O’Neill Studios, New York City. Their representative, Mr. Tom Young, has been most helpful to us. Almost all of the candid photography is the result of the outstanding ability of Mr. Allen Litten, of Harrisonburg.

For each of you, the yearbook has a different meaning. We who have both loved it and endured it, hope that it will be special to you.

Emily V. Hardy
Editor, 1969 Bluestone
