

ATTENTION VIRGINIA STUDENTS AND RECENT GRADUATES:

Share your words and ideas and experience the power of publication

The VA Engage Journal for Student Scholarship is now accepting submissions

VAEJ is a unique leadership, mentorship, and e-publication opportunity:

- That showcases undergraduate and graduate student scholarship.
- For emerging drafts or A+ papers that address social, economic, and environmental issues.
- Your opportunity to critically reflect on your community/civic engagement experiences and share your knowledge.
- Only available to undergrads and grad students enrolled at a two- or four-year Virginia college or university on a full- or part-time basis in academic year 2023-24, as well as recent Virginia graduates.

Get started:

- Select a piece you have created/co-created: VAEJ accepts papers in traditional text format, but also multi-media including artistic forms of scholarship. Submissions with multiple student authors are encouraged.
- Check out the categories below for potential focus areas for your piece.
- Review the Journal's publication criteria to make sure your submission fits within the requirements.
- Visit the VAEJ web site and click on the link: "submit article"
- Preferred submission deadline: January 31, 2024. Final deadline: May 31, 2024.

What happens after you submit your work?

- The VAEJ team of editors and reviewers thoughtfully review submissions.
- Following the review, we email you with feedback about next steps for publication. Revising is both challenging and the most rewarding part of the VAEJ experience.
- Revising typically takes several months and a few drafts. Throughout, engaged faculty and practitioners across the Commonwealth, provide guidance and feedback.

Submission categories to help you get started:

- Research Studies: "The Translation of Inclusion/Acceptance, Accessibility, and Empathy with Online Community Engagement"
- Critical Reflections: "Reflecting on The Now: Race, Gender, Socio-Economic Status and COVID-19"
- Reviews: "Reflective writing in prisons: Rehabilitation and the power of stories and connections"
- Profiles of Practice: "Pushing the Boundaries of Healing"
